FRESHMAN PRESIDENTS ARE BEING TRIED OUT

Elections for the freshman presidents, Interclass Sports Council representative, and class officers and wrestling manager were held at the Freshman chase meeting last Wednesday night. The men who will assume the duties of these offices are: Trial presidents, Paul Lutz, Fink and McCurdy. Interclass Sports Council representative, Woodring. Lacrosse Manager, Steve Wrestling Manager, Hines. Going to the ahead of Hines is Hines '21, Junior class president, Korb '21, Vice-president, and meeting, which will be held at an indication that the new year will take a real interest in the affairs. "Stan, Cohen, and new men, some of whom are true meaning of fresh, are urging them to get into the college, and not to fail to be present at all mass meetings and athletic tests. Under his direction a new yell was tried out, which was: Ho Ho! Ho-Rah-Rah! Penn State! 1936-37. Calls for candidates were made by S. L. Hoyer '22 for the Penn State Farmer staff, for more interclass wrestlers by Manager Hoyer.

Westernport, Md. Oct. 24, 1936. Managing Editor, Penn State Collegian, State College, Pa. Dear Sir:— Enclosed please find Post Office Money order for $1.50 for one year's subscription to that old reliable Collegian, the best college newspaper that any Alma Mater could put out. There are five State alumni here in this town, the interested kind that wait eagerly each week for the news from State, so for our sake "keep 'er comin'". Yours for success, JULIAN G. PATRICK '11.

State's strength for it has been fully demonstrated in the last two games. Every Penn State student can feel confident that his team will go to Ithaca determined to fight to the last ditch for victory, but to play the same clean, no matter what the outcome. Coach Bagley seems to have hit upon right combination for his team at last and he is now perfecting it into a smooth-working organization. Penn State's line-up will probably be: right end, Captain Higgins; right tackle, Culbager; right guard, Geborn; center, Coughlin; left guard, Hantz; left tackle, Henry; left end, Brown; quarterback, Holt; right half back, Way; left half back, Stoll; full back, Killinger; fullback, Hess.

Cornell Fresh vs. State Previous to the varsity game, the Penn State Freshmen will play the Cornell first year team at Ithaca, N.Y.
