PITT PANTHER HUMBLED

BY NITTANY LION 20-0

out-of-bounds and a one yard gain. The ball was brought in and Way on an attempted end run was thrown for a loss. Robb then made his way through a large hole in the left side of the line for twelve yards. Snell carried the ball on the next play, but Pitt was penalized and it was the Blue and White's first down on Pitt's 40-yard line. Robb made two yards through the line. An attempted forward pass grounded, and upon a fake punt formation, Way fumbled a bad pass, counting a five yard loss. Hess pointed out of bounds on Pitt's 37-yard line. Upon the first play with the ball in Pitt's possession, Cabbage broke through the line and threw Hastings for a two-yard loss. McCracken was able to make but a single yard around left end. Hastings then punted and the ball was finally downed on State's 34-yard line. Way tumbled a pass from center, losing two yards, but Snell regained those two yards on a play off right tackle. Hess again punted poorly, the ball going out of bounds on the 35-yard line. Following this break for Pitt, Hastings made three yards through the line. A forward pass over the scrimmage line, Hastings to Davies, netted Pitt a 10-yard gain, but they were penalized on the play and the ball was brought back to the Penn State 40-yard line. Hastings then prepared for a placement kick from the State 45-yard line, but the ball was heavy and failed to carry, Robb receiving it on the 15-yard line and carrying it to the 23-yard line. Then Robb made four yards around right end and Way followed with a one yard gain. Hastings was then called back to punt and the ball fell dead on Pitt's 42-yard line. With third down and them and 12 yards to go, Hastings punted to Hess on the 20-yard line to Hess, who sped on with the ball to State's 44-yard line where McCracken carried him out of bounds by a flying tackle. The quarter ended with the score, Penn State 7; Pitt 0.

Hess Makes Another
The second quarter opened and Robb and Hess bucked the line in turns for four or five yards, easily making first down. Then after making two more yards through the line, Robb shot a forward pass to Brown for first down on the Pitt 32-yard line. Then Hess bucked the line for four more yards, and State was penalized on the next play for 15 yards. After several penalties on both sides, coupled with an end run for 7 yards by Robb, the ball was State's on the 38-yard line. Way then made four yards. After again making five yards through the line, Robb threw a forward pass to Way who made first down on the 20-yard line. Hess hit the line for five yards and Snell followed with a one yard gain. Robb ran around right end for three yards, but was stopped by a tackle down just inside the ten yard line. Hess hit the center of the line for five yards, Robb made a yard, Snell carried the oval to the two-yard line and Hess took the ball over for a touchdown. Cabbage failed at goal. Score, Penn State 13; Pitt 0.

Hastings kicked off to Way, who broke through the maze of Pitt men in a marvelous way, carrying the ball to Pitt's 48-yard line, and very nearly for a touchdown, being stopped by Pitt's lone safety man. Robb made a beautiful forward pass to Higgins, who weighted out of a tackle and carried the ball to the five-yard line. Penn State was then penalized 15 yards but again broke through the line to the seven-yard line. A forward pass was incomplete over the goal line and it was Pitt's ball on the 20-yard line. Pitt was unable to gain while they had the ball, and again the Blue and White representatives went down the field to the 42-yard line, where Conover failed at a placement kick. The end of the half came and the score stood, Penn State 13, Pitt 0.

Way Keeps It up
With the opening of the second half, no changes were made in the State line-up, but Eckert replaced Brown at left end. A new ball was put into play and Conover kicked off to McCracken on the 13-yard line, who returned it to the 23-yard line. Osborn, Penn State's lineman was hurt on the play, but remained in the game. Cabbage threw Hastings for a seven yard loss and Hastings punted to Robb who carried the ball out of bounds on Pitt's 47-yard line. On the next play "Charley" Way went through left tackle and the entire Pitt team, outspringing them the rest of the way to the goal line, for a remarkable run and a touchdown. Conover kicked over. Score, Penn State 20, Pitt 0.

Conover kicked to Davies on the 12-yard line who returned it to the 21-yard line. After making a first down by repeated runs by Davies and Hastings, Pitt was forced to kick, the ball being downed on State's 29-yard line. State's safety made another first down, but soon was again penalized for fifteen yards. After several interchanges of the oval, and penalties which forced the State team back to its six yard line, Hastings sent the ball out from behind the goal line to Hastings who brought it to the 34-yard line. Hastings was unable to gain through the line, the ball going to State on downs on the 23-yard line. After Robb made two yards around end, State was penalized for holding. The quarter ended at this stage. Score, Penn State 20, Pitt 0.

With the opening of the last quarter, Higgins punted to Davies on Pitt's 46-yard line who ran it back nine yards. Then Pitt tried a series of forward passes which were in every case battered down by the efficient Blue and White secondary defense. Triple passes, line bucks and end runs availed Pitt but four yards. Then, Way, Snell and Robb each hurled themselves at and over the Pitt line for first downs and the ball rested on Pitt's 41-yard line. With six more yards off right tackle for Robb, Gourley replaced Meanor at right guard for Pitt. Then, with the ball on Pitt's 39-yard line, forward passes were sent toward the goal, one of which Hastings in catching the oval failed to hold and a touchback resulted. With Pitt's ball on its 20-yard line, Davies and Hastings made three consecutive first downs, the first real brilliant play on the part of Pitt's backs. Beck replaced Cabbage at right tackle and A Bremen replaced Hastings at fullback for Pitt. With the ball on Pitt's 35-yard line, Robb sent a forward pass which was intercepted by Bremen. Davies, made six yards around right end for the closing play of the struggle. Final score, Penn State 20, Pitt 0.
