

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION IMPORTANT

Gathering Will Be Held in Des Moines, Iowa—Penn State Will Send Delegates

The Student Volunteer Convention which is to take place in Des Moines, Iowa, during the Christmas holidays, will comprise the largest gathering of students ever assembled for any purpose. The speakers will be the very best of the world.

The University of California will have the largest delegation with thirty-seven members. The names of many representatives have been published.

The Student Volunteer movement is one of prime interest to all people who believe in the work of foreign missions. It is an important factor in the solution of the problems facing the world at this time.

Before the war these meetings were held every four years and much interest was shown in them by the large number who attended and the interesting clippings taken from newspapers and letters sent by former representatives.

SCHOLARSHIP MEMORIAL COLLEGE CONDUCTING TO BEHOUT AND LAMB EXAMINATION TESTS

Previous to the annual Turkey Day convocation at Fort Pitt, the Patriotic Alumni Association of Penn State held a meeting at the Fort Pitt Hotel, the result of which is expected to prove of much benefit to this institution.

A law passed last May by the State Legislature making it necessary for the protection of the public health that all cream and milk and individuals using the Babcock test for butterfat when purchasing milk or cream shall employ certified teachers.

These scholarships are to be known respectively as the Behout and Lamb scholarships and each year, athletes who have good scholastic standing, but are unable to pay their way through college, after being passed by a committee of five former Penn State students, will be sent to this institution and their expenses for their years in college paid for.

Varsity Eleven Given Reception

Turkey Banquet Followed by Large Student Reception in Armory

Friday evening a rousing reception was held for the victorious football team, now regarded as the best eleven in the East. The Armory, which was fully decorated with varicolored bunting, was packed with students eager to meet the men on the team and to show their appreciation of the wonderful work of the gridiron warriors.

After several selections by the band, the dynamic cheerleaders led a yell for each member of the varsity eleven as the first event of the evening. Next Captain Higgins was called on to present the football, used in the victory over Pitt, to the college. After a few appropriate words, he transferred the football to Maginnis, president of the Senior class as the representative of the college. Maginnis congratulated the team and its captain on their successful season and conveyed to them the gratitude and appreciation that is felt by the entire student body.

"We have another task on our hands also. There are fourteen hundred students who are not getting the most out of their college life. These men do not belong to any fraternity and do not have the social advantages that the others have. They do not have the opportunity to go to house parties, dances or like functions that go to make life pleasant. This is not right and it is not a healthy condition for the college. Everyone should have the same opportunity.

Girls Organize Thespian Club

For many years there has been a desire among the women students of the college that they have not been given a proper opportunity to show their dramatic ability.

The Women's Thespian Club was organized last week with eight charter members and one faculty member. Dean Kiehl was elected an honorary member and faculty treasurer, and these officers chosen: Miss Eva Hoy, president; Miss Ruth Elton, secretary; Miss Mary Fox, treasurer; Miss Lois McWhorter, manager; Misses Hartley, McWhorter, membership committee.

The banquet to the team was held in the track house at five o'clock Friday to which the entire squad was invited together with the coaches and their wives, Dr. Pond and wife, Neil Fleming and wife, Ray Smith and wife, Dean Warnock and wife, Mrs. and Miss Sparks, and Miss Knight, who acted as hosts of honor for the occasion. "Seating" for a sumptuous repast for the team and they did justice to it by consuming 120 pounds of turkey with all the extras and things which go with it, in about an hour and a half. Not only did the students help to make this a success but also the merchants of town who contributed some of their goods and at this time special mention should be made and thanks given to Harvey's for the mince pies and rolls, the Athletic Store for the cigarettes, Graham and Sons for the candy and the Rexall Store for the cigars.
