GRAHAM & SONS on the Corner

CAST FOR PLAYERS' NEXT PRODUCTION IS CHOSEN

The Penn State Players will continue their dramatic activities during the present year by giving a three-act comedy by Oscar Wilde on April sixteenth. The play selected is "The Importance of Being Earnest", and it is considered one of the best of a series of very successful productions which include such favorites as "Lady Windemere's Fan", "A Woman of No Importance" and "An Ideal Husband".

Mr. Cloetghing who is supervising the coaching and staging of the production, is very well pleased with the work of the students who tried out for this play and he has announced the following cast: John Worthing, Hugh Q. Miller '22, Algonz Moneroff, R. G. Adams '21, Rev. Canon Chasuble D. D., L. F. Rothrock '21, Merriman, Butler, W. C. Shultz '21, Lane, man-servant, F. D. Hoyt '21, Lady Bracknell, Catherine Hamilton '23, Hon. Generalen Fairfax, Mary Mumbold '21. Rehearsals are being held five nights a week and in addition the managers of the club are preparing two new sets of scenery—an interior setting and a garden scene.

YEARLINGS LOSE AGAIN TO PANTHER FRESHMEN

Fighting every inch of the way, the Columbia basketball team was forced to bow for the second time this season before the attack of the Pitt yearlings in the Armory last Saturday, the final score being 16 to 11. The battle was one of the most interesting played in the history of the team and playing a fast game throughout. Ray and Mar-
