W. VA. RUNNERS TO BE MAY DAY GUESTS

Varsity Cinder Meet Will Be a Feature of Next Saturday's Program—Visitors Are Strong

The Penn State track team has done no active work in the way of inter-collegiate contests since its recent victories at Lehigh University and the Penn State, but coach "Bill" Martin is concentrating his efforts with the cinder squad in preparation for the next dual meet of the schedule which will occur next Saturday on New Beaver Field with the West Virginia team as the visiting opponents. The events will be run off during the inter-scholastic May Day, assuring the spectators of a most interesting and varied exhibition of his recent work. The contest will commence at one o'clock in the afternoon.

MOCK CONVENTION TO BE HELD SOON

Plans are now well under way toward the holding of a mock convention in the auditorium on Friday evening, May twenty-first, at which presidential candidates will be nominated by the various delegates selected from about four hundred students who are taking political science. From present indications, the convention promises to have all the features of a real national convention and a great amount of enthusiasm and rivalry is expected to prevail among the numerous delegations. Twenty-eight states will be strongly represented by student delegates, who will nominate the favorite sons of the states which they represent and will elect their headquarters in prominent places throughout the town.

TODAY IS ANNIVERSARY OF "PREXYS" INAUGURATION DAY

Monster Parade Participated In By Whole Student Body at Time of Dr. Sparks' Arrival at State College Twelve Years Ago—Article Is Reprint of 1908 Collegian.

Today, May 12, President E. E. Sparks celebrates the twelfth anniversary of his stay at Penn State during those years he has seen the college grow by leaps and bounds until at the present time it ranks as high both scholastically and financially as any state university in the country. In his time the college and faculty has grown in enormous proportions as has the standard and ideals of the students. Four entire new sets of students have appeared and with each the standard has grown. The difference between the college and students of twelve years ago and those of today may be best depicted by this description of his reception to this place, taken from the COLLEGIAN of May 20, 1908.

"On Wednesday morning, May 13, the several departments of the College celebrated the arrival of our new President by giving a fantastic parade, led by the cadet regiment. College exercises were suspended in the morning for the event. "At 9:30, Captain Hay took advantage of the day to review the regiment preparatory to the inspection of this week. After this, the cadets marched in column of squads to the grandstand where they swung into the road in the rear of the band.

"The band led the triumphal march to Allen Street and then marched down in front of the reviewing stand which was placed before the Auditorium. The cadets marched past in column of platoons and made an excellent appearance with their line extending fully three hundred yards. The band swung into the road between the Auditorium and the Main building and thus was able to play for the entire parade to pass review.

STRONG SUPPORT GIVEN SENIOR MEMORIAL PLAN

Large Representation Voices Unanimous Approval of Memorial Plan. The twenty-year endowment plan which was placed before the class of 1920 last Thursday evening, was approved almost unanimously, by a large representation of the class. The matter received considerable debate and was finally agreed upon as the best possible which the class might adopt for the betterment of Penn State. Steps have already been taken in order to carry out the plan, and it will be but a few days until results will be announced. The plan has already been subscribed to by one-third of the members of the class and it is expected that the end of the week every member of the class will have placed his name on the honor roll of the 1920 memorial fund. The women students of the class evidently showed an appreciation of the value of their college by being present in full force, and giving their hearty endorsement.

DR. H. H. APPEL TO SPEAK SUNDAY CHAPEL

Doctor Henry Harbaugh Apple, President of Franklin and Marshall College, will deliver the addresses at chapel next Sunday morning. Doctor Apple has taken part in prominent academic circles and obtained degrees at Franklin and Marshall, Lafayette, and the University of Pennsylvania. He is president of the Association of School Colleges and Seminaries of the Reformed Church of America, a member of the Academy of Political and Social Science and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities. He is an ordained minister and was pastor of St. Johns Church of Philadelphia from 1892 to 1898 and pastor of the Trinity Church of New York from 1898 to 1909. Since 1909 he has been pastor of Franklin and Marshall College.

BALL TEAM MEETS U. OF PIT TODAY

W. & J. Is Next Opponent, Followed By Trip to Yale and Princeton

The Nittany Lion attacks out at the Smoky City today to meet the Pitt Panthers on the diamond. Our Western rivals have not had much of a season so far. On their southern trip they lost twice to Georgia Tech, once to North Carolina, without even a hit and four times. They have recently defeated Juniata College on the home diamond. The line-up will most likely be as follows: Jones if Daniels is out, Brady 2b, Davies ss, Robinson 3b, Supper c, Burtner cf, Ryan 1b, Bloom p. This Saturday the Washington and Jefferson nine is to appear on New Beaver Field. Their first game was played last week and in a 9 to 5 loss to Huntington. The playing in this contest was rather loose and many errors were made in the pitcher. Their line-up will probably be as follows: Felton 2b, Dunkle ss, Maize lf, Culver c, Graham cf, Henry 3b, Donaldson 1b, Pace rf, Vance p, and Steere p. Next Tuesday and Wednesday will see the team at Yale and Princeton successively. Yale has a big string of players to choose from and is having a very successful season. Kelly, one of the varsity pitchers has been offered a berth with the Yankees and the other man are of a like caliber. The Pitt batting list will be as follows: Crane lf, Sawyer 2b, Peters c, Faherty cf, Parsons lf, Aldrich ss, Leonard 3b, Holmes 3b, Cuthoun, Chittenden, Selbeck or Kelley p. Princeton has a hard-hitting aggregation of ball players. McGinnis, their star left fielder, is perhaps their best slugger. The Tiger will most likely have the following line-up: Strubling cf, Lee rf, Trimble 2b, McNaught cf, Winton 1b, MacPhee ss, Fisher c, Kroyen 3b, Warburton p.

JAPANESE AGRICULTURIST WILL LECTURE HERE FRIDAY

Dr. Issa Tanimura, Japanese Commissioner of Agriculture, will give an illustrated lecture, Friday evening, May fourteenth at seven-thirty, in the May fourth hall of the Agricultural Old Chapel, on "Foreign and Livestock Conditions in Japan." Dr. Tanimura is a graduate of Yale and the Dickinson Law School and enjoyed a fellowship at Cornell. He is very much interested in all phases of agriculture, and particularly in establishing a connection between the Japanese and American farms. He is the owner of an eight-hundred acre experimental farm in Japan and for the past twenty years has been working for his government in the interest of better agriculture.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN STARVING IN RUSSIA, POLAND AND GALICIA—CHANCE TO GIVE AID

Penn State will give an opportunity this Saturday to save dying women and children from the untold horrors of the "dollar day" fund of the American Jewish Relief Committee in Russia, Poland and Galicia, their number six million, all starving, ragged and helpless as a result of the calamity brought about by war conditions. Destruction, suffering and the other horrors of war have made these lands desolate and has strangled thousands of helpless mothers and refugees amidst their borders. These people need food, clothing and a decent place in which to live. Their condition is as yet in too chaotic a condition to regard the people's need as that of a casual recognition of great deaths because of want. The situation there is one where race, creed, nationality, have no place when a decision is to be made as to the admissibility of giving help. $60,000 of them are helpless children $200 will save one child's life for a whole year. A dollar given in this campaign will aid a child for almost a week, even in Poland where food costs twice as much as it does here, and Poland is full of children, eight or ten years old, who cannot even walk because of the lack of food. This campaign for funds is a nation wide affair. Every city in the country has taken it up and given un begrudgingly. However, funds are always required. A great work once started requires assistance for fulfillment. President Sparks, Dean Warnock, the local industry, the Y M C A, the Y W C A and the Student Volunteers have all lent a willing hand to forward and make the campaign a success. The plan is to make a one-day affair and on Saturday the college will be tagged for the dollar which will mean so much to those in Europe. Dr. Foster is the local treasurer and the collection-burdens will be under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. in cooperation with the ministry and the Secretary of the National Council of American Women. The campaign is being made in the churches on Sunday and the response gave every indication that the town as well as the college would joyously have of the opportunity. In the face of these endorsements, and above all, in recognition of these people's needs, Penn State students are asked to subscribe to the fund this Saturday.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS TO FEATURE GALA MAY DAY

Tennis, Track and Baseball Will Afford Entertainment for Students and Visitors on Saturday

PRINCIPALS WILL BE GUESTS OF COLLEGE

Unless weather conditions are unfavorable, Saturday will be the biggest day for Penn State so far this year. A large number of visitors will be attracted to Penn State by the unusual line-up of events for May Day. Events of all kinds will be featured and from morning until night there will be something of interest and at many times there will be several good events at the same hour. The first gathering of the day will be a conference of high school principals at nine o'clock and immediately after that will be the preliminaries in the inter-scholastic Track meet which will be held on New Beaver. Interscholastic Meet. For a number of years it has been customary to hold a track meet for the schools of the entire region. Every high school of any size entering in this year's meet will be represented. Athletes of quite a reputation in the high school world have always taken part and this year the inter-scholastic meet will be no exception. In addition to the high school class, considerable time has been placed on working up a preparatory school class which will be strong this year than in the past. Klack, Indiana Normal and several other schools of that class will take part. Medals are awarded to winners in the various events, cups are presented to the teams winning the most points in each class. Three cups will be given for the first three places in the high school mile relay. In addition, every contestant, regardless of his placing, will receive a Penn State medal indicating that he has taken part in the event. Preliminaries will be run on in the morning at ten o'clock and finals will start at one o'clock. Other Events. Sports and athletic events of all description will reign supreme on Saturday, tennis with a team in at 10:15, varsity track meet with West Virginia at 1:15, Freshman baseball with Lafayette High School of Buffalo at 1:30, and the big varsity game with Washington and Jefferson at 3:30. As another attraction, the cadet regiment will be reviewed on New Beaver Field at 11:00 and in the evening.

VARSIY CONQUERS FAST EASTERN NINES

Pitchers Work in Fine Shape and Receive Good Support—"Killy" Knocks Two Home Runs

With the scarp of Fordham, Army, Colgate and a good sized exchange of games with Syracuse during in their belts, the Penn State diamond warriors returned from their highly successful eastern invasion. Victories in every match until the second game with Syracuse when the Orange came back with a six to two victory, the Illio and White hill tossers upheld the name of Penn State while on their eastern sojourn. As Bradek put it "they are a little better than the best." The games were all close, Fordham lost three to two, Army lost three to one, Colgate succumbed nine to six Syracuse submitted three to nothing on Friday and the next day retaliated six to two. This last game with Syracuse was the only defeat sustained by the Nittany athletes during the entire trip. Fordham was the first to feel the strength of Bradek's prowess, losing a pitcher's duel last Tuesday by a three to two score. This game opened auspiciously for Fordham, who got two runs in the first inning. The Nittany settled down and held the New Yorkers scoreless for the remainder of the contest. Penn State was unable to score until the eighth when Brumback hit safely to first and Kelly followed with a home run, being the first to put the Nittany team on edge and in the ninth, Mearke crossed the plate, winning the game three to two. The line-up was as follows: (Continued on Page Three)

SOPHS VICTORS IN CLASS TRACK MEET

With a total of forty-nine points to her credit the class of 1922 carried off big honors at the inter-class track meet, held on New Beaver Field, Saturday afternoon. The Freshmen and Juniors gave a hard chase for first place with a total of forty-seven and forty-four points respectively. Every man entered in the meet did his share toward winning the laurels for his class and it was hard to single out the individual stars. Wely '22 was high scorer, winning eleven points from two events, a four mile and a half mile dash, a four mile and a half mile event in four minutes, forty-eight and three tenths seconds, and the half mile event in two minutes, nine and three tenths seconds. The runners were hampered by a strong wind which blew directly against the back stretch of the track and prevented the races from being run in very fast time. Despite this handicap, the entries were made in a creditable manner and at no time did any of the winners score by a large margin. In the field events Wely '22 obtained two firsts in the hammer and shot-put, defeating Vandling '22 and Jacobs '21 both of whom left the field with high scores for their credit. A list of the entries who captured pieces in the events of the afternoon follows in regular order: 100-yard dash, Culvert '21, Pond '21, Windram '21, Immel '21, 220-yard dash, Pond '21, Culvert '21, Holzinger '22, Windram '22, 440-yard dash, Montague '22, Holzinger '22, Noble '22, Blewitt '21, one-half mile run, Studenroth '22, Natcher '22, Maxwell '21, Row '22, one mile run, Studenroth '22, Strickler '22, Carter '22, Dowd '22, Two-mile run, Snyder '22, Mack '22, Seem '22, Edgerton '22, 120-yard hurdles, Parant '21, Kaufman '23, Hill '21, Bugbee '22, 220-yard hurdle, Kaufman '23, Bugbee '22, Hill '21, Blitts '22, High jump, Bugbee '22, Gilbrath '19, Kaufman '23, Herring '22, Broad jump, Immel '21, Tice '22, Pond '21, Row '22, Discus, Dambly '21, MacMahon '23, Vandling '22, Wely '22, Hammer throw, Wely '22, Vandling '21, MacMahon '23, Shot put, Wely '22, Jacoby '21, MacMahon '23, Vandling '22.

SALVATION ARMY TO RAISE FUNDS HERE

"Salvation Army Day" will be held at Penn State on Tuesday, May eleventh. A committee composed of a number of faculty members and students has charge of the work which will be the raising the funds to help carry on this "organizational" work. The slogan for this nation-wide campaign, in which all peoples, regardless of religious preference, will participate, is "A Man May Be Down, But He's Never Out." The Salvation Army still has representatives overseas with the members of the United States Army, and these men and women will remain there until the last man has been withdrawn. The rescue work of the organization in this country is also a notable feature and has received the warm commendation of the entire nation. The work will give general advertisement of the Spectacular stunts during the week day, groups of students having entered into the spirit of the occasion. "Don't Run Away from The Freely Girl With The Tambourine On May Eighteenth."

SCHEDULE BEING FORMED FOR TENNIS LEAGUES

Plans calling for an inter-fraternity and inter-unit tennis league modeled after successful organizations of this nature in basketball and baseball were discussed at a meeting of representatives from units and fraternities held in Old Chapel last week. Committees for arranging schedules were elected and M. K. Here '22, was chosen to arrange schedules for the inter-unit teams while R. Wheldon '21, was selected to schedule the games falling within the inter-fraternity division of the league. About twenty units and over twenty-five fraternities have already joined and play will be started just as soon as the schedules have been made out. A silver loving cup will be awarded the winning team.
