CORNELL YEARLINGS BOW TO FROSH NINE

Timely Hitting And Sensational Fielding Too Much For Cornell Cubs

The Freshman nine played their last game on the home field on Thursday afternoon, when they sent the Cornell yearlings down to defeat by a 6-2 score. Timely hitting gave Coach Grove's team the upper hand throughout the game and despite the good support the Cornell Cubs gave their twister, the victors were unable to check the scoring of the local nine. The players took the field at one o'clock, neither side scoring in the first inning of the game. Koehler started in the second inning with a single. Hare sacrificed and Koehler passed second on an overthrow by Rintz. Fox made a wild peg to third and the yearling shortstop crossed the plate for the first run. The inning ended without further scoring. Burzner crossed the plate in the third for the second run. Fortna hit a three-bagger in the fourth with two out and was brought in on Muffley's grounder through third. The inning ended with Muffley at second. No scoring marked the fifth and sixth innings, both sides fielding the ball without a break. Neither team received any hits during the fifth and sixth. The Ithacans led everything within reach. In the seventh Fortna stepped into a slow ball and singled with none out and the sticks unoccupied. Muffley and Carr failed to cross first. Longhurst's triple drove in Fortna for the fourth run of the local scoring. Burzner walked and hit to second with Murz at the plate. A fly short of center was plucked off by a sensational catch by Fox. Rintz failed at the bat and the yearlings took the field for the eighth time. Cornell came back with two hits in the eighth. Kaw walked, forcing Powers to second. Rintz caught a loft fly from Alumn's at left and doubled to Burzner, throwing Powers out on second. The inning ended with a blank score for the visitors. Koehler and Hare scored in the eighth on an overthrow and a single by Carr, giving the yearlings a 6-2 lead. The visitors started off in the final inning with renewed vigor in their last attempt to break down the defense of the local players, and touched Longhurst for two hits. Fox singled and was followed by Tifer who smashed a home run through center, bringing in Fox. The locals prevented any further scoring and closed the game with the score empty. Both teams played consistently in the field and at the bat, and at no time did the game loosen up. While the Freshmen scored but seven hits, they were well placed and counted at a time when needed to roll up the score. Coach Grove has been maintaining the squad against the variety in the national fielding of the yearlings. Longhurst pitched consistently from the start, and allowed the visitors ten well-earned hits. The good work of Kaw at left field was the fielding feature of the game. The line-up were as follows:

News from Other Colleges

URBINA—Herbert C. Hoover, was declared the choice of the students at the Mock Republican Convention held here on Monday evening. The convention was conducted according to the rules which govern the regular assembly. The leading candidates were Hoover, Johnson and Wood, the latter being eliminated on the second ballot. The meeting proved very instructive and interesting to all in attendance.

SWARTHMORE—The Halycon of 1921 has made its appearance and it is reputed to be the best that was ever published by the Juniors. There are many marked improvements over those of former years.

CORNELL—The annual Spring Day was a big success from many points of view. This day presented an excellent opportunity for all to secure recreation in a strenuous manner. In addition to the carnival, the Alumni returned to add more life to the festivities. As an added feature, the 800 Freshmen fed the flames with their little dinks and made merry until a late hour of the morning.

CARNEGIE TECH—The first Campus Week ever held by this institution was a rousing success during the time set aside. The celebration started with a big general assembly, where many interesting matters were brought before the student body, both in the way of improvements and commendation for the splendid work which has been done. The Alumni banquet proved a fitting climax for the week's activities.

LEHIGH—The lacrosse team has been doing splendid work all season and its eyes are now fastened upon the coming game with John Hopkins. With the present record of the remaining opponent, it appears that the squad will capture the title of Inter-collegiate Champion.

CORNELL—The Cornell Dramatic Club will present three plays for the benefit of the Serbian Relief Fund on Wednesday evening and each promises to be a success in itself. Each of the plays is of one act while the cast of characters is composed largely of members of the faculty, their wives and a few undergraduates.

PITT—The Freshmen have now disposed of all customs and are leading the lives of Sophomores, which is evident from the appearance of new hats, loud ties, and all colors that might mark them as other than Freshmen. The Soph-Frosh stag was held at the Fort Pitt on Friday evening and all grievances have been forgotten, at least it appeared so from the good times which all enjoyed.

KANSAS STATE—The Kansas Argos broke four records in the meet with the Haskell, Indiana, the new records being established in the 220 yard dash, the mile run, the discus, and the 120 yard high hurdles. The team is preparing for the big conference meet at Ann Arbor next month.

PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE—The Expansion Campaign Fund is progressing favorably. The subscriptions now total over $10,000 and reports are coming in daily announcing gifts from the Alumni. This campaign will bring many benefits to this college and the response indicates a successful one.
