On the Corner

The oldest business house in town invites you to their place of business when in need of fine confections, magazines, newspapers, post cards and smokers' supplies.

MISS RITENOUR ENTERTAINS

One of the most enjoyable social events of the Summer Session took place last Saturday afternoon when Miss Margaret Ritenour, the popular hostess at the Kappa Sigma House, gave a tea dance in honor of her guest, Miss McHugh, and the girls staying at the Kappa Sigma House. The afternoon was voted to be a great success.

RE-HAB STUDENT DIES

Louie Schlerntzauer, a rehabilitation student at the college, died last Saturday morning from blood-poisoning which developed from an infection on his nose. Schlerntzauer saw service in France and was gassed while fighting on the western front. He had been ill for less than a week.

FORMER DEAN TO SPEAK

Dr. S. E. Weber, formerly in charge of the summer session work at Penn State, will lecture here July 27.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION NOTES

Two tennis tournaments have been started this week, one for men and the other for women. There have been very few entries for the women's tournament as yet.

Baseball games are being held between the rehabs, the summer session students, and the four-year students. The following managers have been selected to look after the sports. For the rehabs, Ritter baseball; Bash, tennis, and Boone, track. Howenstein is the rehab chairman of Athletics. For the summer session, Halmos, baseball, and Reynolds, tennis.

The courses in physical education are doing better work this year than ever before. The students are showing greater interest in the work.

INTERESTING FIGURES

In these days when there is so much talk about a combination of Penn State, University of Pennsylvania and University of Pittsburgh into one state university, the following enrollment figures on the Summer Session are of interest to those at Penn State. The total enrollment at the 1920 session is Penn State 1325, Pennsylvania 1200, Pittsburgh 750.

BOY SCOUT BAND PERFORMS

The concerts given by the band of the Tunkhannock troop of boy scouts in the Open Air Theatre on Friday night and at the assembly that morning were very much enjoyed by all who heard them. Great credit must be given to the scouts, for the band has been organized for only a little over six months.

PAPERS MISSING

Subscribers are asked to report their failure to receive the paper.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS TO MEET

Announcement has been made of the school for Pennsylvania school directors to be held on July 26, 27 and 28, as part of the work of the Summer Session. Some of the prominent speakers who will take part in the conference are Dr. M. P. Hillegas, Commissioner of Education of Vermont; Robert C. Shaw, Greensburg; Dr. F. M. Harbold, Dr. T. H. Eaton, director of teacher training department, Connecticut Agricultural College; Dr. A. R. Rowland, State department of Public Instruction; and Dr. Thomas E. Fineman, Superintendent of Public Instruction.
