to their twenty yard line. Then the visitors gained their first down. However, the varsity tightened up and held them to a few yards gain, forcing them to punt. Williams, quarterback, scooped a fumble and ran forty-five yards for a touchdown. Piles dropped the visitors' goal and the trusty boot of "Buck" Lightner was responsible for Penn State's three extra points.

Muhlenburg's Touchdown. Following the first few plays of the third quarter, the ball was at play on State's forty yard line. From there the Blue and White took it fifteen yards through the line, this time the maze of plays. Then came the unfortunate fumble of the game. Bright recovered and ran forty-five yards for a touchdown. Piles kicked the goal. Outside of this incident the Blue and White had a chance to score, the ball being at play in their territory most of the time.

Placement Kick Ends. In the first quarter, a few minutes before Lightner made his touchdown, Williams decided on a placement kick. The position was favor the Blue and White with the ball in nice position. It was a matter of mere seconds, certainly, but still, the Blue and White were certainly not to be taken for granted. Critchley is mostly always severe for the first contest and it is expected that next Saturday's game will find a great change in the work of the varsity.

Lightner Scores Touchdown. Penn State's first score came near the close of the first quarter after the Blue and White, by a series of successful line plunges, sent the ball near the visitors' goal. The backfield did good work with the goal so near and in five yard line. On the first play the varsity was penalized five yards for off-side and then they started to make their first dash through the plunger's line. Haines and Williams and Lightner played attempted around the right side of the line were stopped and Haines called back to punt. He sent a beautiful boot over the visitors' goal line and the ball was brought out to the twenty-yard line. On the second play the varsity fumbled the ball but recovered again, with a fifteen yard loss. Then the sixth punter came after Brown had recovered a fumble on the Muhlenburg ten yard line. On an end run around the left side of the line, Williams took the oval over and Rauch added a number of his boots. The next kick-off was even better than the former, the ball being received on the visitors' goal line and from there taken
