MEAT MARKET ALL KINDS OF Fresh Meats J. D. KELLER ALLEN STREET

The Letter Box

The Editor, Penn State Collegian, State College, Pa. Dear Sir— If I remember correctly there was an excellent editorial in the COLLEGIAN several weeks ago concerning the rough-house and childish actions which the students have indulged in since the opening of college this year.

The Freshmen made notes of their class meeting and later the Sophomores posted signs of a class meeting to be held earlier in the evening. Consequently, when the Freshman meeting was over they were met by the usual boisterous and of reception and as usual the Sophomores and Freshmen had their fights. They cannot be called small ones because some are carrying the effects and will do so for a long time.

What they consider their privilege. Another reason is sometimes brought forward. Customs are customs and should be obeyed. We obeyed them to a great extent through the first three years and we can still obey them and want to do so.

Dear Editor:— I noticed in the COLLEGIAN of Tuesday that the Student Council had petitioned the Student Board and consequently the Board of Trustees that the Seniors should not be compelled to go to chapel after Thanksgiving.

In the first place, it is not that I am too lazy to get out of bed in the morning to go to chapel although I admit that such is the case with some of the students. The main reason seems to me and all other Seniors that when we entered as Freshmen we were compelled to go and naturally did not mind it because we were compelled to do everything else and counted this as one of the customs.

Another announcement has been made of the formation of partnership under the name of Banks and Craig, Consulting, Engineers and Chemists, with offices in New York and Philadelphia. Robert Craig '14, is well known to Penn State and will be remembered as a former varsity baseball man.
