NEBRASKA CONTEST WILL BE GREAT FOOTBALL TEST

Supremacy of Different Styles of Play to be Decided in Season's Greatest International Contest

VARSITY INJURIES MAY CAUSE CHANGE IN TEAM

MUSICAL TREAT IN STORE TOMORROW

Miss Olive Kline, One of America's Best Sopranos to Sing—Glee Club in Joint Concert

Students and Pennsylvania Day visitors will be accorded one of the finest musical treats ever experienced in State College tomorrow night when Miss Olive Kline, the noted young American soprano, comes here to give a joint concert with the Penn State Glee Club.

What is being generally recognized in college circles is that the greatest international contest to be played this year, will take place tomorrow on New Beaver Field, when the Nebraska Cornhuskers invade the dome. The attraction thus accorded will be a big part of the activities taking place during the Pennsylvania Day celebration and its result will be a determining factor in the supremacy of the two styles of play, east and west.

The activities for the week end will begin this afternoon with a football game between the White and Blue Freshmen against the strong East Stroudsburg Normal eleven at three o'clock.

At six o'clock this evening, a monster athletic mass meeting will be held in the Schwab Auditorium in preparation for the Nebraska game tomorrow afternoon.

The line-up of the first year team will be the same as used in the last game unless injuries cause the replacement of Madera, Schenfeldt and Becker.

Coach Hornum has been doing a good bit of experimenting this week with his back field and has decided to start the Stroudsburg game with the same backs as he used last week against Bellefonte.

After the game last Saturday, the Freshmen elected a captain for this year. The result was a three cornered tie so another ballot was necessary, on which Runner was picked to lead the eleven.

Sixty-four Freshmen attended two different schools, most of them beginning their preparation in a public high school and completing it in a private preparatory school.

Of the 357 different schools that prepared students for the Freshman class, 324 are located in Pennsylvania and 24 are situated outside the state.

A good idea of the nature of the entertainment given by the Rondoliers may be gained from a glance at the various features which go to make up the program.

The complete program is as follows: I.—Croon, Croon; II.—The Little Dream; III.—Ivory Little; IV.—Come My Beloved; V.—Have You Seen that White Little; VI.—Shepherd Thy Demons; VII.—Arr. by H. L. Wilson; VIII.—Je suis Titania; IX.—Le Papillon; X.—Le Froil; XI.—Nello; XII.—Over the Steppes; XIII.—Cradle Song; XIV.—Song of the Bride; XV.—Hopak; XVI.—The Unforeseen; XVII.—Old Maid's Song; XVIII.—The Nightingale; XIX.—Robin, Robin Sing Me a Song; XX.—Italian Street Song; XXI.—Glee Club.
