

IMPORTANT ITEMS TAKEN UP BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Matters of importance and interest to the student body were transacted and discussed at the meeting of Student Council last Tuesday evening. Dr. J. L. Foster, Chairman of the Faculty Committee on the proposed vocational guidance program, spoke to the members present and enlisted their aid in placing this work before the student body. Inasmuch as this conference will be one purely intended for students, a student committee will be in charge of that phase of the program and will cooperate with the faculty committee in making it a success. The committee that has been appointed consists of Ray Baer '22, chairman, A. G. Pratt '22, S. Y. Boggs '23, F. M. Ritts '22, and R. B. George '22.

The matter of the proposed memorial tablet for the Penn State men who died in the service was also brought up and it was decided that Penn State should begin active work in preparing such a memorial. Committees appointed to take charge of the campaign were as follows: Design—F. G. Church '21, chairman, H. M. Farout '21, and L. M. Steiner, president of the Rehabilitation Club. Subscription—K. R. Stark '21, chairman, R. R. Burtner '22, and F. H. Leuschner '21.

OFFICIAL OF LOCOMOTIVE COMPANY TO SPEAK HERE

On Friday, February eighteenth, at four-thirty in the afternoon, Mr. L. L. Park, Superintendent of Welfare of the American Locomotive Company, will speak in Room 200, Eng. D on "The Development of the Locomotive." His talk will be one of unusual interest and should prove to be a great attraction to the engineering students. Mr. Park will also speak in the evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

CARNEGIE TECH HEAD TO BE CONFERENCE SPEAKER

The director of the coming Vocational Conference for Women was notified recently that Miss Elizabeth Dyer, of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, will deliver an address on "Salesmanship" at the conference. Miss Dyer is the head of her department at Carnegie Tech and is well qualified to inform Penn State women of the opportunities for women in this ever-widening field.
