VARSITY BOXERS TO CLASH WITH PENN TEAM TONIGHT

Red and Blue Battlers Promise to Give Nittany Mittmen Stoutest Opposi- tion Met This Season

"BILL" ROCAP OF PUBLIC LEDGER WILL OFFICIATE

The varsity boxers will meet their old rivals, the University of Pennsylvania mittmen, in the Armory tonight at seven o'clock and from all indications the fight is going to be one of the best ever before in a Penn State arena. The Red and Blue team seems to be out for blood but whether the Nittany Lion is going to be the victim seems problematical. At any rate the Penn boxers will have seven men of recognized fighting ability to enter in the seven bouts on tonight's card and as a result, fight fans may anticipate a meet which promises to be fought in a whirlwind fashion from beginning to end. "Bill" Rocap, sporting editor of the Public Ledger will referee the bouts.

That Penn has a "hang-up" team is an indisputable fact. Every weight is filled by a man who knows the game from one end of the alphabet to the other, having listed in his line-up three amateur champions of the east, an amateur champion of the world and two men who were on the Olympic team. The probable line-up which the Red and Blue will use has been reported and differs little from the one which was published in the last issue of the COLLEGIAN. While Benton is declared to be the Quaker who will fight the 115 pound berth there is nevertheless a strong conviction that Coach Decker may send in Burkett who is reported to be awaiting the opportunity of making things hot for the Quakers.

McKenzie will in all probability not be used in the 125 pound division and in his place will be fought a man named Walsh. Walsh is the type of boxer that is characteristically called a "rough-houser" and consequently Chapin, the Penn State man who will oppose him, will have a tough proposition on his hands. Chapin, however, is a good fighter, having clear footwork and a hard punch. Vasilva who was a likely candidate for this berth has withdrawn from college.

O'Malley, the fighting son of Erin, will fill the 135 pound class for the Philadelphians. Little need be said of "Tommy's" ability except that he is a boxer the like of which is seldom seen in collegiate boxing circles, being the amateur champion of the world in this class. Cooper of the Nittany squad will

Detroit Games 'On Diamond Schedule

Two games that were pending have been closed and one more contest has been added to the varsity baseball schedule for the coming season as announced by Manager C. B. Seeds and as passed by the faculty committee on athletics, making a total of twenty-four games to be played by the "Blue and White" nine. Twelve of the contests scheduled will be played on New Beaver while the remaining twelve will be staged on foreign diamonds.

The opening game of the season will be the first one on the southern trip which has been scheduled with the team at the Naval Training Base, situated at Hampton Roads, Virginia. This game which is slated to be played on Monday, March the twenty-eighth, will precede the game with the University of Virginia to be played at Charlottesville on the following day. This trip will be closed by the game with Georgetown, to be played at Washington, D. C. After the six games on this trip have been played, the team will remain at home for the following six games. This will be the first time of the year that student baseball fans will have a chance to see the varsity in action. Then follows the eastern trip, on which the Nittany nine will meet Yale, Princeton, New York University, and Lehigh. After this trip, the University of Detroit team is scheduled to appear here for two contests, that will prove to be sectional clashes of a high order. Penn State's old rival, Pitt will be met at Pittsburgh followed by the contest with Penn at Philadelphia. The remainder of the schedule will be played at home when Bucknell University and the University of Pittsburgh will be the opponents of the varsity diamond men.

AMERICAN LEGION POST WILL GIVE SMOKER 800N

The Nittany Post of the American Legion will hold a Washington's Birthday smoker in the basement of the I. O. O. F. Hall on the twenty-second of the month at eight o'clock in the evening and all ex-soldiers, sailors and marines are invited to attend. A very pleasant evening is assured everyone as there will be an abundance of smokes and nuts on hand and music will be rendered by the Penn State Quartet and Schlosser's orchestra. A few speeches will also be made by prominent men of this vicinity.

ROMIG AND BARRON TO RUN TOMORROW

Blue and White Runners Entered in Special Events at Guaranty Club Meet in New York

Penn State will be represented by two runners in the indoor track meet of the Guaranty Club of New York City, which will be held at Madison Square Garden, in that city, tomorrow night. Romig being invited to run in a special three thousand metre race against some of the best distance men in track circles today, and Barron being extended an invitation to run in the high hurdles against Thompson, of Dartmouth College.

Romig has been invited to take part in a number of long distance races within the course of the last two weeks, but has been unable to accept because he has not been in the proper physical condition. However, he has been gradually returning to his regular form, and has been directing his practice in preparation for the contest tomorrow night, and it is expected that he will show up well in the race. The race in which Romig will take part will be the feature of the Guaranty meet. It will be an international character, as Joseph Sullivan, the world record holder in the five thousand metre champion has been secured to compete with three of America's best, including Romig, Ray, and Barron.

The hurdle event between Thompson, and Barron promises to be of no little interest. It will be the third time that these two athletes have met. The first was at the Olympic Games held at Amsterdam last summer, when Thompson barely nosed out Barron in the hurdles. The second occasion took place several weeks ago at the Millrose Games in New York City. Barron got a good start and was leading the field, when he struck a hurdle, and was not able to regain the ground lost through this misfortune.

John Hopkins Meet Next

Coach Martin is making arrangements to take several members of the track team to the annual indoor track meet which will be held at John Hopkins University on Wednesday. Tomorrow Penn State will be represented in one of the relay events, and probably in several other races.

Harvard Meet Certain

Manager Sell has recently completed negotiations which practically insure that the Harvard University track team will be seen on New Beaver field this spring in a dual meet with Penn State. While final arrangements have not been completed, it is quite probable that the meet will take place on Tuesday, April nineteenth, while the Crimson runners are on their southern trip. This meet will precede the possibility of a meet with the team from the University of Illinois. It was planned to try to have the Illinois team stop here on its way to the Regatta which will be held in Philadelphia during the last part of April.

AFTERNOON BAND CONCERT TO BE GIVEN NEXT SUNDAY

The members of the college military band have announced a concert to be given by their organization on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Several numbers of more than ordinary merit are included on the program. The French comedy overture is one of Keller-Be's finest compositions but it is not known as well as are some of his other overtures. The Hungarian Fantasia is a collection of Hungarian folk songs and national airs. It is typically Hungarian in character. Mr. Kimmel, student leader of the band will play Regrets d'Amour by Bright, a romance for clarinet. The program follows:

1. Wagner—"Invocation to Battle" (Rienzi)
2. Keller-Be—"Overture "French Comedy"
3. Bright—Clarinet Solo "Regrets d'Amour" Mr. Kimmel
4. Daniels—"Danse des Sultanes"
5. Tobani—"Fantasia, Hungarian"
6. Fenchel—"March "Mothers of Democracy"

The next number in the series of Sunday afternoon concerts will be given by the College Orchestra on February twenty-seventh, at three o'clock.

LION'S PAW ELECTIONS

- P. W. Griffiths '21
- B. C. Jones '21
- J. L. Romig '21
- H. Leuschner '21

DR. JOHN MARTIN THOMAS
Penn State's new President who expects to take up his duties at the college sometime in April.

PITT CAGE FIVE TO MEET VARSITY IN RETURN CONTEST

BLUE AND WHITE BASKETEERS PREPARED TO DO BATTLE WITH SMOKY CITY AGGREGATION—PANTHER HOPE FOR VICTORY ON NITTANY HOME FLOOR.

The varsity basketball team will have a hard nut to crack in the shape of the Panther five which is coming here tomorrow evening to meet the varsity at seven o'clock in the Armory. The Pitt quintet is coming with the intent of wiping out the defeat which they received at the hands of the Blue and White three weeks ago on the Pitts home floor, but the Penn State five is in good condition and looks fit to better the record made against the Panther in the last game which ended 39 to 33 in favor of Penn State.

The outcome of the game tomorrow night will decide the standing of the Panther in Pennsylvania collegiate basketball circles. The only Keystone opponent other than Penn State which has achieved a victory over the Smoky City five is the Grove City College aggregation, but the Panther team, coached by Coach Herman's combination far superior to the western up-staters, and they feel that a victory over the Nittany Lion on its home floor will elicit the state honors for the Panther, according to the reports from Pittsburgh.

Last week the Panther invaded New York state and came back with victories over Coigate and the Army. Another game while on this northern trip did not turn out so successfully for Pitt, when Syracuse got the better end of the score.

HARVARD WRESTLERS HERE FOR FIRST TIME TOMORROW

New England Intercollegiate Champions Will Bring Strong Team for Inter- sectional Contest in Armory

CHANGES MADE IN TWO BLUE AND WHITE BERTHS

PREPARATIONS FOR "JOLLIES" COMPLETE

Rehabs Annual Production Will be Given in Auditorium, Tonight and Tomorrow Evening

Judging from present indications, when the curtain rises tonight on the "Jollies of 1921," the Rehabilitation Club's combined minstrel and musical comedy show, those fortunate enough to hold seats will be offered something novel in the way of entertainment at Penn State. Since the arrival several weeks ago of E. G. Meyer representing the Joe Eben Production Company of Chicago, rehearsals have been staged every evening in the Auditorium and the results of the faithful work of the members of the cast will undoubtedly be noticed in their performance.

The enthusiasm and interest displayed by the individuals in the show in learning the parts assigned them, has far exceeded the expectations of the Director who has had the honor from which he has been permitted to select the cast is far above the average, and is even better than he has found at any other college where the same production has been given. This is probably due to the fact that many members of the cast are experienced actors, having appeared in plays before.

The scenery is of an extraordinary type and a complete change has been secured for each act while the costumes and gowns are new and sparkling and promise to add freshness to the performance.

The cast, which was announced in the last issue of the COLLEGIAN includes the names of several persons who have established reputations for themselves in previous Penn State dramatic presentations, including a number of women students who will share honors with the Rehabs. The first part of the "Jollies" or "Lies" will take the form of a minstrel show. A big feature of this part of the performance will be the novel way in which the characters are introduced to the audience. The "tam" work, singing and dancing are brought out in a pleasing manner rarely seen off the legitimate stage. This act will be somewhat of an innovation from the usual black-faced man type, in that each one of the thirty men and twenty women constituting the "circle" will have an active part.

The first part of the minstrel is followed by a novelty called "The Buffet Diner on the Laughland Limited," Miss Helen Fell as Miss Virginia Vandercloot, in movie "Queen and Miss Kwick" as a disturbed passenger, portray their respective parts in an excellent manner, and Joseph W. Dean, who starred in the Rehab minstrel of

USHERS FOR THE MEET

In order to take care of the large crowd which is expected to attend the athletic events of the week-end, it has been decided to provide ushers who will direct the people to their seats. There will be sections reserved for college guests, faculty, co-eds, and the various classes.

For the boxing meet with U of P scheduled for 7 o'clock Friday evening, the doors will be opened promptly at 6 o'clock.

For the wrestling meet Saturday afternoon with Harvard, scheduled for 2:30, the doors will be opened at 1:30 o'clock.

Saturday evening, the seating arrangements for the basketball game with Pitt scheduled for 7 o'clock, will hold for the Freshmen game with the Pitt Freshmen scheduled for 6 o'clock. On account of the short time between games it will be impossible for an changing of seats.

The entrance through Mr. Bezdek's office will be used only by ladies and their escorts.

The Cadet Band has been asked to attend, and will play selections before the opening of each contest.

The ushers will be under the direction of chairman Blankenshiller, and it is hoped that every one attending will co-operate as much as possible in order that the maximum seating capacity of the Armory may be realized.

Reserved seats will be held until 10 minutes before scheduled time of meet.

One of the biggest features of the Washington's Birthday week-end athletic events will be the varsity wrestling meet with Harvard at the University tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the Armory. This will be the second meet of the season for the Blue and White, and promises to be one of the most interesting of the entire season, as the Crimson grapplers will constitute a difficult aggregation to overcome. Coach Lewis has spent most of the week in conditioning the team for the contest tomorrow and the Penn State mat men will enter the meet in good condition.

Training for the meet with Harvard commenced a week ago yesterday and were completed last Wednesday night. The Penn State line-up for the contest tomorrow is as follows:
115 pound class, Watson
125 pound class, Evans
135 pound class, Captain Detm
145 pound class, Oehrie
155 pound class, Romig
175 pound class, Spangler
Heavyweight class, MacMahon

The number of candidates competing for places on tomorrow's team was not so large as the one for the Lehigh meet, due to the fact that several of the squad have sustained minor injuries and were forced to stay out of the trials for this time at least. Nevertheless, the number of those who tried out was large and gratifying to the coaching staff. The more the competition in the trials, the better prepared will the successful candidates be for the meet. There were many fine bouts during the recent trials, some of which were of intercollegiate caliber. The "usual suspects" of the "circle" are being clearly shown the fact that many members of the squad are progressing rapidly in the art.

FAMOUS BARITONE TO SING HERE WEDNESDAY

Reinald Werrenrath, Noted Opera Star Will Give Excellent Program in Auditorium

Reinald Werrenrath, one of the foremost baritones on the concert platform of today, will appear in the Auditorium next Wednesday evening at eight-fifteen o'clock and will render a program that will equal in quality any recital now given on the American stage. For the past few years, Mr. Werrenrath has enjoyed considerable fame and popularity and has steadily risen in musical circles until he has finally become one of the most brilliant lights in the musical world. He has had an enviable record up to the present date and is continually in demand for recitals, musical festivals, concerts, etc. His popularity in fact is not exceeded by any male singer in this country as may be attested to the fact that he gave one hundred concerts last season. He has played leading roles in the Metropolitan Opera in New York City and while there was a most notable figure Mr. Werrenrath has also made many excellent records for the Victor Company and those who have heard his splendid voice on the victrola will welcome the opportunity of seeing the famous artist in person.

The baritone's fame has not been confined only to this country however, as he went abroad last summer under the management of the Wolfsohn Musical Bureau and gave a series of recitals in England. The English public was loud in its praise of the singer's wonderful voice and personality and regretted keenly his departure for America on the closing tour. "The London (Continued on last page)

LAFAYETTE CONFERENCE QUOTA ABOUT FILLED

The committee in charge of making arrangements for the Penn State Delegation in the Student Volunteers Conference at Lafayette College over next week-end reports that the quota of fifty delegates has just about been reached. If there are any persons who desire to attend there are a few places open. Reports from Lafayette indicate that the conference will be well worth attending.

All persons who are signed up as delegates are requested to meet in the Liberal Arts Building on Monday evening at seven o'clock to make arrangements for the trip and to elect a business manager and delegation leader. The room for this meeting will be posted on the Bulletin Boards of the Campus. Delegates are also requested to pay registration fees as soon as possible at the desk in the Y. Hut.
