

132

Semi-Weekly

Penn State Collegian

Here's Hoping
The Wrestlers Make
It Four Straight

VOL. XVI, No. 46

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1921

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SOUTHERN TRIP TO OPEN DIAMOND CARD

Naval Training Base Will Be Met
On Twenty-Eighth, Followed
By Five Other Games

NITTANY TEAM NOT CHOSEN

Veterans From Last Year's Aggregation Will Probably Compose Team On First Trip

The varsity baseball team will open its season a week from next Monday when the Naval Training Base at Hampton Roads will be met in the first game of the southern trip which in addition includes contests with the University of Virginia, Virginia Military Institute, Washington and Lee University, Navy and Georgetown. All of the teams which will be met on this invasion of the south, are reported to have strong diamond aggregations and it is consequently going to mean that baseball contests will have to show real hard baseball if they hope to overcome their opponents, some of which are said to be fully fifty per cent stronger than at this time last year.

Spangler Coach Lewis Mower Garber Capt. Detar Watson McMahon Oehrlie Mgr. Sweeley

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL OPERATE FROM LEMONT

Other Trains Will Be Equipped
With Extra Coaches to Facilitate Handling Students

Communications between Dean Warnock and Mr. J. Longaker, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, have resulted in the students leaving for the Easter recess next week being facilitated in some respects in their travel. Those who require west-bound facilities will in all probability find relief in the extra coaches which will be placed on the main train for Pittsburgh Special train service has been provided from Lemont to Sunbury, and similar arrangements are possible, as the following letter received by Dean Warnock from Mr. Longaker expresses:

AG-FROSH FISTIC MEET TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Freshman will shake mitts with two-year Ag tomorrow night when the boxing teams representing the Frosh and the two year agricultural class will enter the ring in the Armory at seven o'clock to do battle royal for supremacy in the fistic art. The freshmen are determined to stage an imposing comeback for the defeat which they suffered at the hands of the two year olds when they gained the large end of the score in the recent wrestling meet. But the Ags are just as determined to duplicate the wrestling score of last year's rivalry and the apparent ability of each team insures interesting, hotly contested bouts.

GIRLS PLAN TO ENTERTAIN FATHERS ON APRIL THIRTIETH

In connection with the extensive preparations for the celebration of Father's Day at Penn State on April thirtieth, the women students are planning to vacate one of the small campus houses for the accommodation of the fathers of the girls who may visit the college at that time. Plans for their special entertainment will be arranged later by a committee of girls.

BLUE AND WHITE TOSSERS HAD REMARKABLE SEASON

Four Varsity Players to Graduate
This June—Letter Awards and Managers Elections Announced

Starting auspiciously and ending with brilliant victories over the University of Pennsylvania and the Alumni, the 1921 basketball season will go down in Penn State case history as one of the most successful that the college has ever witnessed, both with regard to the number of victories and the decisiveness of the winning. The Blue and White tossers have gone through the year with a fine string of achievements to their credit, downing Juniata, Dickinson, W. & J., West Virginia, Susquehanna, Lebanon Valley, Carnegie Tech., Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Swarthmore, Kent and the Alumni, while the long reverses have come at the hands of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Yale. Perhaps the most notable feat which the Blue and White tossers have performed, and this event which will mark this team as one of the best which Penn State has ever produced is the signal victory over the Big Red and Blue quintet representing the University of Pennsylvania, following the defeat at Yale. This game was played without the services of Wolfe, the man who has made the majority of the Nittany fouls, and a valuable man at shooting field goals, and shows the wonderful come-back effected by the Blue and White quintet, especially after the defeat the day before at New Haven. For this achievement if for nothing else, the 1921 basketball season will be long remembered.

WOMEN DELEGATES SENT TO ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Women's Athletic Association of Penn State is sending two delegates, one official and one non-official, to the National Conference of the Women's Athletic Association of America to be held at the University of Indiana, in Bloomington, Indiana, today and tomorrow. Miss Agnes Newman '22 and Miss Betty Shelton '21 will represent Penn State at the conference and bring back helpful information on questions of organization, finance, and approved sports rulings that may be discussed by the assemblage.

ETA KAPPA NU ELECTIONS

- H. F. Blewitt '21
- I. W. Armstrong '22
- C. D. Blauch '22
- S. Elliott '22
- H. M. Kramer '22
- J. P. Manley '22
- F. F. Hile '22

FAMOUS SOPRANO TO GIVE MUSICAL TREAT

Miss Florence Hinkle Will Appear
Tomorrow Night in the Auditorium

A hope, long cherished by Penn State music lovers, will be realized tomorrow night when Miss Florence Hinkle, who for the past few years has been shining with stellar brilliance on the American concert stage, will appear in the Auditorium at eight-fifteen o'clock to give her audience a genuine musical treat. Miss Hinkle is another native Pennsylvanian who has gained national and international recognition for her remarkable control of the rich soprano voice. She has been heralded throughout Europe, where she studied extensively under the tutelage of foreign vocalists, Miss Hinkle began to achieve country-wide recognition for her remarkable control of the rich soprano voice. Her triumphs have not been confined to the United States for she has invaded Canada to come away recognized in the highest praise for her talent and interpretation. Not content with these achievements, she has, on various occasions, affiliated herself with the leading choral societies and orchestras of the country. Her solo appearances with symphony orchestras in New York, Boston, Chicago, and other large cities of the country have been heralded throughout musical circles as the works of genius.

NO COLLEGIAN WILL BE ISSUED NEXT WEEK

According to a decision of the Board reached some time ago, in addition to the advertising policy conducted, and the conclusion of competition for the younger members of the staff, there will be no issue of the COLLEGIAN next week. Elections for the new staff will be held on Wednesday evening, March thirtieth at which time the publication of the paper will be turned over to them.

PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR FATHERS DAY

Tentative Program Arranged for
New Event at Penn State—Need
Student Support

Rapid strides have been made in the past week toward making Father's Day a success and as a result extensive plans have been outlined by the committee appointed by the Student Council for a long time the college authorities have seen the need of a Father's Day at this institution but various conditions have so interfered that no definite action was taken until a few days ago. Now that a day has been selected it is necessary that the movement be a success, and it is with this end in view that the committee is extending itself to the utmost. If Father's Day turns out to be successful, it will be made an annual affair at Penn State. The program as arranged for Father's Day is only tentative so far, but the committee will probably coincide to a great extent with it. Father's Day as previously stated will be held on the thirtieth of next month, although many of the fathers will undoubtedly arrive on Friday, the twenty-ninth. On Saturday morning the visitors will pass the time talking about the campus, getting acquainted with the student body as a whole, and the general appearance of the college grounds, and at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, they will be given an opportunity to see the States diamond men clash with Carnegie Tech. on New Beaver Field. Saturday evening will be given over entirely to the entertainment of the fathers through the medium of speakers at the various fraternities and clubs. The latter have been asked to cooperate heartily with the committee and to refrain from holding any social functions on the same night. A huge mass meeting will be held in the Auditorium previous to the smokers and here visitors will receive a genuine glimpse of the true Penn State spirit.

TRACKMEN PREPARING FOR SOUTHERN TRIP

Members of the varsity track squad are hard at work at the present time preparing for the difficult outdoor spring schedule, that has been drawn up by Manager E. G. Brown, and which will open the season for Penn State is only a week away, and special emphasis is being laid in getting the team ready for its first trip. The varsity track squad is rounded out in excellent shape for the trip. Eight men will wear the Blue and White in the dual meet with W. P. I., while eight additional members of the team will join the squad at the second meet at Charlottesville. Last year, Penn State decisively defeated Virginia Polytechnic in a dual meet early in the season, but it is not certain that this year's contest will have a similar outcome. The men whom Coach Brown has selected to compete in the broad jump, high jump, javelin throw, and hundred yard dash, Demming, who will take part in the sprint events, and the mile run, Grimes, who will be entered in the various distance events; Hile who will run in the hundred yard dash, quarter mile and high and low hurdles; Barron, who will compete in high jump, pole vault, and Beck, who will perform in the shot put, discus throw, and javelin throw.

STATE EDUCATIONAL HEAD TO SPEAK HERE TUESDAY

Next Tuesday evening in Old Chapel at 8:15 o'clock, Mr. Henry Klonow, Assistant Director of the Department of Public Instruction, will deliver an address on "The Educational Problems of the State Educational Department." Mr. Klonow is perfectly familiar with the educational problem as it exists in the State at the present time, his work has brought him in daily contact with the situation as it actually exists. His message will be especially valuable to those students who are interested in the advancement of education, and who intend to take up teaching as a profession. Mr. Klonow will tell of the conditions existing in our State schools and will offer suggestions for their betterment.

STRUGGLE FOR COLLEGIATE MAT HONORS BEGINS TODAY

Princeton Is Scene of Championship
Meet in Which Penn State Will Strive for Fourth Title

BLUE AND WHITE IS CONSIDERED FAVORITE

PENNA. EDITORS TO VISIT HERE IN MAY

Students to Extend Personal Invitation Wherever Possible—To Be Held May 6-8

The date for the "Newspaper Editors' and Publishers' Holiday" on the Penn State campus has been set for May 6 to 8, and invitations will be sent by the college next week to men connected with the approximately 650 newspapers of Pennsylvania. It is the desire of those in charge of the gathering to call upon the student body at this time to back up the formal invitation with a personal call upon the various editors while at home during the Easter vacation. To this end, the county clubs were asked to cooperate with the Publicity Department at the Wednesday night mass meeting, and the manner in which the organized club responded was quite gratifying. There are still about half of the counties unaccounted for, practically all of them unorganized, and it is necessary that the movement be a success, and it is with this end in view that the committee is extending itself to the utmost. If Father's Day turns out to be successful, it will be made an annual affair at Penn State. The program as arranged for Father's Day is only tentative so far, but the committee will probably coincide to a great extent with it. Father's Day as previously stated will be held on the thirtieth of next month, although many of the fathers will undoubtedly arrive on Friday, the twenty-ninth. On Saturday morning the visitors will pass the time talking about the campus, getting acquainted with the student body as a whole, and the general appearance of the college grounds, and at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, they will be given an opportunity to see the States diamond men clash with Carnegie Tech. on New Beaver Field. Saturday evening will be given over entirely to the entertainment of the fathers through the medium of speakers at the various fraternities and clubs. The latter have been asked to cooperate heartily with the committee and to refrain from holding any social functions on the same night. A huge mass meeting will be held in the Auditorium previous to the smokers and here visitors will receive a genuine glimpse of the true Penn State spirit.

R. O. T. C. SUMMER CAMP TO BE AT PLATTSBURG

Speaking before the entire R. O. T. C. unit of the college, numbering about 1300 men, Major M. D. Welty outlined to them the summer camp to be held at Plattsburg, N. Y., during the period June 16th to July 27th. Major Welty went into detail in describing Plattsburg, and its surroundings, having been there in excellent condition and having fine quarters and medical attention free of charge. Each student is allowed to take two dollars per day for meals enroute. While at camp he is given clothing, meals, quarters and medical attention free of charge. Upon conclusion of the camp a student is paid before his departure therefrom five cents per mile to cover his travel to his home or back to his college.

BULLETIN

- FRIDAY
- 6:30 p. m.—Thespians, Auditorium.
- 7:30 p. m.—Freshman Athletic Mass Meeting, Bull Pen.
- SATURDAY
- 7:00 p. m.—Boxing, Freshmen vs. Two-Year Ags, Armory.
- 8:00 p. m.—Concert by Miss Florence Hinkle, Auditorium.
- SUNDAY
- 9:30 a. m.—Two-year Ag Bible Class, 11 L. A.
- Both Chapels—Dr. Warren H. Wilson, Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, New York City.
- 6:15 p. m.—Christian Science Meeting, 100 Hort.
- MONDAY
- 7:00 p. m.—Lebanon County Club, 314 Mann.
- 7:00 p. m.—Bible Discussion Normal Training Class, 19 L. A.
- TUESDAY
- 7:00 p. m.—Liberal Arts Lecture Course—"Conservation and Recreation in the Keystone State," by Dean R. L. Watts.