HAD REMARKABLE SEASON

trip, which proved this year to be victories in each game, although providing several narrow escapes for the Blue and White combination.

V. P. I. Trips Varsity
The first defeat of the season came on the heels of the western trip, when Virginia Polytechnic Institute sent its fast quintet to State College and took away the better end of the 23 to 20 score. This game showed a certain slowing up in the varsity's playing, of which the southerners took the fullest advantage and captured the game. This contest proved one of the most interesting of the season and was hotly fought from start to finish. This rebuff sobered the team and it bucked down to practice with a deadly determination, and the result of this vigorous house cleaning is shown by the following return game with Pitt in which Penn State scored 50 points to the Panther's 23. Buffalo and Swarthmore were next met, and each fell before the power of Horman's proteges in games in which Penn State had an obvious superiority.

Wonderful Victory at Penn
After the battle with the Garnet Quakers the five departed for its yearly eastern invasion. The season was now nearly at a close and all eyes were turned toward the Yale and Penn games. The team had come through a hard schedule with but one defeat and hopes were high for a brace of victories over the eastern quintets, Penn especially being the one whose defeat was sufficient to make a successful year. As it happened, the team left Penn State with the hearty support of every student and it was felt that now the crucial time of the season had arrived. These hopes were dashed when it was reported that Wolfe had been unable to take his place in the varsity line-up against the two eastern opponents. The Ell quintet took the crippled Penn State five by storm and led by Alderman, the star Yale performer, wrested a 20 to 23 decision from the Blue and White. This outcome cast cold water on all hopes of defeating the doughy Penn combine and the outlook was indeed black. However the Nittany forces gathered for the seemingly uneven struggle, still without the services of Wolfe, and entered the Red and Blue. As is now history, the tide of battle favored the Nittany five and after a memorable struggle that necessitated an extra period, the Nittany men achieved a brilliant 21 to 19 victory over the much-heralded Penn quintet. In this contest Koehler played a wonderful game in Wolfe's berth and was hailed largely toward the Blue and White win. The regular members of the squad cannot be given too much praise for this victory in the face of such discouraging prospects. The final contest of the year was played last Saturday evening against an Alumni five and resulted in a 23 to 23 victory for the varsity.

Nearly all the members of this brilliant quintet which has so well represented Penn State in the basketball world will be lost by graduation this June. Wolfe, one of the best forwards and foul shooters produced by Penn State will be graduated this year, as will Replogle, the center. Haines also will be lost to the team, while it is possible that Killinger will start the 1922 season. He will return to school next year, and stay until mid-years when he will be awarded his diploma. It is probable that he will be on the squad until February as he is eligible for one more year of varsity basketball. If he does obtain a berth during the coming season, his experience will be a great asset to Coach Herrman in breaking in his new team.

Good Prospects Next Year
Although most of the present varsity will be lost to the team through graduation there are prospects of a strong five next year. The backbone of the team will be built up around such men as Wilson, Koehler, Ritner Shafr, and Whiteman, while others who will be available for varsity berths next year are Wismer '23, Miller '23 as forwards, and Marshall '23, Kuber '23, Ritte '22, and Hunter '22 as guards. Shafr is the most likely candidate for center. A strong lot of Freshmen also will bid for positions next fall. The present yearling five has had a wonderful season without a defeat and will provide a valuable list of material for Coach Herrman to work with next year. Cornwall and Turner are as good a pair of forwards as could be desired, while Replogle and Schoenfeld are worthy of notice as centers. The guards of the yearling combination were Wilson and Frank and are men who must be seriously considered for playing the next year. Among the other Freshmen aspirants are, Bob Young, Ledfetter as guard, Warner as either center or forward, and Dormer and Fatzinger as forwards.

Letters Awarded to Varsity
The awards of letters has been announced by the Athletic Association and the straight 5 has been bestowed upon Captain Killinger, Wolfe, Haines, Replogle and Wilson, a Bar S to Manager Myers who has so efficiently engineered all the details of the season, and the bbs upon Koehler and Ritner. On the freshman team, numerals were awarded to the regular quintet including Cornwall, Wilson, Exter, Schoenfeld, Franks, Turner.

At the same time, the elections for varsity basketball manager for next year were held and J. E. Sayers '23 was chosen to succeed the 1922 season. The first assistant managers, S. S. Van Kueren '23, F. F. Chalk '23, and G. E. Ely '23, were also elected.
A survey of the entire season indicates that Killinger is high man in point of field goals, having 64 to his credit. The next highest is Replogle with 47, and then Wolfe, Wilson, and Haines in the order named, with 36, 33 and 33 respectively. A summary of the scoring is as follows:

Player	Games	F. G.	Fouls	Points
Killinger	18	34	1-2	129
Replogle	16	47	1-2	94
Wolfe	14	36	159-234	231

Haines	16	28	8	56
Koehler	10	8	10-15	28
Whiteman	9	2	2	8
Ritner	9	2	2	8
Shafr	2	2	2	4
Marshall	1	1	1	2

The letter to the effect will be called, and be more inclined to consider the trip than otherwise. We just want him here to show him a good time, to show the college at work and at play, and not burden him with red tape, facts and figures, but make it a case where actions will speak louder than words. Not more than one out of fifty editors in Pennsylvania have ever seen or know much about the size, aims and accomplishments of Penn State. Do not allow him to be misled on the date, which for convenience has been stated as March 6 to 8, Friday to Sunday. The big day will be Saturday the 7th, but there

The formal invitations say May 6-7, but emphasize to the busy man that Saturday is the one big day. The program for that day will include a trip during the morning over the college campus and through the buildings; a regimental review; luncheon together in McAllister Hall; a baseball game in the afternoon, and some student entertainment feature in the evening. Those who call upon editors can just talk Penn State, and any student desiring to stock up on points will be provided with a copy of "Pertinent Facts About The Pennsylvania State College" by calling at the publicity office. Anyone desiring further information before going home for vacation can obtain it by calling at this office. Editors will be at no expense for the visit other than that incurred in travel.

regented at Princeton. The other three contesting colleges, Columbia, Princeton, and Yale, did not appear on the 1921 schedule of this institution. Lehigh and Cornell will offer, from present indications, the stiffest opposition to Penn State, just as they have done for the past several years. The latter, with the exception of the Navy, was the only college to capture more than one bout in a dual meet with this institution this year, the score being 19 to 6 in favor of the Blue and White. The big red team has good men in Ackery and McBride in the 115 and 158 pound classes respectively. Lehigh has had a season of ups and downs, winning over Columbia by a score of 12 to 15, and over West Virginia, by a score of 21 to 8, but losing to Cornell, 16 to 13, and Penn State, 23 to 4. Captain Bertolet, who defeated Rose in the meet here which opened the Blue and White season, is looked upon as a strong contender for the championship in the 145 pound class. Penn started the season strong, but has been subjected to considerable difficulty in keeping together her varsity team because of injuries and scholastic troubles. For the first time in thirteen years the Red and Blue proved victorious over Cornell, while subsequent victories were achieved over Princeton, Columbia, and West Virginia. Her two defeats of the season so far were sustained at the hands of Penn State and the Navy. Several grapplers of no mean ability are included in the Penn squad, and Captain Ashby, Bishop, and Ward in the 158 and heavy-weight classes, respectively, are possible point winners for the Quakers. Princeton, Yale, and Columbia do not promise to furnish as much opposition as the three institutions just mentioned. Columbia has lost practically every meet engaged in this season, while Yale and Princeton have suffered several defeats. However, Columbia has a good man in Hart in the 135 pound class, and Carpenter, Princeton's heavy-weight, is one of the best performers in his class this year.

The Cumulative Value of Selling Life Insurance

Men and women who are preparing for a career, will do well to recognize at the outset, the fact that in most pursuits income ceases immediately when the worker ceases his efforts.
In most professions time adds only valuable experience, which must be converted by actual practice into financial reward.
Unlike most other professions, the Life Insurance Business does not exhaust your energies "today" and eject you "tomorrow". A forced suspension of your activity does not suspend your income in our business.

This is well worth considering in choosing your career. The Edward A. Woods Company of Pittsburgh wants to tell you the wonderful success trained men are meeting in the field of Life Insurance.
A letter will bring you a fuller discussion.

MEMBERS OF AG SCHOOL TO HEAR ADDRESS ON TEACHING
On Thursday, March 18th, Professor W. S. Taylor, formerly of the Agricultural Department, will address the faculty and students of the Agricultural School on "The Opportunities for Teachers in the Agricultural Vocational Schools."
There is at present a great shortage of teachers in the various agricultural schools throughout the state, notwithstanding the fact that the salaries range higher than in other lines of work. A special campaign is being conducted in the state for the purpose of increasing the number of teachers, and pointing out the advantages of such a position.
Professor Taylor has a very timely address which should be of interest to the members of the upper classes in the Ag School.

No wonder the fat man chuckled
I SWELLED with pride.
THE FAT man next to me,
WAS READING one
OF MY cigarette ads.
AND I felt him chuckle,
NOW NO one had ever,
PRAISED THAT ad,
SO I had to ask
IF HE LIKED it.
AND HE said, "Sure."
AND LAUGHED some more.
THEN HE said,
"LOOK HERE" and pointed,
AND WHERE I'd written,
"PURE TOBACCO."
THE PRINTER had set
"PURE TABASCO."
AND THAT'S why the man,
THOUGHT MY ad,
WAS HOT stuff.
BUT THEN he said,
"FORGET THE ads.
I NEVER read 'em.
BUT LEMME tell you,
SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
THEY OUGHT to say,
ABOUT THAT cigarette,
AND THAT is this:
THEY SATISFY."
AND DARNED if I don't think
HE REALLY believed,
HE WAS giving me
SOMETHING NEW!

YOU can blame it on the printer if you don't see "They Satisfy" in a Chesterfield advertisement. But be sure of this—you'll find it in the cigarette, every time. Wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, wonderfully blended—it sounds easy. But you'll find nothing else like Chesterfields. That blend can't be copied.
