EVERY STUDENT MUST VOTE

This vote requires an expression of opinion by every man in college and by every one voting can this be obtained. The polls will be open all Thursday morning so that every man will have ample opportunity to obtain a ballot and express his opinion. This change will have a tremendous effect upon the immediate future, it will decide whether the final examinations this June will be taken under the proctor system or under an honor system. This is the question which faces Penn State at this time and it is every man's privilege and duty to express his opinion.
