

The "Y" Clan Is Gathering for a Meeting

TWO GAME SERIES WITH DETROIT NINE WILL START TODAY

Varsity Diamond Men Will Clash With Michigan Team Today at Four O'clock

VISITORS ARE RATHER WEAK

Lightner is Back in Penn State Line-up—Thomas Will Twirl This Afternoon

Having easily disposed of the Pittsburgh Collegians on Tuesday, the varsity diamond men are now all set for a heavy week end and today and tomorrow will attempt to annex their eighteenth and nineteenth victories at the expense of the University of Detroit. According to all advance dope the Nittany players should come through successfully in the two game series, since the western nine has not met with very great encouragement this season. Last week it fell before Cornell in a loosely played contest by the score of 7 to 3 and the latter team does not possess an excellent record up to date. The Ithacans have lost to Catholic University, Georgetown, and Penn, the last named team having been defeated by both Yale and Princeton. Penn State trimmed both the Bulldogs and the Tiger on the eastern trip. Thus a comparison of scores points toward rather easy victories for the Blue and White team having been shared by the surprise Bethany, which played here two weeks ago, was not counted upon to give the Nittany men a hard tussle but put up a fine brand of ball and lost only by 4 to 3.

The Visitors' Line-up

The Detroit nine does not seem to be a strong hitting aggregation and this factor will be a decided disadvantage to it in the series with Penn State since "Bees" men are particularly active with the bat. In the game with Cornell, the westerners secured only three safe blows despite the apparent weakness of the opposing pitcher. The latter having been shared by the two teams in the Michigan game is not of the best caliber, as was well demonstrated in the clash with the Red and White. Several errors were chalked up to the Detroit team and played a large part in the Ithacan scoring. Kuden, who twirled against Cornell, usually pitches fairly good ball, and may be started in today's game. He has shown great improvement in using his fast ball and is expected to be supported by his teammates as he is counted upon to do his bit. The remainder of the line-up for the games will probably be as follows: Mallo-Connell, McKenna—field, Konyak—first, Curtin—catcher, Dunne—center field, Barrett—right field, Shannahan—third and Kent—shortstop.

Varsity Still Working Hard

Coach Bezek did not permit the wonderful success of the varsity baseball men on the eastern trip to interfere in the least with the daily practice and he is driving the players harder than ever in order that they will finish the season without a defeat. Five-entire victories in indeed a remarkable record but "Bees" is out to better it. The fact that the Nittany men seem to be still improving in hitting speaks well for the coming games. On Tuesday the visiting pitcher was backed all over the lot and on the eastern trip the slugging of the Blue and White representatives was a feature in itself. Brumbaugh, especially, has shown great improvement in using his stick and is developing into a regular slugger. He knocked two triples against the Collegians. Koehler too, is hitting in "Babe Ruth" style and is one of the most valuable men on the team. It is very probable that the Nittany line-up for today and tomorrow will be the same as that which played in all of the contests previous to the Princeton game. Lightner who injured his leg in the Tiger game, appeared in his usual position at left field in practice Wednesday and will probably start today, while Killinger, who was spiked Tuesday, should be in shape to play against Detroit. If not, his place at third will be filled by Sparks. Thomas is slated to pitch today's game, since he last appeared against Yale, and Melinier will probably hurl tomorrow.

IMMEDIATE PAYMENT OF "Y" PLEDGES NECESSARY

With the closing of the college year near at hand, the Penn State Y. M. C. A. reports that many of the pledges which were made by the students during the East and West tour drive remain still unpaid. At the present time Mr. F. L. O'Connell, the Y. M. C. A. Secretary, states that pledges amounting to fifteen hundred dollars have not been paid and that it is necessary to have this done if the "Y" is to meet all of its expenses this year. All students who have not made their payments may do so next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from six to eight at Mt. Zion.

ORCHESTRA MEETS FOR LAST PRACTICE TUESDAY

The members of the college orchestra will meet for their last rehearsal this Wednesday evening at six-thirty p. m. in the band room. As this is the last rehearsal, it is important that every member should be present.

SENIOR FUND GAINING FAVOR AS DRIVE ENDS

Endowment Campaign Prospects Brighten When Class Rallyes to Support

With a butting rally in the ninth, the Senior endowment fund campaign is now filling the bases for a final home run crack to complete the scoring. Everything now points toward a successful conclusion and results which will exceed those of the 1920 class fund are now to be expected. Following the Senior class meeting last week, where the idea was explained to those present among the members of the graduation class. Many who had a misconception of the endowment fund before any other class which opposed it, are now backing the campaign. The sales committee of the class has renewed its efforts with great results. Prospects which were looking dark several days ago have now been brightened. Comments were made by the first of this week, the salesman and physician representing the Equitable Life Insurance Co. of New York, have been stationed in the Army and many Seniors have reported for examination and to take out the policies. After interviewing these representatives, many members of the graduating class who were mediocre in favoring the fund, have now come to believe that the fund is a safe investment and that it will bring about and have become firm backers of the endowment. Some of these have even become missionaries in favoring the fund, and are now engaged in converting others to subscribe. In this manner, the campaign has met with increased favor which accounts for the strong rally that is now being made and promises to put the drive over the top.

Seniors are now realizing what the success of their campaign will mean to the future of the Blue and White institution and are determined that every effort will be made to give the fund across they are in this way trying to show their appreciation for what Penn State has done for them in the first opportunity which has been afforded to them to do this. The drive will be concluded with a very creditable sum raised, as indications are now pointing, it will mean much as an inspiration to future classes to continue this method of raising money to give a gift to the college. On the other hand, as it now will surely not be later graduating classes might have turned to some other way less successful for raising funds. As it now stands, every new subscriber not only better the gift from his own class but sets a precedent for following classes and the future now looks bright for the Nittany school.

FRESHMEN WILL MEET ACADEMY-NINE AGAIN

Return Game Takes Place at Bellefonte Tomorrow—Frosh Line-up is Changed

The yearling batsmen will play their final game of the season tomorrow afternoon, meeting Bellefonte Academy at Bellefonte in a return match to the contest played on New Beaver last Saturday. The game at the top seat should be a bumper as it will be remembered that the Nittany Freshmen only won last Saturday's contest by staging a batting rally in the ninth inning. The Academy nine was leading by a three run margin at the time and thought that it had the game solved, so that it is now particularly anxious to get another crack at the yearlings. On the other hand, the Blue and White Freshmen are determined to win their last contest and make up somewhat for the bad showing which they made in the first three games this year. A victory tomorrow will give them a record of two wins and three defeats.

Bellefonte Has Heavy Hitters

The Academy team is made up of a crew of hard sluggers and usually goes to the opposing pitcher for many good clouts before the game ends. Last Saturday, the Bellefonte men secured thirteen hits, four of which were for extra bases, and compelled the Freshmen to use two hurlers. Only two men on the team failed to connect safely. Stefan who pitched, made three of the hits, one being a triple while another went for two bases. Unfortunately the Academy players do not possess an air-tight defense and give up considerable assistance to their opponents through errors. On Saturday, they tumbled the ball eight times, one of the errors being responsible for a Blue and White run in the final frame. Stefan appeared on the mound in the first game with the Nittany first-year men and will probably start tomorrow. The Freshmen should be able to pound him, since the caught on to his offerings in the opening inning Saturday and should be able to solve them again. Stefan does not appear to have much stuff on the ball.

Freshmen Line-up Changed

A radical change was made in the yearling line-up this week by Coach Ideor in order to bolster up the weak spots in the team. Runette, who has been making a strong bid for the backstop position, has been shifted to the base in place of Loeffler and the latter player has been placed at shortstop. Palm, who has been holding down left field for the past five weeks, has been moved in to cover this position. Mahoney now plays in the garden position, while Russell, Reed, Anders and Eynes are still in the line-up and will appear at their regular places tomorrow. These changes in the team will undoubtedly give it a much more efficient offensive since both Runette and Mahoney are heavy sluggers and may

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION OPENS HERE TODAY

One Hundred and Fifty Student Officers Expected From Pa. and N. J. Schools

SESSIONS LAST THREE DAYS

President Hunt of Bucknell and Coach-Hugo Bezek Included Among Speakers

The Pennsylvania and New Jersey Students Officers' Training Conference commences here this evening when about one hundred and fifty student Y. M. C. A. officials from colleges, normal and preparatory schools of the two states get together for three days. All of the sessions are open to anyone. At five-thirty p. m. today, the get-together banquet at the Methodist church will open the three day conference. President John M. Thonick will preside at this meeting, extending a welcome from the college to the delegates. Another feature of the affair may be some selections by the varsity quartet. It is not entirely certain if this group will appear, but if they should, the popular organization will undoubtedly score another hit. From the church the group will go to the Old Chapel at eight o'clock for the first session. Dr. Emory W. Hunt, President of Bucknell University, has been scheduled to speak at this time. Saturday morning, the conference meetings will be held in the foyer of the Auditorium. At 10 o'clock, the business session will be held and conference committees will be appointed at that time. Following this, Mr. R. L. Ewing will conduct a Bible study at nine-thirty. Mr. Ewing is a representative of the International committee of the Y. M. C. A. and is well known at Penn State for the Bible study institute which he conducted here in February. During the war, he was head of the American Y. in England and before that he was general secretary of the organization in India. An attractive part of the program will follow at twelve-thirty p. m. in the form of a luncheon on the campus. The Y. M. C. A. is furnishing this meal which will be staged in the Open Air Theatre immediately after this, there will be a discussion of the Association problems and the field council meeting will also be elected at this time. There are also two students from each state who meet together as the Middle-Atlantic States Collegiate League. G. Galley '22 was one of the two delegates from Pennsylvania last year. The members of the conference will then go in a group to the varsity baseball game. A special problem reserved for them to witness the contest with Detroit. After the game, the group will continue the discussion of Association problems, one of which will be the Red Cross campaign, now being stressed on the campus. The new presidents will then lunch together at the University Club. Hugo Bezek will open the speech making of the evening when he speaks in the foyer of the Auditorium at ten o'clock on "Clean Sport." The Nittany Coach will undoubtedly present some worth while facts and ideals to the delegates.

MORE MONEY NEEDED FOR WAR MEMORIAL

Four Hundred Dollars Raised by Student Subscription—Campaign to Continue

BIDS ARE RECEIVED

Estimates Vary Between Ten and Twelve Hundred Dollars—Lack of Interest Shown

The results of the recent War Memorial campaign held for the purpose of securing funds with which to finance the erection of a bronze tablet to glorify the service of Penn State men in the war have not been very small compared with those expected. A committee of which R. L. Stuart '22 is chairman has been in charge of the campaign and have done all in their power to give each Penn State student an opportunity to participate in the work but many seem to hesitate in giving their share. The committee received nearly five hundred dollars from the Rehabilitation Club toward the project, this amount constituting the proceeds which were realized from the entertainment which they staged during the winter months. With this as a foundation, it was hoped to secure about one thousand dollars more from the student body, making a total of nine hundred dollars. In view of the fact that the committee feels that this amount is insufficient to provide for a memorial of which Penn State can be proud it seems to come, it has been found necessary to prolong indefinitely the period of time allotted to the campaign until such a time when the needed amount will have been raised.

Proposed Amendments to Athletic Association Constitution are Presented

The mass meeting held last Tuesday night to nominate officers for the Athletic Association for 1921-22 was attended by a very small number of students. The amendments presented at the meeting and first called for nominations for officers, stating that the election will be held Tuesday, May twenty-third, at eight o'clock in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. Following the business meeting a social will be held on Wednesday evening, a chance to become better acquainted, and extra small fee (ten cents) will be asked. This social is not limited to members. It is hoped that all who are interested in a girls' organization will be present.

COLLEGIANS ARE EASY VICTIMS FOR BATSMEN

Varsity Nine Annexes Seventeenth Victory by Hammering Visiting Pitcher for Sixteen Hits

Hammering the opposing pitcher for a total of sixteen safe whiffs, four of which were triples, the varsity diamond men won their seventeenth straight victory of the season Tuesday afternoon, defeating the Pittsburgh Collegians on New Beaver by the count of 15 to 2. The Smoky City aggregation was hopelessly outclassed from the start, although the Blue and White nine only secured four runs in the first four innings while the varsity were annexing one, and it was easily seen that Bezek's men had another very practically stowed away in their lockers. They put three tallies across in the first frame, went scoreless for the next two innings, took another run in the fourth and the piled up eleven runs in the four remaining innings, distributing them out at the rate of almost three per inning. Ullery made a wonderful bare-handed pick-up of a ball in the fourth inning that robbed Guiley, the Collegian shortstop, of a single and a possible run. Guiley cracked the pill down the first base line and Ullery, running over, scooped it up with his right hand and stepped on the bag retiring the runner. A single by McCandless, a moment later would have scored Guiley, as Pentland, who followed the latter, reached first on an error and accurate Hunter, twirling for the Blue and White, kept the visitors hits well scattered and would have scored a shutout had not his teammates booted the ball. Both of the Blue and White errors were made on errors. Hunter gave only one base on balls and fanned five men.

Penn State Scores Four

The Nittany players started off in a rush in their half of the first inning and pushed over three runners. Near an error and accurate Hunter, twirling second when Killinger's drive was bungled, moved up to third on another error while Hines got to first, but was tabbed at the plate when forced in by Rintz's crack of the shortstop. Koehler then came to bat and cleaned the bases with a beautiful triple to left, Killinger, Hines, and Rintz scoring. Korb walked but was forced at second by Brumbaugh's tallies were made on errors. Hunter gave only one base on balls and fanned five men.

TENNIS TEAM OFF ON EASTERN TRIP

Sam Boggs '22 Elected Captain—Beard and Wilson Out for Remainder of Season

With a hard schedule before them, the varsity tennis team left on its eastern invasion on Tuesday afternoon. Before leaving the members of the team met and elected a new leader for the rest of the season. "Glen" Beard '22, captain-elect for this year, will be unable to play tennis this season and S. Y. Boggs '22 has been elected to fill his place as pilot of the team. Another player has been lost to the team in the person of "Andy" Wilson '22 who is likewise unable to participate in tennis meets for the remainder of the season. Four games make up the complete schedule of the eastern trip. The first of the series was played with Cornell on Wednesday, where the Blue and White lost every match. Following the Lehigh game, the team left for Lafayette, where they play the second game. Today's game is against Swarthmore, where the varsity will no doubt meet with some hard opposition. Swarthmore has some star players on their team, and the contest is not likely to be an easy one. After the Swarthmore meet, the team will journey to Philadelphia, where they play Penn on Saturday. The Red and Blue team has made a good record so far this year, and here our racket man will meet with some hard opposition. The men who took the trip are Captain S. Y. Boggs '22, C. J. Parsons '22, C. M. Watts '21, W. D. Guthrie '22, and Manager C. F. Ottomiller '21.

NITTANY TRACK ARTISTS LEAVE FOR PITT MEET

Seven Collegiate Teams to Be Entered in Annual Western Track Festival

CLOSE SCORE EXPECTED

Pitt, Carnegie Tech, and W. and J. Among Those Who Will Try to Stop Penn State

This afternoon "Bill" Martin's track team will leave for the Schenley Oval, where, tomorrow, they will endeavor to show the people from the "Smoky City" that Penn State can win track meets as well as baseball and football games. The occasion is that of the Fifth Annual intercollegiate Track and Field Meet held under the auspices of the University of Pittsburgh, and in it the Blue and White runners will meet representatives of Pitt, Carnegie Tech, Washington and Jefferson, Grove City College, Geneva, and West Virginia.

Pitt Going Strong

Pitt, in particular, with Frank Shea, the Olympic runner as their main star, has been showing up well in all the meets in which they have participated. Two weeks ago the Pittsburgh men met Syracuse and Colgate in a triangular meet at the home of the defenders of the Orange and Blue Syracuse won the meet by a large margin; Pitt came in second and the Colgate team which was defeated here by an overwhelming score last Saturday, came in third, and runner-up being Syracuse 50, Pitt 33 and Colgate 27. Last Saturday the Panthers met the Middletown at Annapolis in a dual meet which the Middles won by the score of 59 to 35. Pitt was a stronger team than this score indicates for out of the sixteen events the Panther representatives scored eight first places—as many as the Navy was able to secure. Shea, who is Pitt's star sprinter, won first place in the 100, 200 and 400 yard dashes and also ran a fast quarter in the one mile relay. In 1917 Shea was the intercollegiate quarter mile champion and last summer he represented the United States in that event in the Olympics. In addition to Shea, Pitt will be strengthened by the services of Gerald Allen and Captain Thornton Allen. Allen is a sprinter, runner and did not appear in the meet at Annapolis last week. If he could have run he would undoubtedly have increased the Pitt score. Allen holds the Pitt record in the half mile, being 1 minute, 58 seconds. Hays who runs the mile for the Panthers is also very good and last Saturday he created quite a sensation at the Navy by winning the mile in 4:35. Thornton is an exceptionally good weight man and Brickley will undoubtedly give Barron and Hille some keen competition in the hurdles. In addition to these men Pitt has a very good sprinter in Capen and a good broad jumper in Capen.

FRATERNITY BASEBALL SEMI-FINALS NEXT WEEK

The first round of fraternity baseball competition is now practically over and the committee is busy making arrangements for the staging of the semi-finals. As soon as possible the schedule will be announced in the COLLEGIAN or will be posted so that the fraternities remaining in the race will know when they are to play. Games played this week resulted as follows: Gamma—Delta Upsilon—6 Alpha Chi Rho—2 Phi Gamma Delta—1 Phi Sigma Kappa—5 Sigma Alpha Epsilon—1 Phi Delta Theta—1 Tau Sigma Tau—1

LIVING MODELS USED IN DOMESTIC AIR EXHIBIT

On Wednesday evening, May twenty-fifth, at seven-thirty o'clock, an exhibit will be held in Woman's Building of the work done by the Domestic Art classes this semester. The costumes made by the girls will be shown on living models in the form of a fashion parade and rugs, baskets, hats, and other work which has been done this year also will be displayed. Everyone is invited to attend this exhibition.
