PENN, HOPES TO BREAK NITTANY WINNING STREAK

Varsity Batsmen Will Invade East For Clash With Red and Blue Nine Tomorrow trip to Pittsburgh this week when the defeated the Pitt nine in a ten inning battle, the Nittany baseball men will invade Philadelphia tomorrow and strive to cop off high honors in a game with Penn. The Blue and White team is still going at top speed, having pushed its number of wins up to twenty straight, and should come through with the twenty-first victory tomorrow unless the Penn nine plays better ball than it has up to date. In a game with Georgetown University last Saturday the Red and Blue batsmen played in mediocre fashion and only managed to nose out the Georgetown team in the ninth frame when Captain Harin the ninth frame when Captain Harvey connected for a home run and brought in two men. Penn's victories this season do not overshadow her defeats by a very large margin. The Princeton Tiger bumped her twice in a week. Yale trimmed her to the tune of 4 to 2, and Swarthmore walloped her 12 to 6 while Penn on the other hand, defeated the strong West Virginia aggregation Catholic University, Williams Cornell and Swarthmore. Penn State students will revail that Bezdek's men easily disposed of the Yale Buildogs won from Princeton in an extra inning clash, and shut out Georgetown on the southern trip by the count of 4 to 0, so that a comparison of the records of the two nines would indicate that the Nittany players should have things

Somewhat in their favor tomorrow.

The Red and Blue team is fairly active with the stick and this factor has helped it to annex at least two runs against every opponent but its defense is ragged and provides a loophole, that has spelled defeat for the Penn entomore than once. Against Georgetown the Penn men made five errors that were immediately responsible for four runs and made two or three wild has been brought to make at the Red and Blue representatives have as he held the Georgetown nine scoreless after relieving another Penn pitcher in the seventh frame, but he twirled against Army this week and will not be in condition to face the Penn State sluggers. The other pitchers, namely Larsen, Lewellyn, Sheffy and Mahaffey are being groomed for the battle though and will be on hand to give the Nittany men their best offerings. The line-up of the Penn ninc nonrow will probably be as follows: MeNichol—second; Penn STATE INVITED TO ENTER I AWN TENNIC MET. ly be as follows: McNichol—second; Shriver—shortstop; Whitehill—first; Harvey—Center field; Mouradian—left field; Myers—right field; Maher—catcher, and Sullivan—third. Myers and Harvey are heavy hitters and will bear special watching by the Blue and White hurler. Myers swatted the pill at a high clip against Princeton and Georgetown while Harvey who is captain of the Penn team, got three hits in the Georgetown contest and has connected safely in almost all of the other games. Witany Nine Princet for Penn

Nittany Nine Primed for Penn

Nitany Nine Primed for Penn The Blue and White nine came thru in fine shape and is set to take a fall out of the Philadelphia team tomorrow. The heavy hitting of the first half of the line-up against the Panther Wednesday indicated that "Bez's" men are still able to pick out the good slants of most hurlers, while the errorless defense proved that the fielders are at their best and may be counted upon to give excellent support to the pitcher. Thomas will, in all probability appear on the mound tomorrow as he has not pitched since the second game of the Detroit series and Bezdek does not care to take any unnecessary chances again-If Thomas twirls as well as tany nine should win handily.

Halnes To Coach Lebanon Valley Considerable discussion was caused in the student body this week by the announcement in the daily papers of the signing up of "Hinky" Halnes as coach of athletics at Lebanon Valley College. Haines attended this institution before coming to Penn State and it was because of this circumstance and his athletic prowess that he was offered the postilion of coach there. His appointment was-ratified by the authorities of the college and he will take up his duties with the opening of the fall term. "Hinkey" will undoubted! make a great success at Lebanon Valley as he knows all sports from the ground up and is an all around athlete of considerable note. He has made his var-Haines To Coach Lebanon Valley siderable note. He has made his var sity "S" in three sports at this insti-

PITT GIVES TWIRLERS

Panther Nine Succumbs in Extra Inning Contest-Mellinger

A batting spree in the tenth liming, with the score tied at 2 to 2, gave the Nittany battwicklers a 5 to 2 decision over the fast Pitt nine on Wednesday and enabled them to push their record up to twenty straight victories. Triples by Killinger and Ullery, after Maerkle had connected for his third single, swung the tide in favor of the Bue and White and then Mellinger namaged to hold the Panther scoreless for its half of the final frame. Davies put the Pittites in the lead in the eighth inding with a two-barger but furabled a drive in the next frame and allowed to Kochier to the the score. The context was featured by the hard hitting of Penn State and the masterful twickling of Mellinger, who struck out twickse batsmen and was invincible in plaches. Captain Barrett of the Pitt feature also hurled well the majority of the time but weakened in the tenth limiting.

Although the campaign started poorly, within the last two weeks it gained speed and in that time most of the subscriptions were made. During this when the representatives of the Equitable Life insurance Co, were at State Collège about seventy more policies were taken out. With this added momentum, Seniors rallied to the support of the fund and to this was greatly responsible the final round-up which kept the drive from failure. Durisar this grand raily, about seventy five Seniors became subscribers in two days, in this closing campaign those who had aaken out policies for themselves got together and added by selling to those who had not subscribed.

Romig In the Two Mile

Specific and surely, Captain Demm-ng has been lowering the time in which he does the quarter and half affle events. His performance in the quarter at Pittsburch last Saturday was ladeed commendable. Although he lost to Shen of Pitt in this race, his time was better than any that he has made this year. Is 1-5 seconds is fast for the quarter. His performance in the half nide rum also deserves com-mendation for Demming never ran a fasternee-than that in which he broke the Pitt record at Schenley Field last week. It he keeps up this fine work, there is little doubt that he will come through in the Harvard meet. Girbers, Hile and Parent will prob-

His time of 10 1-5 sec-onds at Pitt hast week is about his av-ering time for the century dash. How-ever, in tractice this past week he has been doing a little better than the time which he made at Pittsburg. His main fault seemed to be ingetting a good start but with constant practice this defective element in his running has been gradually overcome and Grimes should at least take a noticeable place in the meet tomorrow.
