ANNUAL MUSIC RECITAL DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

The recital given by the Students of the Department of Music in the Auditorium last Tuesday evening was well attended by an appreciative audience of students and townspeople.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR KING POMPOMPUS I

Nightly Rehearsals Continue in Preparation For Thespians' June Offering

The sale of tickets for "King Pompompus I" the musical comedy to be presented by the Thespians on Monday, June thirteenth, will take place Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of the preceding week.

One of the chief drawing cards for this production will be the use of musical comedy in place of straight comedy which has been in vogue for the past several years.

Several excellent and humorous choruses and dances will be important features, as well as the fact that the pick of the College Orchestra will provide the musical accompaniment.

In short, the music in combination with the continuous sparkle of wit and humor along with the superior acting which the Thespians have exhibited heretofore should make this production a huge success.

Another element that will tend to create greater interest in and enjoyment of the play is the fact that it is entirely the work of Penn State students.

The play was written by B. W. Knapp '21 and Prof. C. L. Harris and it is directed and staged entirely by Penn State students, the musical numbers also being composed by them.

The nightly rehearsals are being rigorously carried out and the practice will be strenuously continued until the date of the show, as was planned.

MINING EXTENSION STUDENTS SUCCESSFUL

Students who have been taking extension work under the School of Mines have been very successful in their recent State examinations.

In Phillipsburg seven of the eight men who took the examination for first grade foreman were successful. A prominent mine inspector of the state made a remark concerning the decided improvement in the papers which were turned in, and he gave full credit to the Extension Department of the School of Mines.

A conference of the teachers of the extension classes is being planned for sometime in the next month.

CAMPUS SINGING WILL BE DISCONTINUED TILL FALL

Due to the apparent lack of interest among the student body in campus singing, the Department of Music has practically decided to give up the Tuesday evening concerts and allow that phase of the college traditions to drop.

Whether on account of too many other activities or just lack of interest, everyone of the gatherings thus far have been too poorly attended to warrant their continuing.

It has been suggested that, instead of abolishing the custom entirely, the singing of the old Penn State songs be taken up in the various fraternities and houses through the town and the activities along that line be confined to them.

At the present time this suggestion is looked upon with favor, and it is more than likely that that is what will be done.

BUREAU OF MINES CAR TO BE HERE IN JUNE

The School of Mines will have the United States Bureau of Mines car at State College for one week beginning June twenty-seventh.

Experts in First Aid Work and in the use of oxygen apparatus employed in case of accidents in places where noxious gases are present will be on the car and prepared to train those desiring such information.

This is an unusual opportunity for those desiring to secure First Aid training by specialists in this line and those who can grant Government certificates for proficiency in this work. Usually this privilege is restricted to men in the mining industry and their families but the School of Mines has just secured a statement from D. J. Parker Chief of the Safety Division of the

FRESHMEN INTERCLASH SOCCER CHAMPIONS

The Freshmen won the interclass soccer championship on Wednesday evening when they defeated the Juniors by a score of 2-0.

Due to the fact that the Freshmen defeated the Sophs in the scrap on Saturday by a score of 2-1 a tie for the championship resulted between the Freshmen and Juniors.

During the early part of the first half of the game the teams were pretty evenly matched. However the Freshmen beat the ball well in the territory of the Juniors goal.

Then in the last four minutes of play the Freshmen began to rush the ball, and succeeded in making two goals. The half ended with the Fresh holding a two point lead.

At the start of the second half the Juniors tightened up and began to work their way toward the Freshmen's goal.

Then the Fresh played a strong defensive game and at last sent the ball out of dangerous territory. During the remainder of the period neither team gained any decided advantage and the game finally ended with the Fresh as victors.

The Fresh have been playing very good soccer all year, and from all indications will be offering some good material for the varsity team next fall.
