Finegan, state superintendent of education, the Hon. Marcus Aaron, member of the State Council of Education of Pennsylvania; Dr. W. H. Davidson, Superintendent of the Pittsburgh public schools; Dr. S. E. Weber, Superintendent of the Scranton public schools; Dr. D. C. Broome, Superintendent of the Philadelphia public schools; Dr. Henry V. Holmes, Dean of the Graduate School of Education, Harvard University, and Dr. John M. Thomas, President of the Pennsylvania State College.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM HAS GOOD PROSPECTS WITH SEVEN VETERANS

Many Old Men Make Success Certain At Big Meets This Fall

Coach Martin is busily whipping Penn State's varsity cross country team into shape in preparation for the various dual and intercollegiate meets in which they will engage this fall. So far no definite schedule has been arranged, but it is certain that the Blue and White aggregation will be represented at the National Intercollegiate Cross Country Championship meet, which will be held at Van Courtland Park in New York City on Monday, November, twenty-first. At this time other Larry Shields or some other member of the cross country team is expected to lead the race, which was won by "Blondy" Romie last year.

SOPHOMORE AND FRESHMAN BOXERS GET FIRST CALL

Many Veterans of Last Year's Team Return and Brighten Season's Outlook

ARMY ON THE SCHEDULE

Underclassmen to Receive Instruction From Four Varsity Men

The return of the majority of the members of last year's varsity boxing squad practically assures Penn State of having another first rate boxing team for the coming season. Among those who have returned are Captain Beck, C. R. Madena '21, T. S. Vasilis '23, L. Chapin '22, F. Clark '22, H. Bordner '22, W. Atmarah '23, G. K. Fried '23 and N. Feldman '24. All of these men showed up exceptionally well under Coach Harlow last year and each of them should improve greatly this season after they get a little more experience.

COLLEGIAN WILL SOON CALL FOR CANDIDATES

The annual call for freshman and sophomore candidates for the editorial staff of the COLLEGIAN will be issued next week and all men who want to try for a place on the college newspaper will have the opportunity next Wednesday evening, September 28, at 7:30 in the Liberal Arts Building. No experience on the part of the men is required, although it will be an advantage. Men who have done magazine work in high school or on the daily newspaper are especially desired. A large number of places are to be put on the staff after a preliminary trial.

CHANGE HOUR OF SUNDAY EVENING CHAPEL SERVICES

Student Council Cooperates With President Thomas in Settling Time of Vesper Exercises

POVERTY DAY OCT. 8

Council in Bi-weekly Meeting Also Requests Standard Supper Hour to Aid Athletics

The Sunday evening chapel service will be held at 6:30 p. m. hereafter instead of 5:00 p. m. according to a ruling passed down by President Thomas after a conference with Student Council Tuesday evening. The new hour will go into effect immediately.

When announcing this Council, President Thomas explained his position in regard to chapel attendance, saying that he was faced by certain regulations, not imposed by himself but stipulated by the Board of Trustees. He said that no matter what his own personal views might be, he must carry out the wishes of the Trustees (namely) that the chapel services be continued and that made of greater value to the student body. In demanding this, they believe that they are carrying out the desires of the majority of the people of the state to which the institution belongs.

REBUILT ELEVEN MEETS INITIAL TEST TOMORROW

Injuries Prevent Coach Bezdek From Presenting Strongest Line-Up In Season's Opener

TEN VETERANS WILL START GAME FOR LEBANON VALLEY

PENN STATE PLAYERS START WORK ON FIRST PERFORMANCE OF YEAR

Officers for the Coming Year Announced at First Meeting of Dramatic Club

On Tuesday evening The Penn State Players held their first meeting of the college year to discuss plans for the coming season. The dramatic policies were taken up, acted upon and an even more extensive programme than last year is contemplated. It is the aim of the organization to give to State College audiences, or where ever they may play a thorough and representative of the best drama of the world.

The officers for the coming year are President—W. M. Eganman, Vice-President—Miss Ruth Erb, Secretary—Miss Elsie Koehler, Treasurer—H. A. Malsinger, Properties—G. McCollum, Jr.

Untested and inexperienced, with only four of its members veterans of last year's undefeated gridiron machine and with a few of its most promising men still on the crippled list, Penn State's 1921 eleven opens the local football season tomorrow afternoon by meeting Lebanon Valley College on New Beaver field at two-thirty o'clock. Three weeks of hard and intensive training under the watchful eyes of Coach Bezdek, Harlow, and Herman and Trainer Martin have failed to bring the players around into the condition expected and prospects are not very bright, despite the fact that the Lebanon Valley warriors in the past have never put on much of an obstacle to Nittany teams. It must be remembered that Penn State has had a wealth of experienced material to depend upon in the last two years, and, with circumstances considerably different this fall, a pessimistic viewpoint must be taken until the men have been tried. Last year the Blue and White eleven was going at top speed when it smothered the Lebanon Collegians by the score of 109 to 7 while coming as the first opponent this season. Lebanon Valley should put up a much better showing.

PRESIDENT OF CANTON CHRISTIAN COLLEGE TO SPEAK AT CHAPEL

Will Also Lecture on Far Eastern Situations on Saturday Night

Penn State men and women will have an opportunity to listen next Saturday evening and Sunday at both chapels to a man to whom the whole world is tuning today for information about the conditions in the Far East—especially those in China. That man is Dr. Charles K. Edmunds, who has been President of the Canton Christian College, in which Penn State is so vitally interested, since 1907.

Dr. Edmunds is an engineer by training but has been in China for seven years. From 1903 to 1907 he was professor of Physics and Electrical Engineering at the Canton Christian College and has been President of that remarkable institution since 1907. He has thus been enabled to keep in close touch with the progress of education in China during its most critical and interesting period from 1906 to 1917. Dr. Edmunds was in charge of the Magnetic Survey of China and Mongolia, the American legation at the Chinese Institution of Washington, and traversed some 15,000 miles through the interior, reaching many of the most inaccessible, far-flung, and unexplored parts of the continent. He has been in Japan, Korea, French-Indo-China, the Philippines and Siam. Numerous articles by Dr. Edmunds have appeared from time to time in "The Popular Science Monthly," "The Journal of International Relations," "The National Geographic," "Asia," and other magazines.

NEW COACHING-STAFF FOR SOCCER SQUADS

Initial Workouts Composed of Light Foot Work, Dribbling and Passing

The initial practice of the varsity team for the soccer season of 1921 was held last Tuesday night on the field adjoining the athletic building. The squad of candidates reported at that time for their first workout which was of a light order. One night of the work was devoted to a talk in which was outlined the methods that will be followed during the season in developing the team.

One of the developments of the week is the securing of a coaching staff. Professor Dennis, who for many years played and coached this sport, has consented to coach the squad in the booting game whenever he is at the college. Previously it was announced that he had been appointed coach but this later proved to be untrue because Professor Dennis is forced to be absent from the college several times a month on account of his work. But when he is at State College, he has consented to coach the team by giving his advice and showing the team the fundamentals and the intricate points of the game. He will be assisted by Mr. Packingham, who for many years played scholastic soccer on his Alma Mater's team at Oxford University, England, and who was a member of the track English aggregation while he served in the British army. Mr. Packingham is thoroughly acquainted with every detail of the game and will be highly instrumental in forming a winning combination at Penn State. The consent of these men for many years' experience brightens the aspect of the season considerable and the efforts of these two experts should go far in securing a team that will be successful in the coming season.

WILSON HAVE VETERAN TEAM

One fact very much in favor of the visitors this year is that they are represented by a veteran aggregation and work smoother than most teams do so early in the season. Ten members of the first team have had at least one year's experience on Lebanon Valley eleven, having appeared here returning to college was reinstated.

The players wish to announce that as the best performance they will present Nothing But The Truth, an amusing farce that William Collier played with such success three years ago. It is a very clever situation and is very cleverly handled. The date set for the presentation is late in October.

All students desiring to play in the first performance are asked to report to Mr. Arthur C. Goetting, Director of The Players' Field, after noon, September twenty-third, from 3:30 to 5:30 at room 229 Old Main. The cast will be chosen from the student body at large and everyone interested is urged to come out.

Also, there will be a registration open to members of the freshman class for the 2nd assistant manager's Monday evening, September twenty-fourth, at 7:30 in room 120 Old Main. All freshmen interested in the work are asked to be out.

DAILY SCRIMMAGES IMPROVE YEARLINGS

Coach Herrian Puts Opposing Teams Through Hard Work of Rough Work

After four days of intensive scrimmages the Freshman football team appears to be in excellent shape and, if the squad keeps developing in the next two weeks the way that it has been going this week, the initial game with Bellefonte Academy, which will be played on October eighth, should result in a victory for the Blue and White team. The majority of the forty-four men who are out for the team are in excellent condition, the hard knocks of the scrimmage affecting them only slightly.

The weather during the past week gave the men all kinds of conditions under which to scrimmage. Wednesday the practice took place during a downpour and Old Beaver Field looked like a huge mud puddle. After running the four teams through signal practice, kicking and passing the ball, Coach Herrian divided the teams from the entire squad and gave them instructions in offensive and defensive playing. At times both teams looked as though they were composed of variegated mud. The instructions of the main made the field look like a sea of mud and the men who took part in the scrimmage looked as though they were attending anything but a football game. The various members of the team did not work together as well as they might. One moment the entire backfield would work as a unit and the next moment they would be apart and smooth.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR INAUGURATION DAY

Arrangements are also well under way for a meet with the University of Pennsylvania, on either Pennsylvania Day, or on Alumni Homecoming Day, and one with the University of Columbia at the time of the Georgia Tech football game.

Due to the fact that the majority of Penn State's letter men have returned this fall, and that Larry Shields is again representing the Nittany team, prospects are very bright for a successful year. The Varsity runners who are showing up especially well are Shields, Romie, Edgerton, Carter, Cooper and Snyder. Several members of last year's varsity team are also expected to greatly strengthen the Varsity squad this season. They are Enck, Wilhelm and Hamilton.

PENN STATE CLUB IS PLANNING TWO DANCES

Pennsylvania Day Will Be Scene of Non-Fraternity Men's Activities

The Penn State Club held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday night in the Old Chapel and decided to hold a dance in the Armory on Pennsylvania Day. A committee was selected to look into the matter and to make all the plans for the event and see that all the details are carried out.

The dance committee has already arranged to have one of the best Philadelphia orchestras play here for the occasion. Two dances will be held, one on Friday night, November fourth, and the other on Saturday night, November fifth. The subscription for both dances will be through the University.

OLD MAIN RAHS WILL HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM

The Old Main Club held its first meeting of the school year last Monday night at nine-thirty in the Old Chapel. The pep and cheerfulness of the club members was the order of the day.

The organization decided to purchase some additional furniture for the improvement of the club room on the fifth floor and to have the telephone booth unobscured for the convenience of club members. Professor L. Weber, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, also stated that every occupied room in the building will be painted or papered.
