MANY ENGLISH COURSES OFFERED AS ELECTIVE

Six English and Two American Literature Subjects Included in List of Electives

The Department of English announces that the eleven courses in English Literature will be elective during the second semester. The offering of the Department is varied, including many types of subjects that may well claim the attention of all who are considering the advisability of taking their elective subjects in this department. One of these courses is not listed in the schedule book and for that reason will be made by appointment. This course is titled "Shakespeare" and will deal with the works of the foremost English author of the past.

- One course in Business English can be taken by seniors only while the other subjects are offered to the entire student body. Dr. Dye will instruct in three courses dealing with English Literature and Dr. Patten is scheduled for two American Literature courses that are elective. The official list of the elective departmental courses is:
- Engl 20—Business English (for seniors only)—Shoenberger
- Engl 25—Interpretative Reading—Jackson
- Engl 307—Middle English—Carter
- Engl 350—Junior Orators—Jackson
- Engl 352—Shakespeare (not in schedule book)—Carter
- Engl 355—The Classical Period in English Literature—Battinhouse
- Engl 407—English Prose in the 19th Century—Dye
- Engl 408—English Literature from 1870—Dye
- Engl 453—English Drama from the Restoration—Dye
- Engl 458—American Literature from 1870—Patten
- Engl 463—American Literature Seminar, Patten

DR. NEWMAN SAYS "GET WHAT YOU WANT"

The Chapel speech at the morning services was made Sunday by Dr. John Grant Newmann of the Chambers-Wylie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Newmann spoke on "Discipline in the Evening." Before the regular sermon Dr. Newmann gave a short talk on "Blue." He advised all of us to get rid of the "blues" as soon as we get them and if it is at all possible don't get them at all. He showed how singing or whistling will drive them away for the pucker in your lips will take it out of your brow. The speaker took as his text the familiar passage from Matthew, seventh verse, seventh chapter: "Seek and ye shall find, ask and ye shall receive, knock and it will be opened unto you." He explained that anything that is worth having is worth striving for and that there is good in all things if we look for it. He gave this illustration when he was a boy, he was out in the fields and left the plow, to look around, and the big marsh off to one side of him was of gold, the hilltop was of gold and the plow that he had been using appeared to be of gold for the sun was coming up and God's work stood out in all its splendor. The thing was always there but he had never seen it before. He then showed how it is the same with life there are things here, big things, but we must seek for them in order to find them.

INTERCOLLEGIATE RECORD FOR PLUNGING BROKEN AT YALE
By a plunge of 79 feet, B. J. Wood of Yale set a new intercollegiate record in the swimming meet held in the Yale pool Saturday, January 7, with C. C. N. Y. in which the New Yorkers were defeated by the score of 46 to 13. The previous record of 78 feet was made by G. Lehman of Penn.

time of the bout was four minutes and eight seconds. Superior strength was shown by both contestants in the 135 pound bout, when Naito, '25 met Lesh '24. Naito had the advantage for some time and finally obtained a fall, throwing Lesh with an arm and body hold. The bout lasted five minutes and thirty-eight seconds. The 145 pound bout resulted in a fall for Manderville, '24. His opponent, Black, '25, started the bout like a whirlwind and rushed the Sophomore to the mat, only to find that Manderville was on his feet in an instant. At the end of four minutes and thirty seconds Manderville obtained a fall by use of the arm and body hold. Manderville, '25, and Davidson, '24, appeared to be very evenly matched in the 168 pound class. Directly after the start of the bout, the Frosh was thrown to the mat by his opponent but soon regained his feet by breaking from

W. E. PERCY, II, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE CLASS FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORTED THAT THE CLASS WAS IN GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION.

He reported that the class had $1547.92 cash on hand and that the dues for the next semester would be only two dollars. He also said that there were $213 unpaid dues and that if these dues had been collected no dues would have to be charged next semester.

Trophy For Football Team

C. L. Mellinger, chairman of the committee appointed to select a suitable memorial for the successful 1921 football season reported that a shield containing the scores of the games and the names of the letter men was the most feasible and that a dance was the logical means of securing the funds for its purchase. The class endorsed the work of the committee and approved the plan.

where they had lost them so long before. The role of Mrs. Whipple is played by Miss Lora Clark, and her interpretation is splendid. To be sure the love story of the play is about the romance of Clay and Ivola but the scene filled of the drama follows the lives of Frank Hamilton and Mrs. Whipple.

The two roles are intense, compelling and dramatic to the extreme, and in the hands of Miss Stanley and Miss Clark they are given to the fullest their interpretation.
