date but he just can't do it with so many Harmon girls around him.
After the introduction of the Royal Minstrels, given by command of the King, eight of the best comedians in the college will appear as the black face and men. These men are Jack Meyers, H. E. Schlosser, C. W. Taylor, F. H. Gillings, W. E. Konrad, J. A. Gilliam, C. V. Bell, D. H. Murray, J. A. Jack Meyers will sing "I Won't Stare," E. H. Murray will sing "Mandy in Me" and W. J. Konrad will sing the big song of the "Jollies" named "In Free Single Disengagement." R. A. Roxby of the Variety Quartette will sing the new ballad that is sweeping the country "Oh, Me You Love All The Time."
Among the members of the "Jollies" cast are Misses Florence D. Kling, 23, Rosa M. Dana, 24, Mary A. Ferguson, 21, Sarah C. Cupt, 24, Clara M. Hilleman, 24, Ethel Lane, 25, Margaret E. Jones, 25, Marjorie D. Doven, 24, Joe Hollingsworth, 22, Edna M. Garrett, 23, Mary F. Young, 23, Eliza Jane Reese, 21, Milton R. Geigel, 25, Auna S. Kahlert, 24, Ruth Hillier, 24, Wilma L. Thomas, 24, Ethel I. Cubbon, 25, Francis R. Bennett, Virginia E. Cleary, 23, and Grace V. Doyle, 24.
Messrs J. A. Gabriel, C. V. Bell, 24, E. H. Murray, H. C. McCoy, J. A. Bond, C. C. Dressel, J. J. Recco, F. G. Hoensch, 21, C. L. Sears, C. I. Campbell, 22, R. A. Roxby, 23, R. B. Maxwell, F. M. Dennis, J. A. Barkley, C. W. Taylor, F. H. Gillings, 23, W. E. Konrad, 22, Jack Meyers, 23, "Buck" Schlosser, 24, W. M. Shore, R. A. Smith, L. G. Clemson, C. Youngfellow, C. L. Greenlee, C. M. Roberts, C. M. Huber, 22, F. M. Lockley and James Snyder, compose the male section of the cast.
Many students prominent in college activities have expressed themselves strongly in favor of the project of placing the "S" on Nittany, and it is their belief that the student body will give their whole hearted support to the "Jollies of 1922," the proceeds of which will be donated to the Senior Class, who are sponsoring the idea.
Tickets are going fast and can be purchased from any member of the Senior Class or any Rohat. The reserved seats will open at the Co-op store Wednesday evening, February 15th at six p. m.

ENGINEERING LECTURES
DAILY IN OLD CHAPEL

9-The Preparation and Use of Financial Statements
10-The Increased Ratio of Personal Accomplishment Possible Through Proper Organization
Mr Jordan will not be unfamiliar to many students, as he delivered a pleasing address here on the second of December.
The series started yesterday and will continue through to Friday, February seventeenth. Two lectures will be given every day during this period, the first at 10:30 a. m. and the second at 1:30 p. m. All lectures will be delivered in Old Chapel, in order that students with a vacant hour may easily attend. A good attendance of the Industrial Engineers is especially desired. The entire student body can derive some good from these lectures, and all should endeavor to attend a number of them.

BARRON MAKES NEW

city of Pennsylvania, set out to run away with the event and he held the lead until the first two laps of the race. At this point R. E. Johnston, who was A. U. champion in this event last year, started to lengthen his stride, drawing Romig along with him. At this point Romig came out strong and finished with a burst of speed that has seldom been seen anywhere. Although Romig is a Penn State graduate, he is permitted to represent the college in these open meets. His time was 9:21, eight seconds faster than the time he made when he broke the two mile record in the meet with Colgate on New Beaver Field last spring.

Shields Beats Jole Ray
In the 1600 yard run "Lury" Shields entered a field with an array of some of the finest runners in America. This field included Cutbill of Boston and Jole Ray of the Illinois A. C. in addition to many others. Cutbill took the lead almost from the start while Shields stayed back with Ray, expecting the latter to make a sprint near the finish and then wishing to be on hand for the excitement. Cutbill in the meantime had been steadily gaining on both Shields and Ray, latter two set out to overtake "the flying parson." Shields beat Ray to the tape, but Cutbill was already there, having broken the A. A. U. record for that event.
The total number of points scored by Penn State was thirteen, and the records established by Barron and Romig will put them on the A. A. U. All-American college track team for the coming year.

one hundred nineteen feet and three inches.
In the hammer-throwing contest, Palm won over Alwine with a one hundred forty-nine foot, eight inch throw, as against a distance of one hundred twenty-eight feet five inches made by the latter.
Juniors Win Inter-Class Relay
An Inter-Class Relay was the last event of the afternoon, and a team composed of Kaufmann, Hill, Edgerston and Carter, representing the Juniors, came in first, followed by the Sophomores. The Freshmen placed third and the Seniors last.

A large entry is expected at the meet next Saturday, and anyone who has not placed first, second, or third in a track and field meet may take part in the coming one.

present time except the names of those who will probably appear in the ring next Saturday. These are Dugan at the 115 pound class, Meister at 125, Harmony at 135, Melroy at 145, Aschler at 160, Maglin at 175 and Captain Davidson in the heavyweight both divisions at 185 and Captain Davidson at the unlimited weight are known to be especially skillful boxers.

OVERWHELM LEHIGH

fate him, he took the aggressive from the beginning of the bout. However, he had difficulty in getting to his man and finally became over anxious, opened a little too much and fell into a head and then from which he was unable to extract himself. Gehle did not show his usual form.
Best Bout of the Meet
The best bout of the met was undoubtedly the one in the 155 pound class, where Punks of Penn State met Cox of Lehigh. Both men, seeming to realize each other's ability, were cautious from the beginning. Finally, Cox took Punks to the mat with a leg hold but the Penn State grappler immediately retaliated with an arm roll. He held this advantage for two minutes, at which time Cox again gained the upper hand and maintained his position for the remaining minutes of the bout. It was Punks' first appearance on the mat and his showing was very creditable.
Wilson Wins Decision
In the 175 pound division the bout again started cautiously. Wilson of Penn State feeling out his opponent, Carlisle, of Lehigh, with care. Finally Wilson took the aggressive and succeeded in slipping behind his man. He threw his opponent to the mat several times and finally succeeded in working the Brown and White grappler into a stretched scissors. Carlisle, however, caught Wilson by the head and pulled him forward until he had the advantage, which however, was of short duration, Wilson immediately working an arm roll. At this point the Nittany representative almost secured a fall but his opponent struggled out of danger, only to have Wilson apply the stretched scissors again, Wilson held this position for the remainder of the bout.

Heavyweight Results in Draw
The first nine minutes of the bout in the heavyweight class resulted in nothing more than a foot-race, with Sarson, the 255 pound Nittany grappler taking the aggressive against Moorehouse of Lehigh. No advantage was obtained by either during this time and an extra period was necessary to determine the bout. In the extra period, Sarson won the toss up and decided to go under the first three minutes. In twenty second he was able to free himself in the next period Moorehouse took the under position and regained his feet in twenty-four seconds. This gave Sarson a four second advantage but since it takes a ten second advantage in order to declare a decision, the bout was declared a draw, each team getting 14 points.

SENIORS ADOPT NOTE
ISSUE MEMORIAL PLAN

The notes would move to be of greater benefit to the college.
An chairman Mellinger explained the plan as presented and approved by the committee provides that each member of the Senior class shall take out five notes for twenty dollars apiece and payable to the college. These notes will mature successively for five years, one for each year and at the end of five years, each Senior shall have paid one hundred dollars to his Alma Mater. Arrangements have been made with the treasurer of the college to the effect that he will send out notices each year to the Seniors one month before the note for that year falls due and immediate remittance will be expected.
The chief advantages attached to this plan are those recurring from a short period of payment and from the fact that no foreign party receives a profit at the expense of the college or the members of the class and that none will be eliminated by physical examinations but everyone will be given an opportunity in taking out the notes. These advantages far outweigh any arguments that may be forwarded in favor of the insurance plans as adopted in years past.
After this plan had been presented to the class by the committee, it was outlined to Dr. Thomas, Hugo Bezdek, N. M. Fleming, and E. K. Hirschman, all of whom endorsed the approval of the committee.

These recognized the merits of the plan and stated their choice as being the note issue.
Treasurer Elected
At the meeting that was held previous to last week the vote for class treasurer showed that neither of the three candidates had received a majority sufficient to give him the office so a revote was duly held at this meeting. The same three candidates were again voted upon before R. B. George, A. G. Pratt, and W. E. Perry. At this vote, R. B. George received the necessary majority of votes and was declared treasurer of the class. From the men who were proposed to represent the class on the Inter Sports Council and on the Student Council, the results of the poll showed that W. H. Wells was elected to the Inter Sports Council and that J. M. Peoples from the School of Liberal Arts and G. H. Barager from the School of Engineering were elected to the Student Council.
J. W. Selevy, in behalf of the committee appointed to publish a booklet for and of the members of the Senior Class, made a tentative report on the book. He stated that the book would be of pocket size, approximately as large as the freshman bible and that it would consist of four general parts: First, that it would contain a complete explanation of the Senior Memorial or Endowment plan, second, that it would be a directory of the home addresses of each member of the class and that in accordance with the suggestion made by the President of the class that this directory would be kept up-to-date by supplements that would be sent to the Seniors every five years, third, that it would contain the Commencement Week program, and fourth, that it would contain several blank sheets at the end of the book that might be utilized for corrections or autographs. The final cost of the booklet would amount to fifty cents.

Senior Class Dance Mentioned
The committee that was appointed to arrange a dance or a series of dances for the class reported that it was having trouble in fixing any date because of the way the semester would be broken up by the Junior Prom. However, the date of May twelfth seemed most acceptable and was therefore suggested by the committee. This suggestion was adopted by the class. This will probably be the only dance that will be held by the class and therefore no efforts are to be spared to make it the success that it should be. The committee is trying to secure the Mason and Dixon Seven for the occasion.
President Overdorf then made known the personnel of the Invitation Committee and the Class D. J. Committee. On the Invitation Committee, he appointed S. Y. Boggs, Chairman, R. E. George, A. P. Parent, N. P. Ludwig, F. T. Barnum said: "The American people like to be humbugged." Barnum's first show was a humbug. He fooled the people and got their money by a trick. Some folks took it as a huge joke and complimented young Barnum on his shrewdness. That kind of shrewdness won't go today. People usually want to be shown in other words they are from Missouri. It may seem strange to say but I have prescribed glasses for quite a number from Missouri so they could see when shown.

LEHIGH PRESIDENT RECEIVED
LUNTY CHEERS IN ARMORY
Eleven years ago at this time, when the Lehigh University men went down to defeat by the score of five to two, over two thousand enthusiastic students crowded into the Armory to see the meet and incidentally had the privilege of giving a long lusty cheer for Dr. Dinker, the President of the Bethlehem institution who was visiting Dr. Sparks at that time.

Which incense pleases you most?
Sandalwood? Wistaria? Violet? Rose? Pine?
HOSTESSES of the Western World have awakened to what the little hostesses of the East have known so long—that there is no more subtle charm than that which comes from fragrant wisps of incense.
But while some like the rich oriental fullness of Sandalwood, other hostesses are partial to the sweetness of Wistaria or to the flowery delicacy of the Rose or Violet; and still others prefer the balmy fragrance of the Pine.
