

PENN STATE NINE WINS DOUBLE-HEADER AT PITT

Panther Team Offers Little Resistance to Bezdekian Forces in First Two Games of Series

The Nittany batsmen came through in all three games of their annual Pittsburgh trip last week-end by defeating the Pitt Panther in a double-header on Saturday afternoon and winning from the Carnegie Tech Skikes by a 1 to 0 score after two and a half innings in the rain on Thursday afternoon.

GRADUATION PLANS FULL OF VARIETY

Annual Phi Kappa Phi Initiation and Business Meeting Scheduled for June Twelfth

Closing the present college year, the June Commencement program which starts on June ninth with class reunions, Freshman class stunts and the annual commencement production of the Penn State Players, promises to exceed those of previous years in the number and variety of entertainments, dinners and social gatherings, filling every minute with some form of activity.

During the Graduation week, State College will be the center of many visitors and parents of the graduating Seniors. House parties which form the most important social functions of the period will entertain many guests over the week-end and aid in filling the time in the absence of other events of interest to the visitors.

"POMANDER WALK" WILL BE BANNER PRODUCTION

Players' Commencement Offering Promises to be Climax of Many Triumphs

"Pomander Walk" which will be the Commencement offering of The Penn State Players will be presented in the Auditorium June ninth. This performance is under the personal direction of Mr. Arthur C. Cloetingh, and he is sparing nothing in making this play the banner production of the year.

DICKINSON SEMINARY TIES FROSH NETMEN

Yearling Racquet Welders Meet Altoona High School at Altoona on Memorial Day

Penn State's first yearling tennis team played its first game with an outside institution last Saturday, when it tied with Dickinson Seminary, 2-3. The next game will be with Altoona High School on Memorial Day.

Interclass Contests Progressing In the interclass tournaments the Juniors have beaten the Seniors, the Frosh and Juniors tied; Seniors beat the Sophomores, the Freshman team played the Seniors May twenty-ninth; the Sophomores are scheduled to meet the Juniors on Memorial Day at ten o'clock in the morning; and the Frosh-Soph tennis scrap, will occur at four-thirty on Wednesday, the thirty-first.

FARMERS EXPRESS DESIRE FOR MORE RESEARCH MONEY

Quality Has Been Excellent, But Lack of Funds Has Restricted a Necessary Wide Scope

MEETING ATTENDED BY OVER ONE HUNDRED MEN

Conference Endorses Future Development of the College and Principle of Special Tax

The first conference on Agricultural Research ever held at Penn State, ended last Friday evening, when the representatives of the various agricultural industries from all over Pennsylvania departed, after turning in a set of resolutions to the Dean of the School of Agriculture and authorizing a permanent committee to formulate a number of recommendations to be given to the Board of Trustees.

Farmers Demand Research Penn State has become well and favorably known to the farmers of the state through the results of her excellent research and through her efficient and thoroughly organized extension service, but, although the quality of the research has been all that could be desired, the quantity has been deplorably low on account of lack of funds.

CALIFORNIA WINS INTERCOLLEGIATES

Penn State Runners Finish in Seventh Place With Eleven Points to their Credit

SHIELDS TAKES FIRST IN MILE AND THIRD IN HALF

The University of California, competing against thirty colleges and universities in the Harvard Stadium last Saturday afternoon, carried off first honors in the forty-sixth annual track and field championship games of the American Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletics by scoring a total of 40 1-2 points. This was the second triumph of the coast athletes in as many years. Penn State runners finished in seventh place with eleven points to their credit, eight of which were won by Larry Shields, middle distance star and intercollegiate mile champion.

AG SCHOOL GETS CHAPTER OF GAMMA SIGMA DELTA

Recognition for high scholarship in the School of Agriculture will be instituted this week with the organization of a Penn State chapter of the honorary agricultural society of Gamma Sigma Delta. The object of the society is to encourage high standards of scholarship in all branches of agricultural science, and high degree of excellence in the practice of agricultural pursuits.

SENIORS! FINAL CLASS MEETING

Every Senior will want to sing, "Hail, hail the gang's all here." This is the last time for the class mates to say, Bon Voyage, in Yo Old Bull Pen, Wednesday evening, 6:45 sharp. Seniors will "put" just once more when they will finish and finish strong.

TWO MORE PAPERS THIS YEAR

In accordance with custom recently taken by the COLLEGIAN Board, there will be two more issues of the college paper this scholastic year. Friday, June second and Wednesday, June seventh have been set as the dates for these issues. The last number will be an extra large one containing cuts of prominent Seniors and athletes about the college.

THESPIAN PRODUCTION DISPLAYS REAL TALENT

"The Fair Co-Ed" Presents Good Cast for Coming Commencement Performance

"The Fair Co-Ed," which is to be the Thespian's Commencement presentation is fast rounding into a finished production. Under the professional coaching of Albert Lang, New York City, the play enjoys an absence of the customary car marks of the usual amateur production.

DR. WARFIELD SPEAKS ON THE QUEST OF LIFE

"Human life is the greatest work of the Creator," said Dr. E. D. Warfield at the beginning of his sermon at Sunday morning chapel service. This human life consists of numerous quests of the human heart—quests for knowledge, friendship, fortune and immortality.

FRESHMAN CLASS WINS IN ANNUAL TUG-OF-WAR

Sophomores Take First Pull But Lose in Second and Third Heats of Class Scrap

At one-thirty o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Old Beaver Field the Freshmen showed their superiority over the Sophomores in the annual tug-of-war. The Freshmen now have the privilege of choosing their own class colors.

FINAL R. O. T. C. REVIEW WILL BE HELD JUNE 1

The final review and military exercises of the College R. O. T. C. regiment will take place on Holmes Field Thursday morning, June first, at ten-fifteen o'clock.

ROLL OF PARENTS' ASSOCIATION HERE IS GROWING DAILY

Many Fathers and Mothers of Students Writing for More Information of Organization

INTERESTED IN FUTURE GROWTH OF PENN STATE

Students Who Have Not Yet Told Parents of Body Are Urged To Write Now

Penn State pops from all over the Commonwealth are joining the organization which bears their name—the Association of Parents of Penn State—and it promises to develop into the fastest growing auxiliary body connected with the Penn State College. Each day's mail brings to the office of M. S. McDowell, Secretary-treasurer, application blanks, filled in and with dollar bills attached.

LION NETMEN TIE BUCKNELL TEAM

Both Singles and Doubles Result in Tied Scores—McVaugh and Laws Make Good Showing

ALLEGHENY COLLEGE TO SEND VETERAN PLAYERS

Penn State's tennis team tied with the Bucknellians last Saturday in the first home game, showing a gratifying improvement that promises well for the contest with Allegheny College here on Memorial Day. Both the singles and the doubles matches resulted in ties.

ALLEGHENY COLLEGE TO SEND VETERAN PLAYERS

The Blue and White tennis men have been working hard since their return from the eastern trip, determined to make up for the defeats suffered then, and the fact that they tied Bucknell, one of their strongest opponents, is undeniably evidence that hard work coupled with "Dutch" Hermann's coaching have brought results.

ALLEGHENY HERE TUESDAY

Allegheny College will meet Penn State on the Armory courts on Memorial Day, at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon. Although the Meadville Institution sends a veteran aggregation of court artists to Penn State, the team being the same one that tied with Carnegie Tech last year for the Tri-State Tennis Championship, the Nittany Lion has bright prospects for a victory over the western Pennsylvanians.

MANY GROUPS WILL MARCH IN MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Procession Will Be Divided Into Four Divisions and Will Move Promptly At Ten O'clock Today

STICKMEN DEFEAT SWARTHMORE, 3-2

Football Men Aid Materially in Strengthening the Blue and White Line-up

HARRY WILSON STARS ON PENN STATE TEAM

Scoring all of their points by an unusual rally in the second half, the Penn State stickmen defeated the Swarthmore College lacrosse team in the clash on New Beaver Field last Saturday afternoon by a total of 3 goals to 2. The addition of the football men to the line-up did much to strengthen the Nittany team as evidenced by the superior work displayed in this week-end's game as compared with former games this year.

JUNIOR ORATORS LAUDED BY ORVIS

George L. Ely Takes First Place, While Miss Florence E. King Wins Honorable Mention

George Louis Ely, of Jenneite, Pennsylvania, won the prize for the Semi-Centennial Contest of the Junior Oratorical Contest, held in the Auditorium last Friday evening. The subject of his speech was "The Road to National Honor."

FRESHMEN CLEAN-UP IN WEEK-END GAMES

Strong Wyoming Seminary and Kiski Teams Defeated in Close Battles

Coach McCollum's yearling batsmen completed their schedule last week-end when they defeated Wyoming Seminary on Friday afternoon by a 2 to 1 score and won from the Kiski nine with a 5 to 4 tally in an exciting game on Saturday. The Freshman nine has made an enviable record for this year's schedule by winning five of the six games played. It only remains for them to top their season by defeating the Sophomore class diamond men in the annual scrap which will probably be played next Friday.

FRATERNITY NINES ARE NEARING SEMI-FINALS

With the semi-finals of the interfraternity baseball league now but a week away, the various fraternity nines are showing considerable competition for the championship title. The Delta Upsilon fraternity has emerged victor from the second division league and it now remains for the other three divisions to bring the tournament down to the finale.

STICKMEN DEFEAT SWARTHMORE, 3-2

Penn State students and the borough of State College combine today in the celebration of Memorial Day by forming a parade composed of the entire College regiment under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Conroy, the American Legion and the several local organizations of the town. In connection with the parade at ten o'clock in the morning, the bronze memorial tablet made to honor the Penn State men who died in the world war will be dedicated on the front campus.

The parade, starting at ten o'clock from its position on College avenue will be marshaled by Captain G. N. Randolph who will have for his aides, Fred Harvey, F. G. Hoenstein, F. D. Foster and L. D. Fry. The first division of the procession will be in charge of Fred Harvey and will be composed of the Boalsburg National Guard Cavalry Troop, G. A. R. and other Civil War veterans and veterans of the Spanish American War. Following this group will come the Medal men, who were decorated for bravery and also the men who were wounded in the late World War. The American Legion under the command of Captain C. B. Steel, a graduate of Penn State and Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering will follow. Members of the Rehabilitation Club will next appear in line with other ex-service men of the town and college.

FRESHMEN CLEAN-UP IN WEEK-END GAMES

Strong Wyoming Seminary and Kiski Teams Defeated in Close Battles

Coach McCollum's yearling batsmen completed their schedule last week-end when they defeated Wyoming Seminary on Friday afternoon by a 2 to 1 score and won from the Kiski nine with a 5 to 4 tally in an exciting game on Saturday. The Freshman nine has made an enviable record for this year's schedule by winning five of the six games played. It only remains for them to top their season by defeating the Sophomore class diamond men in the annual scrap which will probably be played next Friday.

FRATERNITY NINES ARE NEARING SEMI-FINALS

With the semi-finals of the interfraternity baseball league now but a week away, the various fraternity nines are showing considerable competition for the championship title. The Delta Upsilon fraternity has emerged victor from the second division league and it now remains for the other three divisions to bring the tournament down to the finale.

PENN STATE RECEIVES MENTION FOR BEAUX ARTS

The Societas des Architecturae Diplomas par le Government Francis have made a recent investigation of the schools teaching Architecture in America, and have made awards to those institutions which have most distinguished themselves according to the Beaux Arts principles. The department at the Pennsylvania State College received mention among a list of ten colleges which have shown results in student work of the first class, during the past year.