SOPHS PLAN FOR STUNT NIGHT AT FIRST MEETING

Annual Get-Together Smoker of Second Year Men Held in Armory Saturday Night

The first Sophomore class meeting of the college year was held last night in the Armory with a good representation of second year men present. The first gathering took the form of a busfirst gathering took the torm of a bus-iness meeting and social get-to-gether. Speeches by "Prexy" Thomas and "Bez" featured the meeting, while a large sup-ply of smokes helped the men to get better acquainted. Plans were made known for the first observance of Stunt. The principle feature of the busine ng was the report of the commitceein charge for the arrangements and conduct of Stunt Night. A plan was submitted for dividing the town into ection to work in conjunction with the captain in charge in getting the reshmen to Holmes Field where the elebration is to be held. The arrangements evolved by the committee for the conduct of Stunt Night to-gether with the line of stunts worked out by the committee as the Freshmen's part in the celebration met with the unan mous approval of the class.

DR. THOMAS SPEAKS ON "FAITH" AT SUNDAY CHAPEL

cuin was the main theme of the sermon delivered by President Thomas at both the morning and evening chap-el services in the Auditorium. He used as his text, "Devils also fear and trem-ble". There are two kinds ble". There are two kinds of faith that which makes a man fear and trem ble yet not love, and that which cause ident expressed as his wish that all the men and women of Penn State would come to know and to live with; that faith which would cause them to be real followers of Christ.

During each of the services, R. L. Watts, Dean of the School of Agriculture, made an appeal to the students to help in raising ten thousand dollars ($10 000.00) in order to forward the work of Daddy Groff in far off China. He aske each one to give something every week so that they may feel as if they had a personal part in the great work that Mr. Groff is carrying on.

At the morning service Miss Dorothy Brandon rendered a very beautiful vo-cal selection and at the evening ser-vice E. H. Rale '26, furnished a selecion upon the violin.

FOURTEEN-MONTHS-OLD-BABY SUBSCRIBES TO PENN STATE

A fourteen-months-old-baby, in whose name a contribution of one dollar to ward the new students' hospital at the Pennsylvania State College was re-ceived today, has been recorded as the youngest subscriber to the two-milliondollar emergency building fund cam-paign of the college. IN CHEERING PRACTICE Penn State's newest rooters received their initial workout in cheering practice under the supervision of Varsity Cheer Leader, J. C. Dolan, and his stam of assistants in Old Chapel Saturday afternoon. After explaining State traditions of courtesy and sportamenents to the new men, Dolan attempted the college yell with the beginners, with the usual results.

As the meeting progressed the Frosh got into the spirit of the occasion and gave several creditable examples of their newly acquired vocal prowess be fore the session broke up. "Red" Moore, Varsity Song Leader, was on hand to lead the Freshmen in the singing and in their first rendering of the Alma
