The Navy men sat in a solid body and formed an effective cheering section. Penn State cheering was at its best. Among the Penn State supporters were Governor Sproul and Senator Peffer. Following the game, the band boarded a special street car and played the Penn State College March as it traveled through the streets to the great astonishment of the Washingtonians. Many Penn State students stopped at Harrisburg, Saturday, to see two Penn State products, Bill Wood and Glenn Killinger, under their respective protections from Gettysburg and Dickinson in that annual grid contest.

PRE-MED STUDENTS TO TAKE INSPECTION TRIP

The Junior pre-medical men have decided to make their annual trip to Philadelphia during the week of November eighth. They will leave State College on Wednesday, November fifteenth and will probably return on Sunday, November nineteenth. About eighteen men are planning to make the trip to the various medical schools in the city of Philadelphia. The University of Pennsylvania, Jefferson and Hahnemann are the three schools to which the men have been invited and which they will visit and inspect. The main purpose of the trip is to give the men a chance to compare the various medical schools so that they will be able to decide more readily to which one they would like to go to finish their studies.

LIONS DOWNED BY NAVY IN HARD BATTLE

(Continued from first page) To gain through left guard, Wilson then hit left tackle for two yards. Forward pass, Palm to McCoy for two yards. Palm punted to Navy's fullback. Barchet fumbled and Wilson recovered for Penn State on Navy's twenty-five yard mark. Palm hit right guard for one yard. Wilson tore off two yards through center. Forward pass grounded. Palm attempted to drop kick but failed by a few feet. Barchet went through center for three yards. Conroy follows through left guard for another three yard gain. Navy was then penalized fifteen yards for holding. Barchet was thrown for a four yard loss when he hit right guard. Palm received a low-bounding kick at midfield and returned to the forty-five yard line. Wilson ripped through center for one yard. Forward pass grounded. Pass from Palm to Wilson netted fifteen yards, making the second first-down for Penn State. Kratz failed to gain and Wilson slipped through center for four yards. Kratz then received forward pass from Palm for a two yard gain. Palm then attempted another drop-kick at the goal and failed again. With the ball on Navy's twenty yard mark, Barchet attempted an end run and lost one yard. A first down penalty was imposed on Penn State. Navy failed to gain on a line attack, and McCoy missed connections on a forward pass. Cullen kicked to the Nittany thirty-five yard line and Palm returned the ball to the mildly forty yard line. First quarter ends, Penn State 0, Navy 0.

Second Quarter After going through center for three yards, Palm fumbled and Navy recovered on its thirty-two yard line. Conroy gained three yards and Barchet ran outside on a no-gain run. Barchet then annexed three, Cullen punted. Ball touched Navy man and Lafferty covered it for Penn State. Ball was taken back as both eleven were penalized. Navy kicked and Palm ran out of bounds on Penn State's three yard line. Palm returns kick to forty-one yard line. Forward pass grounded by Wilson. McKeef tripped through center for five yards, and Conroy made it a first down on a seven yard pass to Parr. After making one more yard, Navy was penalized five yards for off-sides. McKeef dropped back to punt but threw a pass for another first down. Barchet failed to gain on Penn State's fourteen yard line and a double pass failed. Barchet again failed through center. McKeef then threw a pass to Cullen on fourth down from the twenty yard line for the initial tally of the game. Barchet kicked a placement goal. Palm received the kickoff on the twenty-five yard line and returned eleven yards. Kratz squeezed through left tackle for two yards. Lafferty ripped through center for six yards and then made it a first down. Kratz followed with a yard gain. Pass failed. Palm kicked out of bounds on the Nittany twenty-one yard mark, after Hufford had failed to catch a long pass. Stoltz substituted for Taylor. McMahon threw Navy back for one yard loss. Barchet failed to gain. After a five yard penalty, Navy again failed to gain. Cullen kicked to midfield. Palm returned punt ten yards and then threw a pass to McCoy for seven yards. Lafferty failed to gain through right guard. Wilson made first down. Palm punted to Palm on thirty yards for Parr. McKeef intercepted pass on Penn State's twenty-five yard line. Navy was again penalized. Conroy gained one yard. Pass to Gregory failed. Frank caught fifteen yard pass from Palm making first down. Wilson scooted around left end for one yard and then got six yards on a forward pass. Wilson failed to gain on next two downs losing ball to Navy who substituted Hughes for Conroy at this time. As final whistle blew McKeef started on a thirteen yard run. Line-up is as follows:

SCOUTS GAZERS WERE AT THE GAME
Those included "Pop" Warner of Pitt., and Tom Davies, former Pitt star, now coaching at Penn. Members of the Penn varsity who battle the Lions a week from Saturday were present for beneficial instruction. "Pop" Warner is reported to have said, "The more I see other teams play the better I like my own". Glenn Killinger, Joe Lightner, George Smith, and "Hinky" Haines, the stellar Penn State backfield of past years, sat on the players' bench. Walter Camp and Cullen Cain were also guests of the Penn State team. Friday afternoon grid practice was called off for Georgetown and other institutions near Washington in order that the players might see the football classic of the season. It was Washington's first big football game and the attendance showed that the Capital residents appreciated the feat. The Blue and White musicians played a concert in the morning at the New Willard Hotel. Penn State footers were the first to appear at the game. Led by the band they marched around the field before the game. At this point, the entire Naval Academy marched on the field led by its band. The Middies made a fine showing as they marched across the field. Nevertheless, we pitied them. We had to take military drill once ourselves. It was warm, but overcoats were the order of the day for the midshipmen and they all wore them even though they were at the mercy of the sun throughout the game. The Penn State band paraded between halves, playing "The Red, White and Blue" in honor of the future admirals. The Nittany Lion and the Navy Goat were both present. The Lion was also backed up by a ball dog sporting the Blue and White colors. Between halves, the Lion crossed the field to visit the Goat. The Goat backed up for a five yard loss. It is reported that the Middies are now on the market for a new goat that will display more courage than their present mascot.

Interclass Fall Track Events won by Frosch (Continued from first page) Shipley '26 whose cross country work has been excellent from the start, maintained his reputation in the two-mile grid last Saturday, when he crossed the line nine seconds ahead of his closest follower. Offield '26, whose time was 10:44. Petrakis '25 finished third, in 10:56. Tompkins '26 ran the quarter mile in 55 seconds, and he was followed by Kratz '25, Pollock '25 and Kille '26, respectively. Shipley again proved a winner in the mile, which he did in 4:57. Arm '26 and Barclay '26, who placed second and third respectively, have been giving Shipley a close race in cross country workouts. Purvis '25 was a very close fourth to finish the mile. Trout '26 threw the javelin 143 feet, while Roberts '26, his closest rival came within 17.5 feet of his record, and Doran '26 hurled a distance of 117.5 feet. Martz '25 defeated Trout by two-tenths of a foot in the shot put, flinging the shot 36.8 feet. Bernstein '26 threw the shot 33:7 feet.

MACHINERY DEALERS TO PLEDGE TO CAMPAIGN (Continued from first page) State College is 20 x 30 feet. It cost $200. It would barely answer for a private garage. "One of the college dormitory units will cost $100,000. As one of those deeply interested in the college and in the good of our machinery and implement line, I have agreed to present this opportunity to each and every Pennsylvania dealer. If each shares my vision of the ultimate good that will come from participation in such a fund and gives even moderately towards it, we can raise a $100,000 quota without a strain in any quarter.

CORNELL HARRIERS WIN SYRACUSE TRACK MEET (Continued from first page) entire distance. His time was twenty-five minutes and fifteen seconds. The first ten men to finish were: Dykeman, Carnegie Tech; Higgins, Columbia; Case, Syracuse; Gordon, Cornell; Moore, Columbia; Rodriguez, Syracuse; Smith, Cornell; Morrison, Cornell; Skeats, Columbia; and Williams, Cornell. The first six teams to finish were: Cornell, 42 points; Columbia, 52; Syracuse, 55; Penn State, 91; Carnegie Tech, 107; Colgate, 169.

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL CONSIDER POINT SYSTEM
(Continued from first page.) activities were better distributed among the student body. Should the advantage of the experience of college activity be given to a greater number of students, or should these activities be put entirely under the charge of those few whom the students think capable and expect them to apply their energies, first to the positions we elect them to fulfill, and second, to their studies?

The Point System has been proposed to better apportion these activities among students of Penn State, and should they decide that such action would better conditions here, it then remains to work out a system that will satisfy our demands. The following is but a beginning of the proposed system and may require considerable modification:

The Point System
The aim of the point system is to prevent a student from becoming so involved in college activities that they would be detrimental to his studies, and to enable more men to share the advantages of experience in college activities. Each office and activity is assigned a definite number of points, and no man is allowed to carry more than a total of twenty (20) points, excepting that, a man other than president or manager of an athletic club may compete on the club, even when participation gives him more than twenty (20) points.

The Point System Committee consisting of (seniors) three seniors, one of whom shall be chairman; three juniors, two sophomores and one freshman.

The Point System Committee shall keep the records of the students' activities in their respective classes and be present at each class meeting with same. Chairman—15; seniors—10; juniors—9; sophomores—8; and freshmen—5.

Whatever may be accomplished toward the establishment of such a system at Penn State will depend entirely upon the sanction of the student body. It is a plan which will involve a process of evolution, for every detail must be considered, and these will only be brought to the foreground in the course of time.

Whether or not a proposal for introducing a Point System at Penn State will be made, is a matter of further consideration to be taken up in the near future by the Student Council and Student Advisory Board.
