MANY CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIPTIONS BEING DOUBLED

Philadelphia Smoker Last Friday Resulted in Alumni Pledges For Over $7,000

CANVASSERS NEEDED TO CARRY ON DRIVE Call Will Be Made for Student Campaign Volunteers to Aid Work During Christmas

It is getting to be quite "the thing" now-a-days to double subscriptions to the emergency building fund.

He had no more than read of the account of a freshman doubling his pledge, as published in the COLLEGIAN of last Friday...

"And I am going to work for the campaign at home during the Christmas vacation," this student said as he handed over his pledge to Professor A. H. Eapenashade...

A number of other students have intimated that they plan to increase their pledges, and the "fever" has struck the alumni in certain parts of the state.

The smoker for alumni at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia on Friday night before the game with Penn State acted as a great stimulus to the campaign in Philadelphia.

The entire campaign situation has been thoroughly sized up by Professor Eapenashade since his appointment to the position of vice-director by President Thomas.

An example of just how badly a large force of workers is needed is shown in the following incident. Major Wetzly, who is one of the faculty workers...
