GLEE CLUB ASSOCIATION CHOOSES PRIZE SONG

Monde's sohn's "Hunter's Farewell" is Selected for Contest to be Held March Third

New York, January South Hunter's New York, Jamery See The Hunter's Farewell' by Met delessom which has been chosen us the Prize Song in the Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest, to be held at Carnegie Hall on March third. 1923, processes sufferent difficulties to tex the best trained club in the country. When Glee Clubs representing Harvard, Val. Dem. State. Princeton. Cornell. When Glee Clubs representing Harvard, Yile, Penn State, Princeton, Cornell, Dirtue-ath, Co'ambia, New York Uni-versity, University of Pennsylvania. Wesleyar, and Andret meet in this context, the rivalry will be very keen and the musicianship should be of the highest order.

In last year's contest, Harvard worthe first leg on the new University Glee Clab Cup with Yale a close second, but in the next concert Harvard must look to her laurels, for the other colleges are out for blood. The excitement of a gridiron buttle will be in evidence on the night of March third when Mme. Sembrich, H. E. Krchhild and Dr. Wol.

the night of March third when Mme. Sembrich, H. E. Krehblel, and Dr. Wal-ter Damrosch name the winner.

The Glee Club contests were organ-lzed in 1914 by Albert F. Pickernell, President of the Intercollegiate Musi-cal Corporation; four clubs entering the first contest that year. In 1923, nine years later, eleven clubs will com-pete in New York City, eight in Chica-ra and other in San Francisco. In go, and eight in San Francisco. In addition to this, a competition is now being arranged in Atlanta, Georgia, for 1924.

NITTANY TOSSERS DEFEAT SYRACUSE

Another goal was made by Gerhardt and a successful foul by Reed put the score up to 8-4 before Syracuse again red, when a field goal and a foul by Gallivan made the count 8 to 7.
With the score 9 to 7 after a foul, Shair with a sharp struggle under the basket dropped the ball through. Penn State was then held scoreless while Syracuse added two fouls and a field goal to their score, bringing the count figain nearly even, 11 to 10. Gerhardt next scored from under the basket, which, with three fouls by Johnny Reed, ended the half 16 to 10 against

Second Half

The second period of the game op-ened with the Orange representatives fighting desperately to gain the lead which they were so close to during the first half. Neither side was able to score a point for several minutes after the opening of the half, both goals bescore a point for several minutes after the opening of the half, both goals be-ing endangered several times with at-tempted baskets. The first tally was made by Gallivan, the Syracuse foul shooter, who dropped a one-pointer through the ring. From that time on, the Nittany players continued to in-crease their score by the accurate foul charging of Road and a few field goals. Reed placed three fouls in the basket in succession, which, followed by a double-decker by Gerhardt, made the score 21 to 11 for the Lions.

Again Reed was responsible for enlarging the Penn State count by throw-ing four more fouls before the Syracuse tossers were able to find the basket, making the score 25 to 11. Noakes, who was substituted for Noakes, who was substituted fasce, was the first man to score the visitors in this half. His two for and a field goal by Trout, substituted for Gallivan, was the last scoring by Reed, another by Koehler and the final two pointer by Reed from the side
