

DR. HAM LECTURES ON THEORY OF RELATIVITY

Physics Professor Examines Einstein Hypothesis in Light of Experimental Evidence

Dr. W. R. Ham, of the Physics Department gave an interesting lecture on the subject "The Experiments For and Against the Variation of Mass with Velocity".

Dr. Ham's lecture was based on the proof for and against the Einstein theory which is that the energy of electrons approaches the velocity of light.

PENNA. HAS STUDENT ENROLLMENT OF 34,491

According to a bulletin recently issued by the Federal Bureau of Education, the number of university, college and professional students residing in Pennsylvania in 1920-1921 was 34,491.

Of this total number of college students in Pennsylvania, 27,412 attend Pennsylvania colleges, and 7,079 go to universities and colleges outside the state.

The number of students attending the universities and colleges of Pennsylvania is 36,262. In this respect also Pennsylvania is only exceeded by New York, whose colleges have 55,130 students in attendance.

PHOTOS OF FIRST PREXY PRESENTED TO LIBRARY

The Library has received from former President Sparks for the College History Collection, a framed photograph of President and Mrs. Pugh, the first President of the college.

Dr. Martin has turned over to the Library the letters and papers of William P. Wilson, a lawyer of Bellefonte during the Civil War and following years.

UNIT EIGHT WINS CROWN IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Defeating Unit Twenty-six by a score of 31 to 10, Unit Eight won the finals and the championship of the Inter-unit basketball league.

With the victory of Unit Eight, one of the most active and successful seasons of sports conducted by the Penn State Club was brought to an end.

1924 LA VIE CONTAINS MANY NEW FEATURES

Section of Penn State Year Book To Be Devoted to Campaign - New Pictures Obtained

A noteworthy feature in the 1924 La Vie will be a collection of new photographs. Not only will they be new but there will also be some changes in designs and also special features.

The Campus section will include sixteen new campus pictures with sixteen pencil sketches. The photographs of all heads of the various departments, deans, and athletic coaches will be new.

A special feature under the heads of the departments will be a picture of not only the deans but also the heads of the departments. In addition to the usual athletic photographs there will be a silhouette picture of the captains of the football, baseball, track, wrestling, and basketball teams.

HORT. DEPT. FACES BIG PROBLEM WITH ORCHARDS

The Department of Horticulture is facing a real problem in connection with the development of its orchards. There are at present about sixty acres of apples in bearing, including the new student practice orchard.

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES JUNE EXAMINATIONS

All Reports of Final Conflicts Must Be Made to Registrar Before March 28

By way of experiment the examination schedule for the end of this semester is being published much earlier than usual, in order that both instructors and students may have timely information concerning their examinations.

1. All recitations, lectures, and practice for Seniors and second year two-year Agricultural students will close on Saturday, May 26, at noon.

2. All recitations, lectures, and practice for the second semester will close on Tuesday, May 29, at 5:30 p. m.

3. Final examinations for Seniors and second year two-year Agricultural students will be held in the subjects and at the times and places indicated below, on Monday, May 28 to Saturday, June 2, 1923.

4. Final examinations for all students except Seniors and second year two-year Agricultural students will be held on Thursday, May 31 to Friday, June 1, 1923.

5. Any student having two examinations scheduled at the same time is required to report the fact in person at the Registrar's office on a special form there provided.

6. Cards allowing special examination in case of conflicts as described in the previous paragraph, will be mailed from the Registrar's office sometime in May.

7. During the week beginning Monday, May 21, instructors giving examinations indicated below as being by appointment will name the date for their examinations, taking into account the student's examination schedule together with any special examinations arranged on account of conflicts.

8. Seniors taking subjects in which the final examination is scheduled later than Saturday, June 2, must make arrangements for an earlier examination with the Head of the Department concerned.

9. Examinations in graduate subjects are by appointment.
