It Has Been A For The Prexy

Penn State Collegian.

VOL. XVIII., No 49

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1923

PRICE FIVE CENTS

DR. THOMAS APPEARS BEFORE LEGISLATURE

"Prexy" Presents Needs of Penn State in Stirring Appeal Before House Appropriations Committee

ALL STUDENTS MAY

ENTER TRACK MEET

gin After Lacrosse Game To-morrow, on New Beaver

of "Nate" Carimell has annot open track and field meet for ow, to begin immediately after see game on New Beaver fy student is eligible to enter ow's competition, and the con will be divided into two lessengers of the migratory or one-tender suitings, are intelligible to warsity berths, will vie

PENN RELAYS NEXT ON

nd Amateur Contest Will Be

SCHEDULE FOR VARSITY

CONGRATULATIONS, "PREXY"

FOR FATHER'S DAY

ncil Committee Will Outline Program For After-

EXHIBITIONS BEING HELD

tis Publishing Company and Henry Stormfield

ACTIVITY PROMISED MUSIC RECITALS

noon and Evening

COMMITTEE WILL HOLD

IN FINE ARTS MUSEUM

s Drawings from the Cur-

Two important exhibitions are be-

Many Matters of Importance Taken Up at a Meeting of Student Council

INTER-UNIT BASEBALL CARD STARTS TUESDAY

Four Diamonds Assigned to Uni

Games-Will Be Staged on

Inter-unit buseball competition vegin on Tuesday A preliming ound of practice games will be play efore the tournament in order till teams may start equally in impetitive contest

Tuesdays and Thursdays outlines of point systems used in various institutions in all sections of the American Legion Quito a few new numbers will be presented, unique among which is a march called 'The Penn State Milliary Band, which was written by its leader, Mr. Thompson 'The band will be assisted by 'W. J. O'Donnel '28, tenor, and betters of information have been received by the committee 'This data is to be used for reference in the formula of a system for Penn State. As soon as other more important matters have received due attention from the Council, President Lane told Council that he would appoint a committee of dark up a system, to be presented to dark up a system, to be presented to the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a committee of the council that he would appoint a c

PROVE SUCCESS

Talent Marks Music Club Concer -Glee Club and Orchestra Are Unsurpassed

MADAME SAMAROFF WINS PLAUDITS OF AUDIENCE

HIGH SCHOOL HARRIERS HERE ON MAY TWELFTH

wenty-five Teams Have Accepted Competition Keen

BASKETBALL ELECTIONS
Captain
K D Loeffler 24
Manager

1

LACROSSE AND BASEBALL TEAMS READY FOR PENN

Stickmen Open Season With Red and Blue Tomorrow On New Beaver While Batsmen Clash With Quakers at Franklin Field

PENN STATE JOINS NEW GOLF LEAGUE

Eight Eastern Universities Com pose New League—Penn State

To Enter Intercollegiates

FIRST GOLF TOURNEY TO BEGIN NEXT MONTH

Penn State has been admitted to the Intercollegiate Golf League. Word was recently received by the Athlette Association from James C. Ward of Williams College, president of the newly organized association, that Penn State's request for admission had been newly organized and significant and beer granted. The status of golf at Penr State is now assured for membership in the league will bring the Nittang golfers into competition with some or the strongest links teams in the East At a meeting in New York this win ter, the Intercollegiate Golf League was organized by representatives from eight eastern colleges and universities.

CAPS AND GOWNS
All seniors who did not attend
he class meeting last evening and who falled to order caps and sowns should see one of the nembers of the cap and gown mmediately The

JUNIOR PROM NOTICE

JUNIOR PROM NOTICE
Ticket sale for the Junior Prom will be held at Co-op on Monday evening for the juniors and on Wednesday evening for the seniors. Price will be four foliars for seniors and five doilars for juniors. The drawing of booths for the Prom will be held tonight in the Bull Pen All fraternities and clubs are requested to be represented

THESPIANS SET FOR SPRING PRODUCTION

wenty-sixth Annual Musical Comedy. "His Little Widows." Scheduled for Tomorrow Night

With the strains of an eighteen pie

TROPICAL SETTINGS TO FEATURE JUNIOR PROM

Booth Decorations-Affair

vitations to the affair have been of a to Governor Pinchot, H. Walton also hell, president of the board of trust- Liand other prominent men Con- to the general belief, there will an uton orchestra as the committee best one of the committee best of the committee best one of the

For Father's Day

AG STUDENTS PLAN FOR ANNUAL SPRING BANQUET

Ticket Sale Limited to Two Hunred and Forty-Prominent Speakers Listed

REVEREND KISTLER TO ADDRESS NEXT CHAPEL

PENN STATE BAND PLAYS IN BELLEFONTE TONIGHT