SOPHOMORE IS WINNER OF GOLF PRELIMINARIES

R. H. Stevenson Turns in Score of Seventy-eight—First Round of Matches Began Yesterday

Playing a brand of golf such as is rarely seen in amateur tournaments, R. H. Stevenson finished the eighteenth hole as medalist in the qualifying rounds for the Penn State golf championship on Saturday afternoon.

The first round of the final matches to determine the college championship started yesterday and are to continue for the remainder of the week. Play is due to run over a period of two weeks before the contest is completed.

COLLEGE CHAPEL CHOIRS ARE ORGANIZED FOR YEAR

At the first regular rehearsal Thursday evening two chapel choirs were organized, choir A has fifty members and will furnish music at the Sunday morning chapel exercises.

Membership in choir A is completed but there are still a number of vacancies in choir B which sings at the exercises Sunday evening.

NOTICE FOR MEN TAKING TENNIS

All men who have signed up for tennis as their fall sport are requested to see "Chief" Myers in the Army any day this week between nine-thirty and four o'clock.

YEARLING GRIDDERS ARE SHIFTED DAILY

Host of Promising Players Makes Selection of Permanent Eleven Difficult

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR FAST AND HEAVY TEAM

Without any exception Coach Hermann has the hardest time selecting a freshman football team this year that he has ever had in all his experience of football coaching.

McPhee shows promise as an end. He is rangy and fast and weighs about one hundred twenty-five pounds. He handles forward passes well and is a sure tackler.

GLEE CLUB PRELIMINARY TRIALS ARE COMPLETED

Between Twenty-five and Thirty New Men Are Chosen—All Show Good Ability

With the first trials completed, the members of the Glee Club are going ahead with their practice every Wednesday evening, continuing their attention on new music, and with aspirations for one thing—the winning of the Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest, which is held in the early part of March.

Between twenty-five and thirty men were chosen last week, and they will practice every Wednesday evening along with the regular members of the Club. For the new men, this practice will continue for approximately a month, when quartet trials will be held, and men will be picked to make up the Club. It is a certainty that there will be a fight for every position.

COACH CARTMELL MUST DEVELOP TEAM AROUND FOUR OF LAST YEAR'S VARSITY HARRIERS

Hampered by the crowded condition of the Armory, the Penn State cross country men have not yet started serious work. At a meeting held last Monday night, about fifty men turned out, and from those candidates Coach Cartmell is preparing to build up a cross country team.

PLAYERS COMPLETE EXTENSIVE TRYOUTS

Cast Chosen for Series of Three One Act Plays That Will Be Given at U. Club

"CAST" IS SELECTED AS YEAR'S ROAD PRODUCTION

Extensive tryouts have been held recently by the Penn State Players for the first of their productions and, since last Wednesday, more than one hundred students have registered their names with the Players as prospective actors.

The first Player program, which will be presented at the University Club on Friday evening, October nineteenth, will consist of three one-act plays. The first of the productions is "The Confession" by Percival Wilde.

MANDOLIN CLUB STANDS READY FOR BIG SEASON

The Penn State Mandolin Club, with its new members already selected, is rapidly preparing for a most successful season '23-24.

The news of his mother-in-law's death came to Coach Hugo Bezdek on Saturday afternoon when the first and second teams were engaged in a full length game. The coach left New Beaver field at four o'clock and, driving to Altoona, caught a fast train for Chicago at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Bezdek has been in Chicago with her mother who had been sick for several weeks. The funeral services will probably be held today and in that case Mr. and Mrs. Bezdek are expected to return at once. They will probably arrive in State College tomorrow afternoon.

Practices Continue

During the absence of its coach the football team is continuing its daily grind in preparation for the opening game with Lebanon Valley on Saturday. Before leaving, "Doc" called the first and second teams together and outlined to them a program of work for the beginning of the week.

Glenn Killinger is carrying on as coach in Bezdek's absence. On Monday the men were drilled as usual in fundamentals and today scrimmage will probably be resumed and continued until just before the Lebanon Valley game.

Usual Game on Saturday

All four teams abandoned the practice field on Saturday afternoon for the springy turf of the New Beaver football field. The field is in splendid condition and with the new west bleachers rapidly nearing completion affords a fine setting for the gridiron game.

The first and second teams were the first to take the field and with "Bez" and Killinger officiating, began a regular game. The second team put up a stiff battle and the "regulars" had a tough battle pushing across three touchdowns in the first half.

It was during this half that "Bez" received the news of his mother-in-law's death. While the third and fourth teams occupied the field between halves, "Bez" gathered the first and second teams together on the bottom rows of the new bleachers and there outlined to them the work that he expected of them during his absence.

The second half began with the second team forcing the attack but in a
