NITTANY GRID TEAM TO MEET LEBANON VALLEY

(Continued from first page) Hockfield. Hockfield will call the signals this year in place of Homan who will be remembered for his forty-five yard run for a touchdown in last year's game. Nittany is a powerful line plunger. Starr is a freshman and has been showing lots of speed. Wueschinski is the only man in the backfield who played against Penn State last year. As substitute backs the visitors will have Homan, Krause, Porter, Smith and Brenner.

The Linemen

Captain Luuster, the heaviest man on the team, is playing his fourth year of college football and is expected to make a strong showing at goal. The other guard will probably be Upligrope. The end men will be Helmin, a veteran from last year, and Clark. Whistler and Deans will be the tackles and Musser will pass the ball at center. Among the substitute linemen are several veterans in Froek, Herb, Glingrich and Shavely and two new men, Fox and Hettow.

Nittany Coaches Drive Men

During the beginning of the week Killinger bore the brunt of the coaching burden in Bezelick's absence. As usual separate line and backfield practice was held on Monday but on Tuesday scrimmaging was resumed.

"Bez" got back to State College on Wednesday in time to put the men through about two hours of stiff scrimmage. The second team was lined up against the varsity eleven but was unable to check the "regulars" and the third team was then shoved in the breach. The first team kept possession of the ball throughout the scrimmage.

Up and down the field the first team carried the ball in a waltz, unending possession. The continual cry of the coaches was "steer in hard" and back after back carried the ball through the line only to find "Bez" or "Killy" close on his heels calling on him "to run hard." Try as it would the first team could not produce that extra punch to satisfy the coach's demand although a good piece of work on the part of some back on Homan's approval.

About six-thirty darkness descended upon the field, bringing with it the side-line lights, the ghost ball and a swarm of just-season mosquitos to harass the few spectators on the sidelines. Still Bezelick drove his weary men and it was not until eleven o'clock that he ordered them back to the Truck House.

New Stands Completed

New Denver field will have an entirely different appearance to the majority of the students tomorrow. The new west stands are almost completed and will be used tomorrow. Freshmen and sophomores will occupy the old east stand and the upperclassmen will use the new structure.

A new press box has been perched upon the new stands. From across the field it looks long enough to house the news paper correspondents, the college publicity men and the entire COLLEGIAN staff, and still leave room for a good slice of the student body.

"Y" PLANS ANNUAL DRIVE TO RAISE YEAR'S FUNDS

Every student on the campus will be visited and each student will be asked to contribute five dollars, which, when computed to the amount that the average student spends a year for his own amusement and pleasure, seems an insignificant sum. In return the student contributing will receive a membership card in the Penn State Y. M. C. A. which will be honored all over the country.

In order to show exactly where the money goes the following budget has been prepared:

Table with budget items and amounts: Handbook $150.00, 3300 given out, balance paid by advertising, Freshman Work 200.00, 1927 class has its own organization, Extension Work 600.00, Four rural Sunday Schools maintained, fifty trips out of town, County Boys' Conference held, new office, 414 Old Main, outfitted, Social Committee 350.00, Freshman reception, socials in Hut and homes, freshman parties, Speakers and Campaigns 650.00, The best in the country, Campus Service 75.00, Flowers for sick, etc. 200.00, Periodicals 400.00, Forty newspapers and magazines, active loan library, New Moving Picture Machine 350.00, Movies on Saturday Night 350.00, Postage 185.00, Printing 150.00, Transportation 250.00, Business Secretary 1620.00, Student Volunteer Convention, Indianapolis 600.00, Penn State is permitted to send twenty delegates to this gathering, Mission Work in South 1500.00, Supporting J. H. McGraw, one of the most prominent rural Y. M. C. A. mission workers in the South, $7180.00, Other items, such as salary and office supplies are provided by gifts of alumni and the Trustees.

BENEFIT HOP WILL TAKE PLACE TONIGHT

will not step on the stop bed) until time to assume the scenes of co-eds who will be there, getting back in their dorms at the zero hour of twelve-thirty. The sale of tickets for the affair during the past few days gives every indication that the crowd will be big enough for a jolly good time yet not so big as to hamper couples on the roomy pavilion floor.

Fraternity Groups

It was learned yesterday that a number of fraternities are making up party groups to join in the occasion and at the same time boost the Campaign fund, while getting a real evening of enjoyment. Others are planning to do the same thing, arranging to take freshmen along to initiate them into the Penn State social life. A special tribunal grants all freshmen permission to attend this dance just as though it were a house party occasion.

The chaperones for the dance were announced yesterday as follows: Mrs. E. A. Holbrook, Miss L. V. T. Simmons, Miss Edith P. Chase and Dean of Women, Miss Kay.

There is also an indication that a number of faculty members and their wives will attend the dance, which promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the fall season. Many are buying tickets as a boost to the campaign even with no intention of attending the dance.

Through a special arrangement the orchestra has agreed to give its services for a reduced price due to the fact that the affair is to be a Campaign benefit. The Evergreens management is also making a reduction from its usual admission charge, and those attending will be charged only two dollars per couple. Ample parking space for cars will be provided at the pavilion grounds, and with the auto busses in service, no one will have difficulty in getting to and from the dance at any time desirable.

The Columbus players have all of the Penn State college stars at their fingertips and will offer them as specials and on request. They will be especially obliging for this occasion and will see to it that the affair has everything to be desired by collegiate gathering.

Kill two birds with one stone—have a good time and give the Penn State Campaign a worth while boost. The only expense connected with the affair is the engagement of the orchestra, and after it is paid every cent goes to the campaign fund.

SOPHOMORE CO-EDS ARE CONFRONTED BY PROBLEM

Shall she take customs and shall she be required to wear a green ribbon?

These are but two of the many questions confronting the girls sophomore customs committee over the status of Betty, the seven months' old baby at Practice House. Betty was late in entering, arriving last Friday in fact, and has not yet put in a plea for special consideration. Her full name is Betty Gilehist and she comes from Philadelphia. It may be she is enjoying her unique position and the puzzling of the sophomores. At all events, Betty refuses to express herself.

Although it has not been decided whether Betty shall appear with a green ribbon, it has been decided that she shall have no dates for five weeks, and that she shall not walk upon the grass.

OPEN TENNIS TOURNAMENT IS GIVEN GOOD START

Although data on the freshman lineup is necessarily scarce, Conch Ham is counting on some good material. T. M. Roland, formerly captain of the Gettysburg Academy team, is mentioned as a possible varsity prospect. Owing to the present condition of the Army courts, G. P. Walker '24, who is manager of the team and is in charge of the tournaments, suggests that matches be played on the courts at New Beaver Field. These courts have improved considerably since last spring, the six courts which could not be used at that time being in reasonably good shape.

SOCCER MEN KEEP UP HARD PRACTICE

The Navy team, which was beaten last year by the Nittany combination by the score of 3 to 2, is reported to be considerably stronger this year and determination of settling the old score is expected. The Penn State last year 9 to 0, will also prove strong opposition to the Blue and White players.

COMBINED ENGINEERING DRIVE TO CONTINUE

The Mechanicals, although the total number of members is smaller, hold second place in the percentage column with 24 per cent. Lack of reports from the Civils, Architects, Electro-Chemists, and Miners hold their indicators at the bottom of the chart which is posted in Engineering "A".

A number of faculty men in the various departments have paid their dues for the year. No drive is being staged among the faculty although student solicitors are eager to sign them up at the same rate that is being charged for student members.

BAND MUSIC TO BE FIRST "Y" FEATURE

Stripes Forever", rising above time or place, has become the march song of a nation, apparently for all time.

This season Sousa again finds his inspiration in current history. In Washington, in June, during the national convention of Nobles of the Mysatic Shrine, President Harding made a plea for fraternity as one of the driving forces in modern American life. And
