IMPORTANT MEETING IS HELD BY JUNIOR CLASS

 Artors '25 and E Hawkins '25 who were injured in a recent accident. Several petitions for membership in the class of 1925 were presented and accepted. J W Fitzpatrick reported that a suitable gift had been presented to Gordon Amend as an appreciation for his services in coaching the Sophomore play last June.

ORDERS FOR NAVY GAME TICKETS TAKEN TODAY

 seat, and cannot be credited on a box seat. Each student will be limited to eight seats, and the money for all seats over the one to which his A. A. coupon entitles him must accompany the coupon in the envelope. Holders of faculty tickets and holders of season tickets must go through exactly the same procedure as the students.

The order blank envelope, filled out as above, must be returned to the Treasurer's Office on Monday and Tuesday, October eighth and ninth during college hours. Five o'clock Tuesday is the last that these blanks will be received.

Tickets Obtained Thursday

On Thursday, October eleventh, during the college hours and from seven until nine in the evening, students, faculty, and season ticket holders will obtain their tickets at the Treasurer's Office on presentation of their identification card and their A. A. coupon book. Students are urged to call for their tickets during the day, however, to avoid rushing and crowding in the evening. A mail order sale has been conducted among the alumni, and though the stands will probably be filled, the students and alumni will all be cared for.

LAST THREE WEEKS SEES RISE IN CAMPAIGN FUND

 Penn State campaign is noteworthy. (1) With the exception of Mount Holyoke, Penn State has had the largest number of non-alumni givers; (2) with the exception of the University of Wyoming, the average of these non-alumni gifts in the Penn State campaign is lower than that of any other college.

Over 100 Campaigns

It should be pointed out that the 64 institutions specially studied do not by any means include all the colleges that have conducted or are conducting campaigns. For example, among Pennsylvania colleges no mention is made of Bucknell, Dickinson, Washington and Jefferson, or St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia. Perhaps the total number of college drives is well beyond the 100 mark.

Second Team Looks Good

Returning to the subject of Bezdek and his cub, the good news can be broadcast that the second team has been showing lots of fight and has been giving the regulars a hard battle in daily practice.

The line-up has been changed during the last week. The wingmen have been shifted and Faulkner is now holding down left end and Anderson, right end. The left side of the line is completed by McCann at tackle and Ellwood at guard. Onyx is still holding down right tackle and House has been showing up well at guard. Murray is snapping the ball at center.

BACKFIELD SHIFTED FOR GRID CLASH TOMORROW

 of the southern college, it will be a marked contrast to the light Lebanon Valley team of last week and should give the Nittany Lions a good early season battle.

The backfield is unchanged with the exception of Charley Light who has taken Helbig's place at left halfback. Patton at quarterback, Wentz at fullback and Buckley at right half complete the backfield.

Your Need For A Topcoat

Weeks on end, you'll need the protection of a topcoat without the weight and warmth of a heavy winter overcoat.

Rich, colorful fabrics, the newest style, a graceful drape straight from the shoulders—these features make any one of the new Hickey-Freeman Topcoats a delight to own.

For this Fall—and next Spring.
