NITTANY GRIDMEN DEFEAT CAROLINA

Palm flashed lots of stuff in Saturday's encounter. In addition to his usual sensational open field running, the Nittany quarterback displayed a newly acquired line plunging ability. On several occasions Mike hit the opposing line in the same way that Joe Lightner did two years ago. He was responsible for the longest run of the game when he ran back a punt from the fifty yard line to the twenty-three yard mark in the fourth quarter.

The new men in the backfield, Johnson and Helbig, did not carry the ball often. The statistics show that Helbig gained twenty-seven yards in eight attempts, two of them being for five yards. Johnson pulled off one long run when he carried the ball from the twenty yard line for a touchdown in the first quarter.

Sprague Good On Defense Sprague, the visiting quarterback, was the only man on the Carolina team that could make any headway against the Nittany defense. His longest run was in the third quarter when he rushed off twenty yards returning a punt. He also made a ten and a twelve yard gain from scrimmage.

Sprague and Lassiter were important in the visitor's defense. Both men backed up the line well. On the line Captain Boston, the two ends, Elms and Wallace, and McAdoo, left guard, showed up well.

Wilson Runs Eighty Yards North Carolina, defending the north goal, kicked off and Penn State got the ball on the twenty yard line when the kick rolled behind the goal. On the very first play Wilson carried the ball around left end and with a splendid outst of speed and aided by timely interference, sped the length of the field and planted the ball behind the goal line. Johnston, the right halfback of the visiting eleven made a desperate tackle on the twenty yard mark but Harry just eluded him. The play was not allowed, both teams being off-side, and the ball was brought back.

Penn State then advanced the ball to Carolina's three yard mark with Palm and Wilson carrying the ball for the longest gains. A fifteen yard penalty came on the last down and Gray kicked to the visitor's twenty-three yard line. North Carolina opened up with a forward pass that netted seven yards and then kicked.

The Nittany eleven began an impressive march from the twenty-five yard line that carried the ball for a touchdown. Palm and Wilson made most of the gains until the twenty yard line was passed. Johnson then went around left end and speeding past the secondary defense reached the one yard line before he was tackled. His impetus was enough, however, to carry him across for the touchdown. Schuster kicked the goal.

Visitors Held The second quarter opened with the visitors in possession of the ball on their own thirty yard line. A line plunge by Sprague netted three yards and Lassiter kicked to Penn State's forty-two yard line. A penalty spoiled the Nittany offense, however, and Gray punted. The kick was high and short, and gave North Carolina the ball on her forty-two yard line.

Two plays advanced the ball to the forty-seven yard line and then Sprague smashed through for eight yards and it first down. At this point the Nittany defense braced and the next play netted the visitors but a yard. Frank then broke through and threw Lassiter for a four yard loss. A forward pass failed and Elms punted. The ball remained near the fifty yard line for the rest of the half.

Lions Score Again

The Nittany eleven came back with a rush at the beginning of the third quarter that carried the ball across for a touchdown. Wilson received the kick-off on the twenty-eight yard line and advanced seven yards before he was stopped. Palm then carried the ball to the forty-eight yard mark. The Nittany quarterback did some clever sidestepping and wrenched himself from two tacklers before Boston finally nailed him.

From there the ball was carried to the twenty-one yard line on ten plays. On third down Wilson pulled off a splendid run and just missed scoring when he was tackled on the two yard line. Palm then dived through center for the remaining two yards and Schuster kicked the goal.

Penn State tallied again in the same quarter when a ten yard run by Helbig put the ball on the thirty-six yard line. Four tries by Palm and Wilson netted but five yards. Mike then dropped back to the forty-yard line and sent a beautiful drop kick between the goal posts for the final tally.

Before the end of the third quarter Penn State was deprived of a splendid chance to score by penalties. With the ball on her thirty-two yard line North Carolina attempted a short forward over the line of scrimmage and Gray intercepted. Penn State was off-side, however, and the visitors moved up five yards on the play. During the entire fourth quarter the ball was in North Carolina's territory, but the punts of the visitors kept Penn State from reaching a position to score. Palm started things when he received a Carolina punt on the forty-five yard line and carried it over the middle of the field to the thirty-eight yard mark. Wilson then went through for eleven yards and six yards on two tries. A penalty made the fourth down with five yards to go and Palm dropped back to kick. His attempt went wide.

Another long run of twenty-seven yards by Palm in returning a punt placed Penn State in a position to score. The Southern line held, however, and three attempts netted but three yards. Palm attempted another drop kick but it was low.

THRILLED?

YOU bet he is! He's making a tremendous hit! She has just told him that he has hair like Rudy Valentino's. But he doesn't know whether to pretend that it came that way or confess that he did it with his little bottle of Vaseline Hair Tonic. He owes a lot of his manly beauty to that little "Vaseline" Hair Tonic. It promotes the growth of the hair and keeps the scalp in the healthiest condition.
