DR. THOMAS BACK FROM WESTERN COLLEGE TOUR

Attended Meeting of Land Grant Colleges in Chicago—Western Schools Well-Supported

Following the annual meeting of the Land Grant College Association in Chicago on November fourteenth to sixteenth, President Thomas and R. H. Smith, college comptroller, visited Iowa State College, the University of Wisconsin and the University of Minnesota. Mr. Smith also stopped at Northwestern and Purdue Universities.

Alumni Homecoming was being celebrated at Iowa State at the time of their visit to that institution, and President Thomas made an address at the convocation. He made three other talks there, two of them to groups of Penn State students.

"All of these institutions showed the effect of greater state financial support than Penn State has received," President Thomas said upon his return last Thursday. "But not one of them could give us new ideas with respect to business administration. In comparison, our system here is unsurpassed, I believe, and we can feel ourselves fortunate indeed."

"The spirit and loyalty of the students at Penn State is far above what we saw in these other and larger institutions. It made us feel good to get back to Penn State."

One of the most striking comparisons, according to President Thomas, was the lack of farm land immediately adjacent to the agricultural school at each of the western institutions, this being especially true at Iowa State. In this respect, it is said that Penn State has the best located farm land and experimental plots of any state college or university in the country.

An item of more than ordinary interest that developed at the Land Grant College meeting was the laying of plans for the support of the proposed Farnell Bill that is to be introduced in the next Congress. This bill would provide Federal funds for the support of agricultural experiment station work in every state. A gradually increasing scale is proposed until a certain fixed annual appropriation of $85,000 is reached in seven years' time. The fund would start at $15,000 a year.

FRATERNITIES MEET IN NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Delegates from Fifty-three National College Fraternities Discuss Problems

Delegates from fifty-three National college fraternities, representing more than 100,000 undergraduates, met in a spirit of harmony at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York, November thirtieth and December first, to confer with their elder brothers, business and professional men of high public standing, on the common problems facing organizations that have become more than mere "rah-rah" societies.

Formation of new National fraternities to extend to more college men the privilege of brotherhood, greater cooperation among existing fraternities, chapter health and sanitation and discussion of the popular idea that a fraternity is still "the good, old Swiss" institution of George Fitch's day, was discussed at the two-day conference.

In addition to the delegates, representatives of more than fifty fraternities with but one chapter and of thirty-two interfraternity councils were present for inspiration and information.

Educators, among them several college Presidents, took part in the discussion of fraternity problems.

As one college fraternity man to others, President Coolidge sent his greetings to the Greek letter delegates. It had been planned for President Coolidge to be present to deliver an address.

"It would be a great pleasure to me to be present," he wrote "but to my regret, conditions of public business render an absence from Washington at this time impossible. It will be a favor to me if you will extend my greetings and the assurance of my hope that at some future time, I will be able to meet some similar convention."

The President, a member of Phi Gamma Delta at Amherst College, is soon to be initiated at the White House into the Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity. The honorary delegation is expected to include Elihu Root, Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, Gov. Channing H. Cox, of Massachusetts and Chief Justice Marshall of the Ohio Supreme Court.

NITTANY TEAM LOSES FINAL GAME TO PITT

Wilson, Johnston and Light could make but a scant total of ten yards.

Pitt Scores Twice
Two touchdowns were credited to Pitt during the second quarter. The first score was the result of two successful forward passes. With the ball in Pitt's possession on the Nittany thirty-five yard line, Flanagan passed to Bohren for a twenty-two yard gain. Flanagan and Gustafson then made a first down by scrimmage. Another pass to Bohren enabled him to cross the goal line and the extra point made the score 7 to 3.

On the kick-off, Johnston returned the ball to the thirty-seven yard line. Falling to gain, Light was forced to punt Pitt, after one play, fumbled, the ball being recovered by Penn State on the twenty-seven yard line. Johnston attempted a forward pass but was forced to throw it in a hurry when the Pitt forwards came tearing in. The alert Bohren, racing in, caught the pass and ran sixty-five yards with Wilson in hot pursuit for the second touchdown, making the score 14 to 3.

During the last quarter Pitt made several substitutions, Bohren and Flanagan leaving the field with the entire stands applauding them. House and Ellwood were sent in to the Nittany line. With the last quarter nearly over, the Nittany Lions began a steady drive down the field, with Wilson, Laferdy, Heibig and Light carrying the ball. Wentz replaced Heibig and began to plough, through the opposition but the game ended with the Blue and White unable to cross the goal line.

PURITY

TASTE and FLAVOR are all very well in ice cream but unless the cream is a pure product it will not be wholesome. And unwholesome food means poor health. Try our cream.

When America Was Young

The brave old days live gloriously again on the screen in this utterly charming, delightfully thrilling story of America's youth. We can be proud of those handsome gentlemen and fair ladies who laid the foundations of this great nation. Their story, their loves, their trials, have been told in one of the most remarkable motion pictures of photoplay history. Marion Davies by her quaint and whimsical performance—even greater than her work in "When Knighthood Was in Flower"—will win your heart completely.
