

Penn State Collegian

Fresh-Soph Bus Scrap Tonight!

The Prof's Delight—Xmas. Belows!

VOL. XIX, No. 27

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1923

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SHERWOOD EDDY TO LECTURE AT PENN STATE IN FEBRUARY

Noted Lecturer Has Just Completed Trip Around Globe—To Speak on "World Situation"

HAS VITAL MESSAGE FOR ALL NITTANY STUDENTS

Meetings Will Be Held on Eleventh and Nineteenth—To Speak at Chapel

Sherwood Eddy, world traveler, orator, and speaker will be at Penn State from the seventeenth to the nineteenth of February...

Abroad Many Years

Sherwood Eddy, now a world figure in Christian leadership, was graduated from Yale in 1897...

Mr. Eddy has been making a study of political, social and industrial problems in Europe...

Will Speak in Chapel

Sherwood Eddy will be the guest speaker here on Sunday, February seventeenth...

Four years ago, Mr. Eddy, while at State College, and he returned to the State two years later...

Student Council To Hold Smoker

A sheet and musical meeting of the Student Council was held last Tuesday evening...

The question of a Student Council smoker first came up after a short discussion it was decided to hold the affair at the Omega Epsilon House...

The freshman campaign committee next reported. The plans of the committee were discussed and the Council voted to open the drive on January seventh...

The meeting adjourned at seven-thirty.

STUDENTS TO BE FINED FOR CUTS

The five dollar fine will be in effect as to unexcused absences immediately before or after the Christmas vacation begins on Friday at five o'clock in the afternoon...

DRAMATISTS PLAN SERIES OF PLAYS

To Give Three One-act Productions at University Club on January Twelfth

"THREE WISE MEN—GOING WEST" IS FIRST ON BILL

Proceeding a bill of three one-act plays, the work of J. Gordon Amend, the Penn State Players will make their first appearance after the Christmas holidays at the University Club on the night of January twelfth...

The first on the bill is "Three Wise Men—Going West," a Christmas play that has had its initial run this week at the Ypsilanti Players' Theatre in Ypsilanti, Michigan...

The second play on the program is "The Susceptible Mr. Parsons," a comedy which received its first performance in several of the little theatres last season...

As the first and the feature play on the bill is "The Secret of the Nile" which was first played this fall in San Francisco...

PENN STATE CLUB OF NEW JERSEY TO MEET

Plan To Stimulate Greater Interest in Athletics Among New Jersey High Schools

The Penn State Club of Northern New Jersey, which was recently organized with a membership of more than two hundred, will hold its first informal dinner at the Tremont Hotel in Newark New Jersey on Tuesday, December eighteenth...

This club, a new organization, is made up of all New Jersey men who ever attended Penn State, even though they did not graduate...

The club has no dues and asks for no contributions, but it is financed after a manner decided upon by the members present at each meeting...

The club has no dues and asks for no contributions, but it is financed after a manner decided upon by the members present at each meeting...

CHRISTMAS DANCES ARE SET BY COUNTY CLUBS

Eleven Distinct Groups Will Hold Social Functions in Their Respective Communities

With the approach of the Christmas season, the various county clubs at Penn State have arranged for their annual vacation-period dances to be held in their respective communities...

On December twenty-sixth there will be two county club dances, one of these being the Lehigh-Northampton affair which will be held in Mealey's Auditorium in Allentown...

Another trio of dances will follow on Friday evening when the Butler County Club holds its annual informal dance in the Butler Masonic Hall...

JURIST LECTURES ON BOY CRIMINALS

Judge Ben Lindsey Relates Experiences among Children in Juvenile Court

Approaching his subject from a deep insight of human nature, Judge B. B. Lindsey delivered an interesting lecture on the subject of "Why Boys Lie" to a large audience last evening...

FAIR TREATMENT FOR CHILDREN IS HIS PLEA

Beginning twenty-five years ago with his experience with juvenile criminals and up to the present time Judge Lindsey has never betrayed the confidence of a criminal...

Judge Lindsey in his work tried to get behind the reason for the thousands of criminal children that come into his court every year...

FRATERNITY BASKETBALL PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Teams To Clash on Wednesday and Friday Nights—Season Opens in January

Initial plans for the coming inter-fraternity basketball season were made at a meeting of the managers of the different fraternity teams on December eighth...

Present arrangements call for two game nights a week and the use of two floors each of these nights...

The season will begin the second week in January this year and will continue for about twelve weeks...

As in past seasons, the teams will each be composed of eight men, thus permitting each fraternity to hand in a list of eight sophomores and freshmen to Myers...

NITTANY FOOTBALL CARD COMPLETED FOR NEXT SEASON

Games with Marietta College and Carnegie Tech Will Be Only Changes for 1924

SIX ENCOUNTERS WILL BE STAGED AT HOME

Georgia Tech Will Be Played at Atlanta—Syracuse Booked for Alumni Day

Sept. 21—Lebanon Valley, Home Oct. 1—North Carolina, Home Oct. 11—Gettysburg, Home Oct. 18—Georgia Tech, Home Oct. 25—Syracuse, Home Nov. 1—Navy, Home Nov. 8—Carnegie Tech, Home Nov. 15—Penn, Home Nov. 22—Marietta, Home Nov. 27—Altoona, Home

The football schedule for the season of 1924 offers a strong array of games for the Nittany grid team...

But two changes have been made in the line-up of regular opponents, Carnegie Tech and Marietta College...

The Pitt machine returns to the schedule after an absence of one year and will be the Pennsylvania Day attraction in 1924...

Marietta College has been scheduled for the Saturday before the Thanksgiving Day encounter with the University of Pittsburgh...

The Nittany Lion will tackle the Golden Tornado on its home field next season on October eighteenth...

Alumni-Homecoming Day has been set back a week for the 1924 season and will be a further improvement in the football schedule...

The Pitt and Penn trips occupy their usual places on the schedule. In addition the three preliminary games with Lebanon Valley, North Carolina and Gettysburg remain unchanged...

MANDOLIN CLUB DECIDES TO CONDUCT CONCERTS

The Mandolin Club is rapidly rounding into shape for the winter and spring concert season...

Several trips are being planned. On Sunday, January thirteenth, the organization will play at the Rockview Penitentiary...

Several innovations are under way. A quartet and a sextette are being formed within the club and they will provide added features to the program of the concerts...

PENN STATE DANCE AT PHILADELPHIA

Penn State Christmas Dance will be held at the Rittenhouse Hotel, Philadelphia, Thursday evening, December the twenty-seventh...

FRENCH COMEDY PLAY PLANNED BY STUDENTS

Le Salon de Mariane Has Selected Lighter Variety of Production for January Showing

Le Salon de Mariane, formerly known to Penn State students as Le Cercle Français, will complete its activities for the semester with the production of "L'Anglais Tel Qu'on le Parle"...

"L'Anglais Tel Qu'on le Parle" is the work of Tristan, sometimes called the Bernard Shaw of France, and has been played repeatedly in the Comedie Francaise and other French playhouses during past years...

The play depicts the trials and misfortunes of a young Frenchman and an English girl who have eloped to Paris in order to escape the ire of the girl's father...

What are generally considered three of the strongest teams in the East are included in the Penn State boxing program, according to the schedule announced this week by P. R. Marshall...

LOCAL MEN STAGE FOOTBALL BANQUET

Varsity Squad Is Entertained by Business Men at Center Hills Country Club

INTERESTING TALKS ON FOOTBALL ARE FEATURE

The business men of State College entertained twenty-three members of the varsity football squad and their coaches and managers at a banquet held on Tuesday evening...

Following the banquet a number of interesting speeches were delivered. G. T. Graham, chairman for the occasion, read letters from Dr. Thomas and Dr. Sparks...

Ex-burgess J. L. Holmes was the first speaker of the evening and regaled the boys with old-time stories and experiences at Penn State when football was in its infancy at this institution...

Coach Hugo Bezdek gave an interesting talk on football and the Penn State team of this past season. "Bez" told the crowd that while he was at Penn State primarily to coach the football team, there were greater things that he hoped to accomplish...

Coach Hugo Bezdek gave an interesting talk on football and the Penn State team of this past season. "Bez" told the crowd that while he was at Penn State primarily to coach the football team, there were greater things that he hoped to accomplish...

The Mandolin Club is rapidly rounding into shape for the winter and spring concert season. New music of a semi-classical nature has been secured and the club is practicing once a week in preparation for the Sunday afternoon concerts which will begin after the Christmas holidays...

Several innovations are under way. A quartet and a sextette are being formed within the club and they will provide added features to the program of the concerts...

The Mandolin Club now has an enrollment of about twenty-five members. After the holidays it is expected that the membership will be increased in anticipation of the concert work that is being planned...

SOCCER ELECTIONS

B. W. Norton '25 First Assistant Managers H. K. Budd '25 T. T. McWilliams '25 E. P. Sweeten '25 Captain To be announced later

JUNIOR GIRLS TO HOLD DANCE

The girls of the junior class will give a benefit dance on January second at the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. The proceeds of this dance will be turned over to the Endowment Fund...

NITTANY MITTMEN FACE HARD MEETS

Meets with Army, Navy and Penn Are Features of Completed Boxing Schedule

PENN STATE TO STAGE INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

What are generally considered three of the strongest teams in the East are included in the Penn State boxing program, according to the schedule announced this week by P. R. Marshall...

Feb. 9—Franklin and Marshall Home Feb. 16—Army Away Feb. 23—Boston Univ. Home March 1—Penn Away March 8—Navy Away March 15—V. M. I. Home March 21-22—Intercollegiate Home

Despite the strong opponents which the team will face, Coach Houck hopes to pick from the seventy-five candidates a team which can uphold Penn State's reputation in the squared circle and states that the material is promising...

Practice for the past week has consisted almost entirely in light preliminary bouts.

With a primary aim to unify the action of the various clubs and of increasing the Ag student body, representatives of the clubs and societies on Ag Hill met Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of forming a permanent Ag governing board or council...

AG GOVERNING BOARD IS NEW STUDENT PROJECT

Clubs and Societies To Be Supervised by One Body—Aim to Unify All Action

With a primary aim to unify the action of the various clubs and of increasing the Ag student body, representatives of the clubs and societies on Ag Hill met Tuesday afternoon...

Committees for the framing of a constitution and other details were appointed and the new organization will commence to function shortly after the holidays...

This action resulted from the Ag booster meeting of last week when "Brex" Thomas urged the Ag students to increase their student body, even double it, if possible...

The next speaker on the program was Graduate Manager of Athletics Neil M. Fleming who outlined the football schedule for next year and pointed out the features of the new curd, Andy Lytle, Penn State's oldest freshman...

After pronouncing the affair a huge success and giving the State College business men a vote of thanks, the squad was taken back to the Truck House. It is planned by the Business Men's organization to make this banquet an annual affair.

Representatives from the various organizations were present at the meeting: D. H. Club, Sirlin Club, Clover Club, Lehigh Society, Crabapple Club, Two Year Ags and Penn State Farmer, The Grange, The Topian Club...

On account of the remarkable skill displayed by all of the candidates for the contest, Mr. Gates, coach of the debating team, strongly urges them to try out for the team...

The meeting adjourned at seven-thirty.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR BUILDING DRIVE AMONG FRESHMEN

D. V. Bauder Announces Campaign Committee—Women Canvasers Are Named

MASS MEETING PLANNED AS STARTER FOR DRIVE

Board Will Show Progress of Ten Teams—Committees To Push Campaign

All preliminary arrangements for staging the new students' participation in the college emergency building fund have been completed.

D. V. Bauder, president of the men's student government, who is chairman of the committee handling the men students' share in the drive that will be staged during the week of January 7, last night announced the personnel of the upperclass organization that will carry the project through...

Miss Alvena Burdick, president of the women's student government association, who will have charge of the committee canvassing the new women students, also announced the group of upperclass girls who will endeavor to secure 100 per cent participation on the part of the 119 women students who were not in Penn State when the 100 per cent record was established by the co-eds last year.

The men's division will get under way with a mass meeting for all new students to be held in the Auditorium on Monday evening, January seventh. The project will be outlined in detail at that time...

There are 1022 new men students listed in the college directory, and 119 new women students, making a total of 1141 and a goal of at least $10,000 is being anticipated by the committees.

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

D. D. HENRY IS WINNER OF SPEAKING CONTEST

Gets Fifty Dollar Prize in Sophomore Competition—A. C. Loosley Is Next

D. D. Henry and A. C. Loosley were awarded the prizes of fifty and twenty-five dollars respectively as the most talented speakers of the second year class in the annual Sophomore Extension Speaking Contest held last Wednesday evening in Old Chapel...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...

Those who entered the finals were G. W. Bauder, who gave a well-planned and interesting talk on the subject, "Is a Permanent Peace Possible"; P. L. Stump, who spoke convincingly on the topic of "Ford and Musette Schools"; D. D. Henry, the winner, speaking feelingly and with perfect poise with "Woodrow Wilson—the Idealist" as his theme...