The election of the officers of the Engineering Society will be held in the first floor hallways of Engineering 'C' on Friday morning of this week. The election will be by ballot and will choose the four officers who will lead the Engineering Society until the beginning of the spring semester, 1925.

An Episcopal Church service will be held at the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity tonight at seven-thirty o'clock.

BOXERS TO MEET ARMY TOMORROW

last Saturday when it was met and was sent to defeat in the College boxing. The score was 4-2, with one bout decided a draw. The West Point men were victorious in only the 115-pound and 175-pound divisions, which were represented by Bowman and Smith.

The Fighting Team
The 115-pound position will be filled by J. T. McClintock '25, who fought in last Saturday's contest. He has been working hard the past week and should be in the pink of condition when he meets his opponent tomorrow. A. R. Gans '25, Williams and J. A. Washington '25 who was training for the 145-pound class but who is now working with the 125-pound section have all shown a lively good form during the past week and Coach Hough will pick the one who is to make the trip until the first minute.

In the 175-pound division J. C. West '25, A. N. Young '24 and O'Donnell '24 have been competing strongly and the coach is undecided as to which one he will take with him to West Point. All three are doing good work and are in full condition.

The choice in the 175-pound section has been between T. C. Zerbe '25, C. Kell '25 and Gilbert, all three of whom are pretty evenly matched. The man who will make the trip tomorrow will be the one who is in the best condition.

Burdner Back in Ring
"Dusty" London has returned on the boxing squad again and will probably be the man who will represent Penn State in the 160-pound class in tomorrow's contest. "Dap" Burdner has also reported back on the squad and he will most likely take the position in the 175-pound section. J. S. Clarke '25 who showed up well in last Saturday's meet will also continue training for a while.

Penn State will again be represented in the 175-pound division by "Fitz" Madara who fought his way to a decision in the meet with the Quaker team last week. "Fitz" is in good condition and will put up a strong battle for the honors in the heavy-weight match tomorrow.

The probable line-up for the Army team is as follows: 175-pound—Bosworth, 125-pound—Duncan, 115-pound—Bosworth, 115-pound—Smith, 115-pound—Tully, 115-pound—Madara, 115-pound—Mack. All of these men are hard fighters so that tomorrow's match will be a closely contested one.

TWELVE GREEK TEAMS REMAIN IN FLOOR RACE

Phi Delta Theta and Phi Epsilon Pi
Keep States Clean—Five Teams Win Wednesday

Although twelve teams still remain in the actual running in the inter-fraternity basketball race, competition has now narrowed down to the point where a single contest may make or break a squad's chances for the championship. Five hotly contested games were played on the Army courts Wednesday evening with Tau Sigma Phi, Alpha Chi Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Epsilon Pi emerging victorious.

In the first game of the evening, Alpha Delta Sigma, last-year cup winners, proved an easy prey for Tau Sigma Phi who won the contest by an 18-9 score. Alpha Chi Epsilon experienced little difficulty in taking over Alpha Delta, 11-1 in the second game of the evening while Phi Kappa Psi was taking the measure of Alpha Gamma Iota, 22-5, in the second game on court two.

Two of the most interesting games on Wednesday's schedule were the Phi Delta Theta-Sigma Chi and the Phi Epsilon Pi-Delta Kappa Sigma. In the Phi Delta Theta-Sigma Chi game, Sigma Chi, who had been leading 14-6, the result of a second half rally, Phi Epsilon Pi, with two victories tucked up, had a hard time succeeding through a 10-6 victory over Delta Kappa Sigma.

In virtue of their victory over the Delta Kappa Sigma, the Phi Eps went into first place in Division D while Sigma Chi and Sigma Psi are tied for second place with two victories each. Phi Kappa Sigma and Kappa Delta Rho are tied for first place in Division A while in Group B, Phi Kappa Alpha and Delta Sigma Rho are the logical contenders. A triple tie has occurred in Division C with Friends Union, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Kappa. However, one of these teams will be forced to drop out of the race tonight when Phi Kappa and Friends Union meet. In Division D, Delta Epsilon is the only team without a defeat while in Division I, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega remain undefeated.

GLEE CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT ON SUNDAY

favorable comment by those who heard it sung by the Club two weeks ago.

To Give Selected Numbers
Selected numbers by the Varsity Quartet will be sung at different times during the program and a feature of the afternoon's program will be an organ and piano duet by Dickey and Miss Grant. Miss Betty Croft '25, who sang so delightfully at the concert in Peltolite last week, will give place to the same selection of numbers next Sunday afternoon and Dickey and Miss Grant '25, is scheduled to play several violin solos.

Among the other numbers to be sung by the Glee Club will be Philip's "Symphony Waltz," the soprano solo of which is sung by Miss Helen Bucher '24 "Lump in the West" by Horatio Parker, the light song to be sung at Carnegie Hall, New York, will also appear on the program. Leighton-Greent's arrangement of the "Sittin' Lion" and the Alma Mater will be the closing numbers on the afternoon's program.

The next Sunday afternoon concert will be presented by the Penn State Orchestra on February twenty-fourth at three-thirty o'clock.

HOUSE FOR RENT—13-room house, with gas for three cars, hot water heat, electric light. Best stand for roomers and boarders. Call 922-R-1. Bell, Bellefonte. '25-5-11.

PENN STATE QUINTET FACES PITT TONIGHT

who are needed on the trip, it looked like a toss-up between either Hood or Ganserich to fill the substitute forward berth. The selection of an additional guard, combined between choosing either Shiner or Neff. Aitch accompanied the squad and will be used at the jumping post if needed.

The Penn State team that will start the contest will comprise Gerhardt and McVicker, forwards, Fister at center and Reed and Captain Loeffler at the guard positions.

Looking Pitt Over

Looking Pitt over it is apparent that the Smoky City aggregation will present a formidable array of former institutions stars on the basketball court tonight.

Levinson, playing his third year on the varsity, is the Panthers' best bet as an all-around floor man and while he may be matched up with either Bohlen or Parsons, it is certain that the forward berths will be well taken care of.

Thompson is another outstanding light of the past Pitt football season. There is no doubt but what he will go into action at the pivot position tonight. "Hoot" will be especially remembered in connection with the famous Dohren-to-Flanagan forward pass play that was used by the Panthers to such a great extent last season.

The Panther Guards
Carr and King, there are the two men who will endeavor to stop Gerhardt and McVicker from scoring "Reds," as Captain Hugh Carr is known on the Pitt campus, held down a guard post on the Penn State freshman team in 1919. He has since proved to be an ideal leader, and is figured as the anchor of the Pitt combination. With the exception of Levinson, Carr is the only member of last year's squad.

King is the biggest surprise and sensation uncovered during Pitt's basketball season. Last year he was termed as a "wild and uncontrollable" player, but under the direction of Coach Carr, he has turned out to be the best shot on the squad.

Parsons, who may be seen at one of the forward or guard berths played for Penn State against the State's basketball team last season. He may get a chance to get into action against the Blue and White machine tonight on his ability as a tosser. Pinkoff and James are the other members of the squad. Little is known of their ability under fire, however.

The Line Up

Penn State	Pitt
Gerhardt	Levinson
McVicker	Bohlen
Fister	Parsons
Reed	Carr, Capt.
Loeffler, Capt.	King

ARCHITECTS BEGIN WORK ON ANNUAL PRODUCTION

phase of the work, while Miss Helen Savard has charge of the costumes.

Three Rehearsals This Week
The cast had three rehearsals with the films memorized by all the characters, on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. Mr. Dickson had charge of these rehearsals, since the director of the play was unable to be present.

Another feature that the committee in charge of the production has provided for is that of special music to be given entirely by student talent. This group of musicians is at work now on the music for the occasion.

If Schicklette '25 is the student manager of the comedy, and is assisted by J. G. Thom '25, C. E. Maule '25, the comedy manager while G. W. Busby '25 will take care of the scenery, P. C. Ruth '25 is arranging the publicity and J. O. Paul '21 is the student electrician.

UNIT BASKETEERS FIGHT FOR DIVISION LEADERSHIP

Second-year Agricultural Team
Gives Unit, 22 Stiff Battle—
Lose by 13-19 Score

In one of the best played games in the inter-unit basketball league this season, Unit 11 moved out Unit 4 by a 25-19 count last Tuesday evening and went into the lead in the first division. Unit 1 had been undefeated before this contest but will have a chance to come back later in the season when the two teams meet again.

Three other interesting games were played on Tuesday evening with Unit 22, 23 and 21 emerging victorious. This second year Agricultural Unit 22 a stiff battle but were forced to take the short end of a 13-19 score. It is a sensational rally in the closing minutes of the game, Unit 23 managed to take the measure of Unit 13, thereby keeping its state clean and retaining the lead in division 1. The schedule for next week's games is as follows:

RIFLE TEAM OPENS SEASON WITH PENN

of the varsity rifle team, is badly handicapped drawing up a tentative schedule. But one match, with the Syracuse freshmen, has been scheduled to date. Although no definite word has been given to the effect it is not at all unlikely that a freshman-sophomore rifle match will be staged this year in addition to the annual inter-collegiate meet.

The first R. O. T. C. meet of the season will be held next week and the Penn State unit will compete against such colleges as Nebraska, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Oregon and Pomona. There are fifteen places on the R. O. T. C. team and as freshmen are eligible for the squad the competition is certain to be keen. The annual Third Corps Area matches will be held in March and Lieutenant Gruber plans to start printing the team for this match within a few weeks. The Penn State team has won this match for two consecutive years and a victory this season will mean permanent possession of the large trophy cup.

In order to win the rifle team letter, a man must compete as a principal in two-thirds of the regularly scheduled matches, a principal being regarded as one whose score counts in the final decision of the match. The schedule for this year is the hardest that has ever been attempted by the Penn State team and calls for two matches a week, with two days allowed for each match. Each contest unit is required to shoot in all four positions.

YEARLING TOSSERS GO ON THREE-GAME TRIP

engagement of the season. Coach Killinger selected the five men who have had the most experience on the floor as a team. Harris and Reed at the forward places, Page at center and O'Dea and McVicker working at the guard posts. Wilson was taken along to cover the jumping post if needed while Taylor and Holmes went with the squad as in extra forward and guard, respectively.

Killinger probably put up a flashy game against the Shinnonghosh youngsters last night for it had three men of last year's team working in their old berths. A team of average weight and height which has been beaten but once this year by the Co. F team of Indiana, included Little and Altman at the forward posts, Hall or Ulman at center and Vukmanic and Garver at the guard positions.

Pitt Tonight
Coming direct from the tussle with the Salisbury team last night, the Pittens will line up against the Blue and White tonight at seven-thirty o'clock in Trees Gymnasium. With the Penn State varsity team scheduled to meet the Panthers five days after the freshman game, the attendance at the evening contest is sure to call out a capacity crowd.

The work of the Blue and White quintet does not end with the Pitt contest, however, for tomorrow night the Panthers meet the Black Hawk team—an aggregation which won the 1921 first-year team down to defeat it, the beginning of the season by the count of 35 to 19.

Braddock boasts a fine array of scholarly floor men and at present the school stands second in the Western Pennsylvania Intercollegiate League. Incidentally, "Willy" is eddying from Braddock and he will play against former schoolmates in tomorrow night's encounter.

FRENCH CLUB TO STUDY PROBLEMS OF FRANCE

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE IS TEMPORARILY CHANGED

Due to extensive repairs that are being made to the Registrar's office on the first floor of Old Main, the Registrar and his staff have been forced to take up temporary quarters in the Natural History Museum, 211 Main. The College's summer and the College Scheduling Officer may also be found at that location.

In their temporary quarters, these college officials have no telephone connection so that they cannot be reached except by personal visitation. The stupendous task of recording grades for the past semester is going forward steadily under handicaps, which leads us to agree with Mr. Hoffman when he says that although he and his staff are quartered in the museum, still the "dead ones" are behind glass.

INCOMPARABLE

THE SEVEREST CRITIC IN NEW YORK WRITES:

"There is nothing on the stage this season, nor was there anything on the stage last season, to compare for one moment with the pathos, the suspense, the spectacular magnificence, and the gorgeous finale of the picture at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre which presents Lillian Gish in 'The White Sister.'"

—Alan Dale in New York American

JOHN BARRYMORE SAYS
OF LILLIAN GISH:

"I remember seeing Duse many years ago, also Madame Bernhardt—but for sheer technical brilliancy and great emotional projection, done with an almost uncanny simplicity and sincerity of method, here is an American artist who equals, if not surpasses, the finest traditions of the theatre."

AND DAVID BELASCO:

"It is a revelation to see the little girl who was with me only a few years ago reach the very highest point in action, charm and delightful expression."
