

WELCOME!

STUDENTS!

PENN STATE

WE are glad again to extend a hearty welcome to the students of Penn State. It has been our pleasure for twenty years to welcome the coming of another Freshman Class and the return of the upper classmen.

May the year upon which you are now entering be a most pleasant and profitable one.

The First National Bank has been built upon a record of service, and we shall be most pleased to place at your disposal our very best facilities for meeting your banking requirements. Doubtless you will wish to adopt the sane and safe method of handling your funds and will open a checking account for the paying of all bills by check thereby having a receipt which cannot be disputed.

We will furnish all supplies---check book and pass book---without cost, and will be pleased to assist in every possible way to contribute to your successful stay at Penn State.

The First National Bank has established a Department especially for the convenience of student patrons and your account will be greatly appreciated and given every consideration.

State College as a Whole is keeping pace with the growth of Penn State. Two very helpful and needy improvements have been accomplished during the summer months---the erecton of a fine Post Office Building and the paving of Allen Street.

We are keeping pace---in fact keeping ahead of the growth of the college and town. Certainly there are few towns the size of State College where you will find a store so completely stocked with such a varied class of merchandise as ours.

Our stock is more complete, more varied, merchandise priced lower and our store arrangement better than ever before.
