Requisites For College Men As complete outfitters to generations of college men, we keep accurately informed regarding what is most acceptable to all the leading colleges and universities created our own models to insure a faithful adherence to the college man's demands. Autumn, 1924, Greystone The Greystone---our own exclusive three-button model---is established so firmly in the esteem of college men that it is now asked for by name. It is designed to present the best features of conservative English style as observed at Oxford and Cambridge, translated through fine American tailoring. Obtainable in bright cheviots and rough shetlands in light London shades.

We also call attention to the Newstone, our smart two-button Suit; to the Savoy, a double breasted model of unusual distinction (the jacket may be worn with silver gray flannesl); and to the Bal, a Tuxedo Suit in the best English manner.
