

FRESHMAN "Y" MEN HOLD NOMINATIONS

Doctor Pattee Makes Address on Physical, Mental and Moral Sides of "Y" Triangle

ELECTION OF OFFICERS TAKES PLACE THURSDAY

The biggest and most enthusiastic meeting of the year was staged by the freshman members of the Penn State Y.M.C.A. on last Thursday night when the first-year men stepped in at the "Y" Hut after the 1924 class meeting.

As an opening feature, the group sang a number of inspiring songs under the leadership of Don Carpenhae, student pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Popular and well-known songs and hymns were used and the response to the efforts of the leader was excellent, the music serving to bring the freshmen to a better acquaintance and to draw with the familiarity which the "Y" authorities wish to banish from such gatherings.

Following the songs, Doctor Fred L. Pattee was introduced as the principal speaker of the evening. Doctor Pattee took as his topic "The Freshman Finding Himself" and in his humorous yet always forceful way gave some timely advice to the first-year men.

The speaker emphasized the importance of finding oneself in a physical, mental and moral life and urged his hearers to heed these points during the present important period in which they are receiving an education. In speaking of these phases of life, Doctor Pattee filled himself with the program of the Y.M.C.A. and stressed the three sides of the famous "Y" triangle.

Following Doctor Pattee's address, the meeting was opened for nominations for officers of the 1924 Christian Association Election in these offices will be held on Thursday evening in the "Y" Hut, and this year the veiling Y.M.C.A. program will be entirely in the hands of the freshmen themselves, according to announcement made recently by H. E. Foulkard '25, in charge of all freshmen "Y" work.

Nominations
For the office of President the following men were nominated: the second and third choices to receive are second and third Vice-Presidents: P. R. Smith, E. M. Sitt, W. A. Wenzel, R. W. Provost, R. O. Huston, W. D. Stone, G. H. Fisher, J. O. Resley, L. R. Cooper, D. D. Caudill, R. H. Evans and W. R. Vogley.

Nominations for Secretary were W. D. Dumbin, J. I. Johnson, J. T. Williams, L. W. Banton, D. H. Boogar and J. P. Osterling, while, those nominated for Treasurer comprised the following list: E. A. Shaffer, D. H. Edwards, E. E. Williams, J. D. Metz, R. H. Pratt, H. Leuthke, E. W. Nichol, P. A. Hawley and A. L. Bayone.

DATE OF FIRST DEBATE OF SEASON IS CHANGED

The date for the bi-lingual debate between the Washington and Jefferson, University of Pittsburgh and Penn State teams has been changed, due to the occurrence of several unexpected obstacles. This meeting was originally scheduled for December twelfth and no definite time has been selected to take its place.

A newcomer to Penn State debating circles will probably make its appearance this winter when Temple University is met by Professor T. J. Casey, changes. Although this encounter is not yet certain it is probable that final arrangements will be made soon. Hurling will probably be the scene of the verbal clash, if it is to be held.

The Blue and White debaters have made noticeable progress in their preparatory work. The question that will be used for argument is "Resolved that Congress should, by two thirds vote have the power to make effective a statute declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court." This is a subject upon which there has been much difference of opinion on the part of the debaters and therefore the preliminary arguments have been spirited and interesting.

HARRIERS STAGE ANNUAL CLASS MEET TOMORROW

First Seven Yearlings To Finish Will Make Up Personnel of First-Year Team

Think for Penn State's veiling harriers will be held tomorrow afternoon at four-thirty o'clock when the annual interclass cross-country meet is staged over a three-mile course. Every class will be represented and the first seven freshmen to finish will probably make up the personnel of the first-year team for the Carnegie Tech race here on Pennsylvania Day.

All varsity men will be eligible for this meet and the first five men to finish will receive medals. It will be the members of the winning class to run. On account of the short distance of the course tomorrow's meet will not serve as a trial for varsity endurance.

Varsity Trials Saturday
Varsity trials for the Pitt meet next week will be held Saturday over a six-mile course. Several upper-classmen who did not represent the Blue and White in the Syracuse meet last Saturday have been doing good work in the past week and should furnish several varsity men with plenty of opposition when the trials are staged.

REORGANIZATION OF PRE-MEDICAL SOCIETY

Program Completed for Entire Year—Present Enrollment Totals Eighty-five

A re-organization of the Penn State Pre-Medical Society was held last evening in Room 4 of McAlister Hall, with President Thomas as the principal speaker.

The society was organized a few years ago by a group of students and instructors in the Pre-Medical school. It has not been extremely active on the campus during the past several years, but this year, with a staff of officers, it is intended to "make things hum." The society will be heard from many times in the future.

The officers, as elected at the close of the year, are as follows: P. J. Kapp '25, president; C. N. Davis '26, vice-president; J. B. Jacobs '27, secretary; and E. J. Gough '27, treasurer. Professor D. H. Dusham and J. J. Bennett '26, are the overseers and trustees of the organization.

FINAL ROUND REACHED IN TENNIS ENCOUNTER

Two Nittany Juniors Matched in Final Round To Determine College Champion

Following six battles in the scrappy final round, the all-college tennis tournament has reached the final. The survivors are one hundred and six juniors who entered the tournament in 12 R. Eglington '26 and D. Malpass '26.

After the elimination of H. S. Webster '25 in the fifth round, Malpass met R. A. Gorman '26 in the semi-finals last Friday. The match was close and hard fought throughout and it was only by a supreme effort that Malpass defeated his opponent 6-4, 7-5. The result of the final set was in doubt up to five-all, each man was winning a set and it was not until the crucial point when Malpass broke through Gorman's service that victory was assured.

Eglington met G. L. Setman '27 in the other semi-final match last Thursday to determine the second finalist. Setman put up a stiff battle in the first set, though finally losing to Eglington 7-5. In the second set Eglington dominated Setman 6-1 but the score does not indicate the closeness of the contest.

BLUE KEY WELCOMES ALUMNI AT RECEPTION

Adding the Penn State Alumni Association at their Alumni Day smoker, held last Saturday night in the Amphitheater, the Blue Key Society played a large part in making the annual affair a success.

The Blue Key welcomed the former Penn State men in the name of the committee. Besides a long reception committee to the numerous attendees of former Penn State men, the society helped keep the men in good spirits, seeing that everybody was kept in conversation. The alumni were introduced to each other and many were helped to find their former classmates.

The Blue Key will increase the number of members in the organization when the sixteen men pledged to the society will be initiated tomorrow night.

The Penn State Collegian
As an advertising medium

IT HARDLY SEEMS POSSIBLE, BUT IT'S A FACT THAT STUDENTS SPEND BETWEEN TWO AND THREE MILLION DOLLARS IN STATE COLLEGE BETWEEN SEPTEMBER AND JUNE OF EACH YEAR.

That means that every year the purchasing power of the borough is increased by two or three million dollars. Of course a large part of this money is spent for board and room, but a good sized portion is also expended for necessities of school life.

"THE PENN STATE COLLEGIAN" IS A SCHOOL NEWSPAPER AND CATERES TO THE STUDENTS. IT'S A LOGICAL CONCLUSION THEREFORE THAT THE BEST WAY TO REACH THE STUDENTS IS THROUGH THEIR OWN NEWSPAPER.
