

FOREIGN STUDENTS HOLD MEETING LAST SATURDAY

Organization Decides To Present Musical Selections With Tolstol's Lecture

The Cosmopolitan Club at its meeting last Saturday evening, decided to present several musical selections in addition to Count Olya Tolstol's lecture, which will be given Saturday evening, November twenty-second, in the Auditorium.

S. K. Hapougin '25 1/2, president of the Club emphasized the fact that the Cosmopolitan Club was the foreign students' means of expressing himself. He stated that it is an organization which aids its members to cooperate with each other, and helps them to bring before Americans the best examples of foreignness.

Several tutoring classes in addition to those already started in Russian, German, and Spanish, have been arranged. The above three classes are held in Room 322 Old Main, at seven o'clock on Monday, Tuesday and Friday evenings, respectively.

The publishing of a monthly bulletin which will make known to the College the work of the Cosmopolitan Club was pressed upon. It was also decided that a dance would be held at some time in the year.

at Millbank on Lewis. The loss of the positions will result in the left end, Greenfields, left tackle, Hartman, left guard, Hastings, center, Dand, right guard, Mahoney, right tackle, Dangeifeld, quarterback; Lesko left halfback, Langren, right halfback.

Coach Carlson has one of the best starting teams that the University of Pittsburgh has seen for some time. They ran rough-shod over the Carnegie Tech plebes setting them back by 41 to 0 score while last Saturday the Panthers held the crack Bellefonte Academy eleven to a 0-0 tie.

The tentative line-up of the veterans is as follows: left end Saigent, left tackle, Kern, left guard, Green, center, Goldberg, right guard, Fisher, right tackle, Widdell (Capt.), right end, Roberts, quarterback, Cutler, left halfback, Johnson, right halfback, Welch, fullback, Booth.

Captain Salata, former Wyoming Seminary star celebrated his election by tearing wide holes into the Carnegie Tech line and made possible Pitt's first touchdown.

HOUSE PARTIES BEGIN WITH DANCES TONIGHT

"On the Sea" is a charming story of the sea sung in deep full rhythm. In it the creator is recognized as the providence which guides the destinies of ships. "Phantom Band" is a semi-humorous number in which the entire chorus takes part. "Swing Along" is an old negro melody with a swing rhythm and filled with negro rhythms and feelings.

The final rehearsal will be held this evening. For the past two weeks rehearsals have been held three nights a week and the club has been showing great progress. Under the guidance of Director Gant it has responded remarkably well in ensemble and intonation.
