YEARLING ELEVEN LOSES HARD GAME TO PANTHER CUBS

Driving Attack of Visitors Causes
First Set-back of Season
by Score of 12-0

LION CUBS FAIL TO GAIN THROUGH OPPOSING LINE

Hoban Intercepts Forward Pass and Runs Fifty Yards for
First Touchdown

Penn State's freshman football team suffered its first setback of the season when it went down in defeat before the driving attack of the heavy Pittsburgh Yearling Eleven by a 12 to 0 score last Saturday morning on Old Beaver Field. The Lion Cubs fought hard but they were unable to penetrate the Blue and Gold line.

The Nittany griders were taken by surprise at the pace set by "Red" Carlson's proteges and it was not until the first quarter was over that the home team tightened up. This defense was soon whittled down when the opposing backs drove through the line for consistent gains. The playing of Hoban and Booth in the backfield and Salata at tackle was outstanding for the visitors, the former intercepting a forward pass and running fifty yards for the first touchdown of the game.

First Half
"Barney" Simpson got off a pretty kick and the ball was put in play on Pitt's twenty-five yard line. On the first three plays the Blue and Gold line held the Yearling Eleven from penetrating the line. On the fourth play down with powerful line drives. At this point the freshman line put up a strong defense and the visitors were forced to kick. Penn State receiving the ball on Pitt's forty-yard line. Backs gained five yards on a fake pass but the necessary yardage for a first down was lacking and on the fourth down Backs were forced to kick.

On a return punt Lungen was stopped in his tracks by Roberts, right end who made a pretty tackle. A cross-kick Hoban to Hogan resulted in a first down. Penalties during times when the Line and White middle were beginning a rally cut off their chance of scoring. In an attempt to overcome the strong Panther defense the Nittany linebacks resorted to a passing game. A pass back to Kall gained five yards but on the next attempt Hoban intercepted Lungen's pass and ran fifty yards to place the ball behind the goal line. The try for the extra point finished the up-the-uprights and "bounced" outside.

Second Half
In this period the visitors began a smashing drive down the field from the kick-off and were never checked until Booth plunked across for a score. A placement kick for the one point was unsuccessful, the ball hitting the cross-bar. Captain Greenhills made a pretty tackle when it looked as though one of the Pitt yearlings was going to.

PHILADELPHIA ALUMNI TO ENTERTAIN ROOTERS

Harrisburg Grads Plan Dinner at Colonial Country Club on Thursday at Six

Planning to entertain a large crowd of alumni and students, the Penn State Alumni Association of Philadelphia has completed their arrangements for the football smoker and dinner to be held in the Hotel Duquesne Hotel Friday and Saturday nights, November 14 and 15.

All students who are planning to attend the Penn game next Saturday are urged to participate in the activities arranged by the Alumni Association. There will be no assessment for the smoker to be held in the Ballroom, while a reasonable fee will be charged for the dinner to be held in the Clover and Ball Rooms.

Alumni Dinner in Harrisburg
The annual fall dinner held by the Penn State Alumni of Harrisburg will be held at the Colonial Country Club at six o'clock on Thursday, November 14.

It adds the dinner program consisting of card games and bowling has been arranged, which will undoubtedly meet the approval of the Alumni. It is probable that a business meeting featuring a number of short speeches will be held after the dinner.

Lunches in Washington
Plans are being formulated by J. D. Wyoff '08, president of the Alumni Association of Washington, D. C., and E. W. Smith '11 for a luncheon to be held in Washington during the convention of the National Land Grant College Association on November 12 and 13.

LARGE CONSIGNMENT OF LA VIE PROOFS RECEIVED

La Vie proofs numbering up to 425 have arrived and may be obtained at the Y M C A Hut by junior Twenty-five to fifty persons are expected to call daily, and proofs should be returned to the Hut as soon as possible. When calling for proofs, appointments should be made for returning them in person to the representatives of the White Studios.

All interviews must be made individually and each student is requested to wait his or her turn when calling to fill an appointment. Miss Lax, representative of the Studios, will not be responsible for proofs that are not returned to her personally, and the La Vie Board urges that all proofs be turned in promptly in order to avoid any delay in getting cuts ready for the engraver.

FAMOUS ORCHESTRA PLAYS HERE SOON

Cleveland Symphony Concert Next
Monday Offered in "Y" Entertainment Course

ORGANIZATION IS LED BY NIKOLAI SOKOLOFF
With the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, directed by Nikolai Sokoloff, appearing here as the next number of the Y M C A Entertainment Course on November 17, the Penn State students will have an opportunity to hear one of the leading musical organizations of the land in the Cleveland area.

Two concerts will be given, a special concert in the afternoon for school children and their parents, and the evening concert for the faculty and students.

Delightful programs have been arranged for both times consisting of several famous overtures and symphonies. The program for the afternoon concert will consist of Mozart's "Overture to Marriage of Figaro," Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," and "The Marriage of Figaro" by Strauss, and the "March of the Minstrels" from "Suite Algiers" by Saint-Saens. The quality of the music in this recital is such that it may easily be appreciated by the children, but will be equally enjoyable for their parents.

The orchestra by Sokoloff breathes a spirit of youthfulness characteristic of all his works. "Pomp and Circumstance" is a delightful group of songs dealing with the life of a Norwegian peasant-dweller with a beautiful music in a picture of a golden sunset and a dance of the spirits as themes. "Wienli Bluet" is another of the excellent waltzes that are typical of Strauss. Then the vigorous march by Saint-Saens concludes the program.

History of Lender
The life of Nikolai Sokoloff, leader of the orchestra, is almost entirely unknown to American audiences. At twelve, his genius was attracted attention that he was given a special musical scholarship to the Yale University of Music. He graduated at seventeen, and became the youngest member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the foremost of that period. Rapidly rising to the leadership of several orchestras, he was chosen while still in his thirties to lead the Cleveland group of musicians. The rise of these players since that time has been amazing, and is largely due to Sokoloff's genius.

The personnel of the Orchestra is also of the highest quality. Arthur Shepherd, the assistant conductor, is a distinguished composer and a famous musical scholar. Mr. Bechthold, the first violinist, is one of England's foremost violinists and was formerly concert-master of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Victor de Gama, the principal violoncello, is of national fame, and Carlton Coates, first violin, and William Trapp, second violinist, are among the most prominent artists in America.

Nikolai Sokoloff is a gifted concert maker, and his programs are exceedingly popular. He played to audiences of thirty to forty thousand in his two concerts at the Welsh National Festival, as he is popular abroad as in America. He possesses an uncanny insight of balancing programs, and his selections vary from those of a playful spirit to deep, desolate pathos.

The Cleveland musicians are active in a civic way especially among the

NITTANY BOOTERS UPSET LAFAYETTE IN FAST CONTEST

Lion Aggregation Maintains Clean
State in Downing Maroon
Team by 2-1 Score

GOOD PASSING FEATURES BLUE AND WHITE ATTACK

Hagenbuch and M. Gil Kick Well as Play Is Carried Into Opponent's Territory

Running true to form in adding one more conquest to its record string of victories, the Penn State soccer team last Saturday morning defeated the Lafayette aggregation by the score of 2 to 1. Strong defensive playing by the Maroon backs kept the Nittany forwards from netting the ball more often, but near the end of the first half, following a corner kick "Freddie" Pine slipped through the Lafayette eleven's defense and scored the first counter of the morning.

Play during the second half was fast and furious, with the ball in play in Lafayette territory most of the period. Time and again, when the Nittany forwards had taken the ball from the center of the field to within scoring range, the visiting backs would break through the Lion attack and boot the sphere far down into Penn State territory only to have "Red" Hagenbuch or M. Gil lift the ball back to the Blue and White line to begin another onslaught.

After the ball had seen-sawed over the field for some time, the Penn State line pressed and dribbled the ball through the Lafayette backfield and scored once more, Schwartz driving the ball past the opposing goal-keeper with a quick short kick making the score 2 to 0 in the Lion's favor.

Lafayette Scores
Immediately after the kick-off, the Lafayette forwards took the ball down the field by means of short snappy passes and consistent dribbling and the ball went out over the goal line. Taking advantage of the corner kick, Cooke, Lafayette inside right, dribbled the ball from scrimmage and shot it into the Blue and White net for the only Maroon score of the day.

The playing of the Lion team was considerably above par until the ball was within scoring distance, where passes and shots would not materialize and fast but their passing game could not elude the feet of Captain Clump of Gil Gil, in particular played a scaling defensive game when the ball was in Penn State territory. Cooke started for the visitors.
