

Penn State Collegian

California, Here They Come

VOL. XX, No. 16

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1924

PRICE FIVE CENTS

FRESHMEN CLOSE GRID SEASON WITH CONTEST TOMORROW

California Normal Eleven Is Last Opponent To Face Blue and White Yearlings

SCRUBS SCORE WIN OVER FOURTH STRING VARSITY

Game Called for One O'clock on New Beaver—Sharpe Starts at End Position

Monday's California Normal eleven in the first game of the season, the Penn State freshmen football team will close its season against the Normal eleven of California at one o'clock on New Beaver Field.

Hard Seminars

On Monday "Dutch" ran the squad through a stiff practice in order to get up the aggressiveness of the team. The following night the fourth varsity combination was pitted against the first stringers.

Tentative Line-up

Couch Hermann has not made a definite selection as to who will start the game tomorrow. The probable line-up which will go on the field against California Normal will be Stamm, left end, Greenhalgh, left tackle, Hartman, left guard, Hastings, center, Kraft, right guard, Mahoney, right tackle, Sharpe, right end, Danforth, quarterback, Hoeserman, left halfback, Langron, right halfback and McGrath, fullback.

DR. THOMAS WILL HEAD CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE

"Proxy" Voted Chairman of State Committee in Charge of Annual Campaign

President John M. Thomas was selected for new honors when he was voted to the chairmanship of the 1924 Christmas Seal Committee for Pennsylvania. In accepting the post, "Proxy" expressed the opinion that he is happy to have a part in the fight against tuberculosis.

On The Gridiron

Saturday, November 15 Penn vs. Penn State Pitt vs. Washington-Jefferson Yale vs. Princeton Army vs. Columbia Brown vs. Harvard Dartmouth vs. Cornell Bucknell vs. New Amherst vs. Williams Rutgers vs. New York University Illinois vs. Minnesota

INTERFRATERNITY CONFERENCE URGES SENIOR WEEK SUPPORT

ADVANTAGES OF REVISED SOCIAL CALENDAR EXPLAINED

In order to clear up the doubts in the minds of those who do not believe that Senior Week should be supported by the students, the Inter-Fraternity Conference has sent the following letter to its members.

NITTANY HARRIERS ENCOUNTER ALFRED

Final Meet of Season Is Carded for Tomorrow—Visitors Reputed Strong

LIONS WILL NOT RUN AT INTERCOLLEGIATES

Determined to continue the winning streak that began in the Carnegie Tech meet last Saturday, the Penn State harriers will face the strong Alfred University aggregation tomorrow morning.

PHILADELPHIA ALUMNI HOLD SMOKER TONIGHT

Penn State Dance Is Scheduled for Tomorrow in Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

APPLICATIONS FOR PITT TICKETS ARE DUE NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Order blanks for tickets to the Penn State-Pitt football game in Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day were distributed at the Athletic Office this week.

RABBI M. S. LAZARON WILL ADDRESS CHAPEL

Baltimore Theologian To Deliver Non-Sectarian Sermons at Sunday Services

Rabbi Maurice S. Lazaron, who has charge of the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, has been secured by Chaplain Metzger to speak at the morning and evening chapel exercises in the Auditorium this Sunday.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE, LIONS

Table listing Penn State and Penn players and substitutes. Penn State players include L. E. Weston, L. T. Filack, L. G. McCann, Q. B. Lafferty, F. B. Bergman, R. H. B. Baker, etc.

OHIO ORCHESTRA TO PRESENT TWO CONCERTS MONDAY

Curtain To Rise at Eight-thirty on Evening Performance—Program Announced

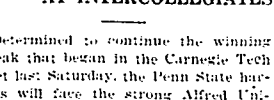

GENERAL TICKET SALE IS SCHEDULED TOMORROW

Afternoon Event Is Slated for Three-thirty O'clock To Entertain Children

COLLEGE CALLS CO-ED CANDIDATES

All Junior and sophomore girls desiring to try out for the editorial staff of the COLLEGIAN are requested to report to Miss Martha Farley, Women's Editor.

Halfback Find

COLLEGE BUDGET NEEDS TABULATED

Six and One-half Million Dollars Made Conservative Total by Trustees' Committee

PLAN RESTORATION OF ENGINEERING BUILDING

An appropriation for Penn State of approximately six and one-half million dollars has been deemed by a board of Trustees Committee as a conservative estimate for the needs of the College for the biennium 1925-1927.

REMAINDER OF LA VIE PROOFS ARE AVAILABLE

Proofs for all of the individual La Vie photographs have been received, and any juniors who have not yet obtained them are asked to do so before next Monday.

PENN STATE CLUB SETS NOVEMBER DANCE DATE

First Non-Fraternity Hop of Year To Be Held in Women's Building on Twenty-sixth

PRESIDENT THOMAS WILL REVIEW R. O. T. C. UNIT

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

LIONS READY FOR ANNUAL CLASH WITH PENN ELEVEN

Feeling of Optimism Prevails in Nittany Camp as Blue and White Faces Season's Supreme Test

Penn State's newly-born Nittany Lion stands ready for its supreme test! Tomorrow afternoon, Coach Hugo Bezdek's unleashed jungle animal will battle undefeated Penn on Franklin Field and Philadelphia will witness a clash that should go down in the annals of gridiron history.

COUNCIL DISCUSSES PENN TRIP EXCUSES

Matter of Cuts To Be Determined by Instructors—Leniency Is Promised Rooters

PLANS FOR SPIRIT WEEK ARE STILL INCOMPLETE

The College Council of Administration was reported at the meeting of Student Council last Monday night as having decided that the plan of issuing individual written excuses for students' absences at the Penn football game tomorrow, is at present impractical.

PLAYERS REHEARSE FOR OPENING PERFORMANCE

"Kempy," Well-known Comedy, Will Be Presented in Auditorium Next Friday Night

With the opening performance but a week away, Director Cretzsch is putting the finishing touches on "Kempy," the first Penn State play show of the year.

Two-year Art Football Team Student Council voted at this meeting

PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FIRST NON-FRATERNITY DANCE OF THE YEAR

Preparations are under way for the Penn State alumni activities in Pittsburgh at the time of the Pitt football game. The Alumni Association of which R. M. Hamel is president and W. K. McKnight is secretary, has arranged to give the returns of the Penn grid game in the Chamber of Commerce Building tomorrow afternoon.

PROOFS FOR LA VIE PHOTOGRAPHS

Proofs for all of the individual La Vie photographs have been received, and any juniors who have not yet obtained them are asked to do so before next Monday.

PLANNING FOR THE DANCE

The preliminary arrangements for the first non-fraternity dance of the year resulted from the decision at the meeting of the Penn State Club last Monday night. The date set for this function is November twenty-sixth.

REHEARSAL FOR THE PLAY

Two casts have been working on the show since rehearsals began a month ago, and Director Cretzsch plans to announce the cast for the first performance in the early part of next week.

THE DANCE

The plot of the comedy concerns one "Kempy" James, a young plumber's apprentice, who has visions of being a successful architect. Kempy has previously read a book and is so impressed with the plot that all men attend the meeting next Monday night at seven o'clock when further discussion will take place.

THE DANCE

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

THE DANCE

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

LIONS READY FOR ANNUAL CLASH WITH PENN ELEVEN

Feeling of Optimism Prevails in Nittany Camp as Blue and White Faces Season's Supreme Test

Penn State's newly-born Nittany Lion stands ready for its supreme test! Tomorrow afternoon, Coach Hugo Bezdek's unleashed jungle animal will battle undefeated Penn on Franklin Field and Philadelphia will witness a clash that should go down in the annals of gridiron history.

COUNCIL DISCUSSES PENN TRIP EXCUSES

Matter of Cuts To Be Determined by Instructors—Leniency Is Promised Rooters

PLANS FOR SPIRIT WEEK ARE STILL INCOMPLETE

The College Council of Administration was reported at the meeting of Student Council last Monday night as having decided that the plan of issuing individual written excuses for students' absences at the Penn football game tomorrow, is at present impractical.

PLAYERS REHEARSE FOR OPENING PERFORMANCE

"Kempy," Well-known Comedy, Will Be Presented in Auditorium Next Friday Night

With the opening performance but a week away, Director Cretzsch is putting the finishing touches on "Kempy," the first Penn State play show of the year.

Two-year Art Football Team Student Council voted at this meeting

PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FIRST NON-FRATERNITY DANCE OF THE YEAR

Preparations are under way for the Penn State alumni activities in Pittsburgh at the time of the Pitt football game. The Alumni Association of which R. M. Hamel is president and W. K. McKnight is secretary, has arranged to give the returns of the Penn grid game in the Chamber of Commerce Building tomorrow afternoon.

REMAINDER OF LA VIE PROOFS ARE AVAILABLE

Proofs for all of the individual La Vie photographs have been received, and any juniors who have not yet obtained them are asked to do so before next Monday.

PENN STATE CLUB SETS NOVEMBER DANCE DATE

First Non-Fraternity Hop of Year To Be Held in Women's Building on Twenty-sixth

PRESIDENT THOMAS WILL REVIEW R. O. T. C. UNIT

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

THE DANCE

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

THE DANCE

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.

THE DANCE

Dr. Thomas will review the conduct of the unit, the weather permitting, on Monday afternoon. The review will be held on the drill field and will consist of a salute to the colors and the passing in review of the entire regiment, each battalion in line of companies and line of squads.