Garnet Booters Oppose Lions This Afternoon at Three O'clock on New Beaver

TEST BROTHERS FORM VISITORS' MAIN TREAT

Final Games Slated with Lehigh and Navy—McVicker May Get Into Line-up

Penn State's soccer team winds up its home season activities when it meets the fast Swarthmore combination this afternoon at three o'clock on New Beaver Field. The remaining two games on the Blue and White schedule takes the Lion into foreign territory, the Lehigh boaters being met on December fourth and the Navy Academy two days later.

In the absence of Coach Leonard last Saturday, the first and second teams were put through an hour of fast scrimmage. The daily practices showed a marked improvement in the work of the line and the regulars romped over the scrubs for a 5 to 1 victory. The attack has come through with a scoring punch which the Niagara men have been trying to defend since the beginning of the season.

Line-up—

McVicker has been on the sick list for the past week and Lippincott was sent in to fill the backfield position where he has played a steady game. If Gump was shifted to the line in Gump's place and Norm, M. Vicker played at halfback. This combination produced good results, but Leonard will start the starting line-up. Norm, however, may get an opportunity to (Continued on last page)

BLAZE AGAIN DAMAGES POST OFFICE BUILDING

Friday Night Fire Increases Loss of Week to $70,000—Student Firemen Praised

During the last few days of the past week an estimated figure of $70,000 thousand dollars in loss at eleven o'clock Friday night completely gutted the post office building on the corner of Allen Street and Beaver Avenue.

A weakening of the main structure by water from the Thursday morning fire caused a short circuit, it is believed to have been the cause of the second blaze. Quickly spreading from the structure of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, which occupied the front portion of the structure, the flames were flicking through the light dividing partition into the post office building when the firemen arrived.

Mail Is Saved

Under cover of a barrage of water played upon the partition, a group of students, directed by several postal employees succeeded in transferring all of the post boxes, mail and post packages into the new post office across the street. A small amount of second class matter made up largely of magazines, was the only loss. The damage to the interior of the structure including destruction of counters, lock boxes and other furniture that could not be carried out was estimated at fifteen thousand dollars by R. M. Porter, 200 Highland Avenue, the owner. The loss is almost entirely covered by insurance.

The grocery store in which the fire started sustained heavy losses from both the fire and water. Practically the entire stock was ruined according to the manager, who placed the cost at over four thousand dollars.

Shoemaker's Shop Wiped Out

After suffering heavy damages from the Thursday morning blaze, Shoemaker's shoe establishment was completely cleaned out as was the apartment on the third floor of the building.

Members of both the fire company, the Alpha and the student organization were highly praised by R. I. Webster, Director of Grounds and Buildings and Critique Editor Marshall, on the manner in which the two fires last week were controlled. "The display of courage and skill," he stated, "and there can be no doubt of their success."

Plans for rebuilding the two structures destroyed in the fire of last week will begin at once, according to J. M. Porter and P. Barthelme, their owners.

Immediately after Thanksgiving recess, the Nittany men will begin regular scrimmages in preparation for the opening tilt with Juniata College. Using Gerhardt and McVicker as linemen for the 1924-25 combination Coach Hermann expects to mould a powerful quintet from the rest of the material. Stuckenm, Hood, Noah, Shiner, McDonald and Mihalis, from last year's squad, are putting in strong bids for berths on the varsity.

Thomas, McPhie, Price and Taylor who starred last season as freshmen, are reporting for practice and giving the regulars a hard run for position. The Lion coach will use the same system as that employed last year, starting the men in the best condition and form.

SOPHOMORE STICKMEN WIN LACROSSE SCRAP

Freshmen Show Up Well Despite Lack of Experience—Varsity Material Uncertain

Using their greater experience to an advantage, the sophomore stickmen defeated the freshman team 2-1 in the annual underclass lacrosse meet last Saturday afternoon on Holmes Field.

The contest was hard fought throughout and it was only in the last few seconds of play that the sophomore men scored the deciding tally.

The sophomores started off with a rush and outplayed the freshmen in the first half. Team work was the big factor in the play; of the sophomore men, the defense usually securing the ball and immediately passing it to an offensive man at the opposite end of the field.

Directing the experience of their opponents, the 1925 men followed the ball well and lost it only because of their inexperience by the rest of the sticks.

The sophomores showed in excellent passing game and took advantage of any scoring opportunities offered. The ball was in the freshmen's territory throughout the first half, the sophomore men having numerous shots at their opponents' goal. However, the majority of the attempts went wide.

Sophomores Score

Expansion Committee Summarizes Aims and Ideals of Greek Letter Societies

FIFTY-ONE FRATERNITIES FORM BASIS OF REPORT

Other Penn State Representatives Will Make Trip To Coming New York Conference

President John M. Thomas, as a member of the Committee on the Constitutive Increase in Fraternity Membership will address the sixteenth annual convention of the Interfraternity Conference when it meets at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York City this Thursday and Friday. C. W. Taylor '25 will be the active Penn State representative at this meeting.

Two members of the faculty also are planning to attend this convention. Dean A. R. Warnerck will probably represent the College while Dr. W. S. Dixie of the English Department will accompany him as the delegate of the Acadia Fraternity, since he is its national president.

Fraternity Aims and Ideals

College fraternities men almost a half million strong have long been talking about "fraternity aims and ideals." In an effort to find out what these are, a committee of the Interfraternity Conference has been at work for more than a year. This committee will present its report to the plenary session of the Conference.

As the result of an extensive canvass of all American Greek-letter societies the report announces in summary that these are the fraternity aims and ideals: "Recognition of and a proper respect for the dignity, and a proper respect for the dignity of the individual; the maintenance of a high scholarship requirement; participation in campus activities and urging other boys to do so; the weight of the fraternity in matters pertaining to community interest; the committee summarizes as follows: "Fraternities are intensely patriotic; promote concord among groups of different religious, racial and political backgrounds; teach the duty and practice of service to mankind; denounce slavery and the fetish of social distinction on the basis of wealth or family and foster to a substantial extent participation in social service of philanthropic work."

The committee is frank in admitting that college fraternities undoubtedly do not always live up to these aims and ideals. The question of their effectiveness was not investigated since only authoritative analysis of the fraternities' (Continued on third page)

HARRIERS TO CLASH WITH PITT RUNNERS

Meet With Panther Over Schenley Course on Thursday Will Close Season

SMOKEY CITY TEAM IS STRONGEST IN YEARS

Although the Alfred College meet was the final one on the Penn State schedule the Blue and White hurriers will not officially close their season until Thursday morning when the strong Pitt aggregation is encountered over the Schenley course at Pittsburgh. Negotiations for the extra meet were started by Manager H. K. West '25 last week and in acceptance was received from the Smoky City authorities Friday.

Coach C. C. Howell allowed his squad to begin its training under the Alfred meet as it was anticipated that another team could be scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. The line-up of the Lion team will not be decided until this afternoon but the seven men to represent the Blue and White at Pittsburgh will be picked from Carlisle, Doerflinger, Burch, Johnson, Sewell, Ohlstedt, Reed, Chandler, Harris and Rankin.

Pitt Strong

Pitt is represented by one of the strongest aggregations it has had for years. The Panther hurriers having scored decisive victories over Carnegie Tech and Allegheny this season. In the intercollegiate held at Van Cleeve Park, New York, yesterday morning, Captain Shroeder and his mates made a good showing for a team not even considered a chance in the final running.

LIONS AND PANTHERS READY FOR ANNUAL TURKEY DAY BATTLE—MARIETTA DOWNED

Plucky Visitors Hold Penn State to 28-0 Score

WARD BROTHERS STAR FOR GRIFFITHS' ELEVEN

Bezdek Pulls Surprise by Sending Artelt and Michalske to Backfield

Fighting with all the spirit and aggressiveness of an underdog, "Red" Griffith's light but plucky Marietta College eleven held Penn State to a 28-0 score on New Beaver Field Saturday afternoon the Lion scoring two of their four touchdowns on breaks. The Blue and White played without the services of Captain Gray whose injury forced him to witness the clash from the sidelines.

There was a decided lack of punch in the Nittany attack Saturday and no less than four times did the light Marietta line hold the Redskins inside the five yard mark. While the Lion were somewhat victimized themselves for Thanksgiving their work against Marietta showed that much must be accomplished before Pitt is encountered in two days.

"Bez" Pulls Surprise

Coach Bezdek pulled a big surprise Saturday when he sent Ted Artelt, guard, and Mike Michalske, both players were effective in carrying the ball. The former had been learning big plays in the veteran's line three and four in the first quarter, Michalske jumped through the Marietta defense in an eighteen yard run and a touchdown.

Two fumbles kept the Lions their last two touchdowns. In the second quarter after an exchange of punts, Bezdek allowed Marietta to take the ball on their own side of the field. In the first quarter, Michalske jumped through the Marietta defense in an eighteen yard run and a touchdown.

Dr. Pattee will also speak in his talk tonight on the importance of the teacher in the school and on the importance of the teacher in the school and on the importance of the teacher in the school.

Three Regulars Will Oppose Pitt For Last Time

BLUE AND WHITE COACH IS UNCERTAIN OF LINE-UP

No Predictions Made As to Final Outcome—Daps Is Upset in Former Years

Forbes Field's time-honored 1919 Pitt and Penn State grab-on opponents since back in the 1890s, are ready for their annual Thanksgiving Day clash. Both coaches, Griffith and Sutherland will put in their final touches this afternoon while the Lion squad departs tomorrow morning for the Smoky City where it will wait the mail of the opening clash.

Back in 1919 when "Red" Griffith's eleven faced the West Virginia Eleven in West Virginia, the Blue and White of Penn State had triumphed over the great Western-coached team 28-0 and since that time in a series of years a pair of defeats have fallen in the lot of the Redskins. Underdogs last year and the year before, the Panthers in a rough-bound over the Lions on a soaked field but this year both teams have passed through mediocre seasons and the final outcome is a toss-up.

When the Lions take the field on Thursday six Nittany regulars will cheer their Blue and White substitutes for the last time. Interfraternity, Tri-Alpha and Phi Lambda are the three men who oppose the Panther in their first interfraternity game since the time when Penn State played in the coast two years ago while Artelt's placement in his sophomore year at Alfred broke into the line-up last season.

Line-up Uncertain

"Coach Bezdek" has had many opportunities this year when men whom he thought had the makings of stars failed to come through and is the final game of the season approaches the lion men are still uncertain of their final line-up. Bezdek's surprise was that he sent Artelt, guard, and Mike Michalske, both players were effective in carrying the ball. The former had been learning big plays in the veteran's line three and four in the first quarter, Michalske jumped through the Marietta defense in an eighteen yard run and a touchdown.

Importance of Teaching

The teaching profession ranks second in importance only to that of the doctor in the matter of molding character in the youth according to Dr. Pattee. He believes that this opportunity for the uplifting of the human race offers a strong inducement for entering the ranks of the profession.

Advancement in education, he believes will be confined in the future. It will be shown that the teacher of today is not permitted to stagnate but must continue his education in order to hold his position. He must take adequate work and it is a college instructor he must do a certain amount of research work and study.

Gibbons Gives Lecture

W. P. Gibbons, assistant professor of English, spoke on the general subject of "The Application of Confident English in Work" in the fifth vocational guidance lecture last Tuesday night.

The method of presentation used by Mr. Gibbons was to name certain men who have a daily newspaper and a program to bring it to the kingdom of God. He pointed out to men who have done work in the daily newspaper.

As a further illustration Mr. Gibbons presented Charles M. Sheldon's account of how he led the People's Church on a week in the market set forth in his book "What Would Jesus Do?" This story was told by Dr. Sueddon in the November number of the Atlantic Monthly. During this talk work the normal substitution of fifteen thousand was raised to $67,000. This forty dollars were added to the paper's force. As a result two hundred thousand dollars were voluntarily contributed to the relief of famine sufferers in India.

NOTED ARCHITECT OF NEW YORK INSPECTS STUDENTS' DRAWINGS

In accordance with a policy adopted for the year whereby it is possible to have prominent architects from New York and Philadelphia visit the department of Architecture to assist and advise in the work of the students, Mr. A. P. Euston, of the firm of Somerfield and Sage, New York City, visited Penn State over the first week end.

During his stay here Mr. Euston criticized drawings of the students of the department who are entered in the Beaux Arts Competition in New York. He also offered various suggestions for improvement in this work. Mr. Euston is a well known student of architecture having been in the final competition for the Paris prize. He is also closely associated with the Beaux Arts work.

Don Campbell, of the Beaux Arts Institute of Design, will probably be one of the visitors, and it is hoped that his time may be arranged in such a way that he will be able to give a lecture to the senior students in Architecture during one of the regular Friday afternoon periods.
