Having suffered but two defeats this year at the hands of Washington College and Penn the Annapolis five is staging a successful season The victory of the little Maryland college was an upset to the dopesters the Middies suffering a reversal of form but after a quick recovery and a hard and fast contest against the Red and Blue, the Naval aggregation promises a stiff battle to the Lion passers tomorrow

Although little is known concerning the strength of the Catholic University team tomorrow night's game will be the first on the 1925 card to be played away from home and the performance of the Nittany quintet under new conditions will be watched with considerable interest

Men On Trip

In a recent statement, Coach Hermann made it known that the five which played here against Gettysburg last Saturday is the best combination yet developed. Unless a sickness change be made the same line-up will be used in the southern contests with Hood filling his new position at guard

This combination comprises Captain Gerhardt and Mike Hanna forwards MacDonald center and Norm McClicker and Hood guards In addition to the five regulars Shaner Stuckeman and Saylor made the trip In case a change at center becomes necessary Shaner can be used to get the tip off while he can be used also at guard Saylor and Stuckeman can be used equally well at guard or forward posts and complete a reserve group of general utility men

In Saylor, the Nittany mentor is rapidly building an excellent player During the week's practice, his work has stood out above that of any other man on the second team, and if the Bellevue lad continues to hold his present stride

RINGMEN CONTINUE INTENSIVE TRAINING

Boxers Enliven Practice Sessions With Fast Bouts—Prepare for Syracuse Meet

PROMISING MEN STAND OUT IN EVERY WEIGHT

With the inception of three-round bouts, boxing practice sessions have been livened considerably this week The length of the scraps was first changed from the two-period kind with last Tuesday's workout

The first scheduled meet is but two weeks off the Nittany ringmen travelling to Syracuse on February fourteenth when the big Orange boxers will furnish the first test for Captain Wert and his squad Manager R D Kistler '25 is at the present time still docketing with several prospective opponents for a State College meet on February seventh

Today may see the last of the tri-round bouts although there is a possibility that they will remain for the first part of next week However, the four-period affairs will be inaugurated soon in order to better prepare the men for actual competition A long run to Pine Hall will probably be Coach Houck's edict for tomorrow's practice

From the work already done, the Lion two-spot mentor has been able to get some idea as to who are the most formidable men in each class McChesney Gil and White form the trio that has caused most attention in the 115-pound division Of these Mac has the edge largely because of the experience gained as a regular on last year's championship squad However Whitey has been putting fight in all of his scraps and at present is giving McChesney a run for the first honors in the featherweight section

In the next weight Gans and Blank have progressed rapidly under the direction of Coach Houck Gans a junior boxed in one meet last year while this is Blank's first year of competition for a varsity berth At present Freddy Washington 125-pound titlist in 1924 is working diligently to remove excess flesh He hopes to be down to fighting weight when the time comes for the meet

Captain Wert

Captain "Dick" Wert has been setting the pace for all candidates in his study work He is leading all the boxers in his section by a wide margin and promises to make a strong bid for intercollegiate honors again this winter Along with him Jenkins and Agu

ACTION OF STUDENT COUNCIL POSTPONES CAMPUS BALLOTING

Questionnaire Involving Status of Student Government Disapproved

ISSUE IS CONFUSED IN HOUSE-PARTY PROBLEM

Committees From Three Councils Meet To Prepare New Ballot for Vote

The student vote, planned for last Tuesday as a probe of campus sentiment on the recent action of the College Senate in regard to June house-party and the attitude of the administration in regard to student government has been postponed Student Council reached a decision on Tuesday night that it would not sponsor the questions slated on the ballot that had been prepared by the Joint committees from the Inter-fraternity and Intra-mural Councils

A committee was delegated from Student Council to confer with the representatives of the fraternity group and draw up a ballot that would meet with the approval of the student governing body The questions as they appeared on the ballot, prepared by the fraternity councils, were considered by Student Council to be misleading and ambiguous to the vote.

Issue Clouded

From the sentiments that were voiced by the members of Student Council it was evident that they considered June house-party the main issue at this time But the combined committee of the Inter-fraternity and Intra-mural Councils working under the assumption that something was at fault with the powers of student government in Penn State prepared its ballot with this as the paramount issue

Representatives from Student Council and the two fraternity bodies met late Tuesday night in an effort to consolidate the opinions of the three groups and to prepare a ballot that would conform to the wishes of all of the organizations These committees finally came to the agreement that the vote should be postponed until a unified sentiment had been gathered to determine what the nature of the questions on the ballot should be

NITTANY STAR ALSO TAKES 880 FEATURE

Former Lion Captain Captures Cup Permanently and Betters Own Time in "600"

Running in perhaps the best form of his sensational track career, Alan Helffrich, former Penn State captain and present holder of the world's record for 500 meters, last Wednesday evening captured the special half-mile feature of the Millrose Games, in New York City, in the fast time of 1 minute, 56 and 3-5 seconds, after he had displayed an exceptional brand of running the evening before when he bettered his own fastest time in the well-known "Millrose 600" by one-fifth of a second

The Penn State entry was followed closely to the finish of the half-mile by Ray Dodge of the Illinois A C, and Lloyd Hahn, Boston Athletic Association, and took the race in the last twelve yards when he challenged Dodge, who was leading, and uncorked a remarkable sprint for the tape

In the "Millrose 600" invitation special on the previous night the Blue and White runner had Walter S Mehrtens of Holy Cross and L C Higgins representing Harvard University running before him throughout the race Al won the event only in the final fifty yards when by a terrific sprint, he leaped past Mehrtens and bore down to the finish with the two other runners fighting at his shoulder

Moore Places Second

Moore equalling the world's record for the indoor 50 yard low hurdles in the Scott Cup' Moore placed second to Herb Meyers of the Newark A C in the final duel being clocked just a fraction slower than the Newark runner It was a race perhaps one of the fastest races of both nights indoor Surprising the spectators at the start the Lion cup finisher took second and Bowman, the Syracuse flash and took the first hurdle abreast of Meyers

Jim Lash also of Newark, Cox followed 'Crip' and these three men bunched topped the bars at a steady pace with Lash in the lead Meyers drive for the tape could be scanned by the speed of the Nittany leader and hopes for a new world's record vanished when he neared the end even the event he and 1-5 seconds equalling Moore's performance in his heat

Half-Mile Close

Starting on the turn into the second lap on the half-mile run Ray Watson of the I A C and Bates of Princeton collided and fell leaving the three others to fight it out Dodge of Illinois took the lead with Helffrich and Hahn following in that order Rounding the bend into the final straightaway, Al and the Boston A A man drew abreast of the leader and sprinted down the course shoulder to shoulder

Lashing to gain the lead Helffrich's pounding legs, working like pistons took him to the tape and he breasted the tape inches ahead of the renowned Dodge Hahn finishing third

"Millrose 600"

The "Millrose 600" was a close-cut Starting to the crack of the pistol, the

CUB FLOORMEN MIX WITH YORK TONIGHT

Yearlings Eager To Trip Y. C. I. for Fourth Win—Killinger Changes Line-up

CAPTAIN BARON TO PLAY AGAINST FORMER MATES

Eager to annex their fourth straight win eight Blue and White freshman basketball players left State College this morning, bound for the 14th of the York Collegiate Institute five which will be met on the York floor tonight This is the first jaunt taken by the yearlings this year

Originally, the trip was scheduled to be a two-day affair with Catholic University playing furnishing the opposition Sunday night However through some misunderstanding the Washington institution was forced to cancel the game only recently Manager A W York '25 attempted to substitute another mix but this date but was unsuccessful because of the late date of cancellation

Rearranged Lineup

Coach Killinger has made a change in his quintet during the past week Lynching Greene he has had Ex' Lundgren in the tip-off position while VonNieda has filled in the vacancy at right guard Although much heavier and of more stocky build than the usual run of pivot men the Peddie flash is blessed with 'spring' and because of this usually manages to get the jump-off from his opponent

Playing along with Captain Baron at guard, VonNieda has been doing consistent work this past week and has earned himself the chance to start tonight's game Lyhert High School's Rhode representative has been showing up especially strong in the foul shooting department It was in this respect that the Nittany freshmen were especially weak in the game with the Gettysburg yearlings last Saturday

Baron's School

There is more than usual interest shown in tonights game as it will be Captain Barons first appearance

Four Modern Buildings Will Replace Structures Ravaged in Christmas Fire

To replace the group of buildings on the corner of Allen street and College avenue destroyed by fire during Christmas vacation construction has been started on the foundations of four modern structures to be built on the same site One of the most important changes to take place will be the relocation of the Athletic store to the opposit corner of Allen street

In addition to the new 'Co-op' the two story building being erected on the corner will house two smaller stores facing Allen street It will be of steel reinforced concrete, fireproof construction, faced with mottled buff brick and trimmed with gray terra cotta A modified Tudor arch design has been applied to the show windows, according to the rough plans submitted by H P Kapp an architect on the Penn State teaching staff who has been selected by the proprietors to design all of the buildings

Different Designs

Smith's barber shop with a fourteen-foot front and the Montgomery three-story building will occupy the space between the corner property and Metzger's store while on College avenue Charles Schlow intends to erect a three-story structure between the new Athletic store and the Quality shop The upper floors of each of the buildings will be devoted either to offices or apartments

Although it was the original purpose of the builders to raise one large structure over the entire area when the various specifications for their locations were submitted the idea was abandoned as it was thought that the varied frontages and heights demanded individual architectural treatment Mr Kapp has so drawn up the designs that the buildings will harmonize with each other and the newer improvements about town

Ready Next Fall

If weather conditions are favorable it is expected that the new home of the Athletic store and possibly the other structures, will be ready for occupancy by next September in time for the beginning of the new school year

No estimates have been secured on the cost of construction as yet although the contractors are now working on this detail
