

BAUER APPLAUDED IN PIANO RECITAL

Large Audience Pleas'd by Pianist in Fifth "Y" Entertainment Course Number

ARTIST PROVED SKILL IN INTERPRETING CLASSICS

Moving before a crowded house in the Auditorium last Friday evening, Harold Bauer, world renowned pianist held his audience spell-bound by his masterful technique and the purity of his tone.

His command of the technical difficulties of his art, displayed at the recital justified in the minds of the listeners the high rank he holds among contemporary pianists.

In his playing of Bach's "Partita in F Major" Mr. Bauer displayed the appeal to the intellect that is so characteristic of the compositions of that famous master.

Beethoven's "Sonata Assoluta" for next number on the program was joyfully better enjoyed than any other selection.

Chopin and Liszt "Polynois by Schuman and the 'Scherzo in C Sharp Minor' by Chopin were next played.

"Y" PROGRAM COMPLETED FOR SECOND SEMESTER

With the fundamental purpose of working out the program for the second semester, the entire Senior "Y" Chapter left State College last Sunday for Colonel Boyd's cabin.

Before departing on the outing the members of the cabin, appointed a "Y" secretary to fill the place of W. R. Jones, who on account of his illness was unable to attend.

NEW ATHLETIC FEATURES ARE PLANNED FOR GIRLS

Archery, Rifle, Marksmanship and Horseshoe Pitching To Begin at Penn State

Miss Thirt, instructor in Physical Education and Hygiene for women announced that plans have been made for the introduction of several new features in her department.

No doubt the most important of these will begin this week when a survey of the hygienic habits of each girl will be made by means of a questionnaire.

New minor sports which Miss Thirt plans to introduce this spring are archery, sharp-shooting and pitching horseshoes.

Until Easter however the work in Physical Education will continue in the Army with special emphasis on archery, rifle and marksmanship.

E. F. ROMIG SPEAKS AT FIRST SUNDAY CHAPEL SERVICE OF SEMESTER

Taking his text from an ancient proverb, the Rev. E. F. Romig, pastor of the Third Col. Luth. church of New York City, was the speaker at the first Sunday chapel service of the semester.

Although he quoted many proverbs during the course of his sermon, the one upon which his talk was centered was the familiar one which reads: "The fathers have eaten sour grapes and their children's teeth are set on edge."

After College—What?

A STEADY RISE in position in the business world—or a long period of training before you are fitted for an executive job?

In addition to your undergraduate work, which should serve as a solid foundation, it will be well to consider the advisability of special training which will help to cut off years of expensive catch-up in the business world.

Babson Institute offers an intensive training course of one or two years—which teaches the fundamental principles of business and how to apply them in the daily conduct of commercial affairs.

By laboratory methods the student is shown and taught the principles of Executive Management which have built many of America's leading concerns.

Babson Institute is conducted for the purpose of aiding young men, who are to occupy positions of responsibility and trust to fill such positions ably and with credit to themselves.
