LEHIGH GRAPPLERS MEET BLUE AND WHITE SEVEN

to 145 to replace Washburn, back taking Williamson's place with equal skill in the 155 pound division.
Tuck a football man from the Bethlehem eleven is especially good on a back lever hold and won handily over his Navy opponent in the 175 pound class. Lehigh heavyweight is strong, having fought his opponent to a draw in the contest with the Middle. Other members of the team are consistently good and this year's victories for the Lehigh seven have come by decisive scores.

Olympic Coach
Coach Cann of the American Olympic wrestling team has been secured to referee the meet.
In a recent interview Coach Leonard emphasized the stiff opposition which the Lion will meet tomorrow and stated that the Blue and White chances are fair provided the men are free from over confidence resulting from the Cornell and previous meets. The work of the Nittany seven at Cornell showed improvement and any weak points disclosed have been further considered at this week.

FRESHMAN QUINT IDLE WITH NO GAME SLATED
With no game scheduled for the weekend the Penn State freshman basketball tossers will be given a brief holiday before they start pointing feet next Saturday's clash with the Syracuse Yellowjackets. Schumaker's season against the varsity five have featured the recent practices.
Green wearing play will probably be unable to appear in a Blue and White uniform for the remainder of the season. Receiving a slight rim scratch in the tilt with the Pitt cubs Greene was finally forced to undergo three operations at the Medical College hospital in Philadelphia. The injured member was cited and the freshman center will probably return to State College today.

PENN STATE TOSSERS OPPOSE NOTRE DAME

proved valuable additions to the present western edge aggregation.
It is probable that one of the greatest difficulties to be met by the Indians will be the difference between the eastern and western interpretation of basketball rules. Western tossers feel that eastern officials are very technical, in fact too much so. The western game is staged as a fast driving contest while eastern play is based on an attack of fast and snappy passing which to the westerners seems to slow up the encounter.

Lion Off Turn
Going well both in and out of Western Conference competition the Nittany are coming to Penn State with some hope of a victory over the Blue and White. It is probable that the western style of play will break up a Nittany passing attack with the result that tomorrow's contest will go to the team which evidences the best head-work and shooting ability.
Though fairly well pleased with the showing made last Saturday by the reserve quint, Coach Hermon recently stated that his first string aggregation is still somewhat off form in spite of recent improvement. The Nittany mentor feels that the Lions must be at their best to take over the western five directing the week's work toward this end.

may be filed has Bergman as the sixty-pounder, Greene the 175-pound representative and Hastings defending the heavyweight laurels. The second group has Bud Bergman holding down the same job Hastings at his old post of seventy-five-pounder and Pitts boxing in the unlimited class. The work of these men in practice last night will probably be Coach Houck's means of obtaining final information.

Navy Boxers
Coach Spike Webb will breeze in town this morning with his large squad of fighters. Only two men Lyons and Henderson of the 175- and 160-pound divisions, respectively are certain to meet against their Lion opponents. Lyons is captain and is a hardy two-fisted fighter, while Henderson has had a monopoly of the sixty-pound division at Annapolis.
For the fifteen-pound berth Collins, a newcomer this year is fighting with Luck and Imhoff. Ragsdale, veteran 115-pounder, is finding it a hard task to make his position certain as Commelin and Kowalski are giving him a stiff fight for first honors. An interesting battle is being staged for the unlimited as Skamnet, Vadillo, a former marine and at present reputed to be the strongest midshipman at Annapolis, is battling with Frank Stolz, a veteran football player. The Middies auspiciously opened their season by making a clean sweep of every bout with the M. I. T. aggregation. Last week the Notre Dame seven travelled east to take a drubbing. In both tilts, Navy has been supreme in every class.
