

FENCING INTRODUCED AS SPORT AT PENN STATE

Thirty Men Report to Lieutenant Miller for Practice on Friday and Wednesday

In an effort to place it on a level with the other minor sport teams at Penn State fencing is being introduced to the student body...

Although the sport is still in its infancy a squad of thirty men has been working out with Lieutenant Miller...

While it is too early to schedule intercollegiate matches for this season it is hoped that sufficient interest will be manifested in the sport...

The squad works out every Friday and Wednesday at four-thirty but the coaches wish it made plain that they will be willing to take anyone on any day after the third hour...

New Cup Suggested In an attempt to better present conditions, the committee on fraternities and ship recommended that each society be assessed a dollar for the purchase of a cup to be awarded to the chapter which would have raised the largest amount for each semester.

Keys Pending

Various views were expressed in respect to a key for the members of the I. I. C. but it was found that there had been some misunderstanding about the matter.

That confusion of the mind at the dean's office would be overcome by the institution of an adequate filing system was the second proviso of the report.
