HIGH SCHOOL QUINTETS TO BATTLE FOR HONORS
found in alternate shots. Nantloke comes to the tournament with an altered lineup but, despite the change expects to cop the trophy. Zander, a veteran of two years and Morgan a diminutive but fiery player, are slated in the 3' box over Leibel. From high school, and coach Dick Lutz expects these men to cop the high school honors of the tournament. Drayzinski, model center, holds down the post and Lutz, a new man, is slated to guard along with Cap'n Sherwood, who is known throughout the circuit as one of the best guards in high school circles.

NITTANY BOXERS ENTER INTERCOLLEGIATE CLASH

Washington in the Army early this week. Kaplan of Pennsylvania faces McLeod of Syracuse and Beach of Colgate will mix with Yale. Wertz strongest opposition is expected from Kaplan Allen and Beach although Kaplan was defeated by Leon Bender and Beach dropped a close bout to the Red and Blue battler.

Washington Faces Task
Teddly Washington in the 115 pound class faces Mazik of Colgate in the preliminary bout while Schmokey of Pennsylvania meets Clarkson of Navy. McLeod of Syracuse and Beach of Colgate will mix with Yale. Wertz strongest opposition is expected from Kaplan Allen and Beach although Kaplan was defeated by Leon Bender and Beach dropped a close bout to the Red and Blue battler.

Basings May Box Heavy
Coach Houck is undecided between Hastings and Welko for the Penn State light-heavyweight berth against Leav of Syracuse. If Welko fights seventy-five Hastings will be moved up to the unlimited class against either Leav or Edwards of Navy. The regular preliminary in the 175 pound class will be between Colgate against Captain Tom of Annapolis and the best of Pennsylvania opposing McCoy of Yale. In the heavyweight division Kaufman of the Quakers faces Hamilton of Colgate while Fitz Orange grapple drew a bye in the prelims.

field goal from beneath the basket but two Phi Epsilon Pi foul shots soon evened the count. Kent scored a double for the Delta Sigis while James added another point for his team with a foul shot. Kent tossed in the third double for the runner-up and the lead was stayed back and forth. A field goal by Green, who substituted for Zbimczin sent the Phi Eps ahead, 8-8 as the half ended.

Williamsport Defeats York
Leaving York by a 13-27 count Williamsport high comes to State College as the title-holding team of central Pennsylvania. The Williamsport captain, God, scored in the final tilt and his exceptional guarding was a big factor in the winning of the bout. Kent, Leav, and Galloway, at forward, H. Sidley, at center, and both at the other defensive post made up the remainder of the quartet.

parodies of particular books, but absurd burlesques of the types of fiction then or recently in vogue.
Of all his contributions to literature, five have found their way to the Penn State Carnegie library. They are "College Days," "Elements of Political Science," "Essays and Literary Studies," "Nonsense Novels" and his more recent work "My Discovery of England." The title of this book of "Frenzied Fiction" will be the topic for his address here.

For men who want quality— here's what quality means Quality, says the dictionary, is that which makes one thing different from another. AL'S are quality shoes. They have style, they wear well, but one thing that makes them different from all other shoes is the pear-shaped heel. That makes them fit better than any other shoe made. Here is one good style. Many more await you here.
