

FORESTRY DEPARTMENT DIRECTS SAWMILL WORK

Lectures and Practical Instruction by Well-known Millmen Will Comprise Program

The first annual Sawmill Week, held under the direction of the department of Farm Forestry, began yesterday and will continue until Saturday.

The course of instruction is intended for possible sawmill men and offers them an opportunity to increase their efficiency and better their production by running a mill under the supervision of an expert.

On Wednesday W. D. Krieser, a portable sawmill operator of long experience will lecture on "Setting Up and Operating the Small Sawmill".

TWO SENIOR ARCHITECTS WIN MENTION IN CONTEST

J. M. Judge '22 Gets Next Highest Honor Award for Drawing of "A Water Gate"

In a recent judgment at the Beaux-Arts Institute of Design two senior architectural students, J. M. Judge and G. W. Baxer, won first and second mentions, respectively, on their solutions of the problem "A Water Gate".

The Architectural department is represented in the world wide exhibit at the Grand Central Palace in New York next week.

PENN STATE CREAMERY PATRONS PLAN ANNUAL CONVENTION TOMORROW

The Creamery Patrons annual get-together will be held in the Stock Building pavilion, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, April twenty-second.

The course of instruction is intended for possible sawmill men and offers them an opportunity to increase their efficiency and better their production by running a mill under the supervision of an expert.

OPENING DATE FOR NET SEASON IS POSTPONED

Coach Ham Undecided on Players That Will Face Bucknell Squad on Tuesday

Although the tennis season was previously announced as opening today, the Nittany racket-saddlers will not swing into action until Tuesday.

With the exception of Captain Goucher, 12 B Eggleston 26 and D Malpass 25 whose recent exhibitions have won them recognition, little is known concerning the personnel of the team that will represent Penn State.

With the return of Labuge the two-headed star who has been beaten but twice in his entire inter-collegiate career, Bucknell appears to have one of the best tennis teams ever to represent the Orange and Blue.

NITTANY GOLFERS PLAY FIRST TILT SATURDAY

Candidates Hold Staff Practice Last Week—Team of Fifteen Chosen for Match

Holding climatic conditions to determine the golf match of the season with the Centre Hill's County club on Saturday afternoon Coach Hutchcroft will be able to obtain a definite line on his candidates by the end of the week.

The match Saturday is not expected to be a real test for the Nittany golfers as the County Club linksmen were easily defeated by last year's Blue and White combination.

ADVANCED THINKERS TO JUMP AHEAD A CENTURY

Not satisfied with this twentieth century of ours, certain forward-looking souls at Technody, founded a twenty-first century club whose stated purpose is "Education for a Social Order Based on Better Mutual Understanding Among Individuals and Among Groups of Individuals".
