Twenty-two Squads Entered From Four States—Compete for J. C. White Trophy

HARRISBURG TECH TEAM FAVORED TO WIN EVENT

Competition in the interscholastic track meet which is to be held on New Beaver Field next Saturday afternoon promises to be stronger than ever before in the history of the annual event.

Twenty-two squads have been entered from Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and West Virginia high schools.

Following from past performance the Harrisburg Tech aggregation is picked as the favorite to win the meet but stiff opposition will be furnished by Lewisburg and Altoona high schools.

Adding from past performance the Harrisburg Tech aggregation is picked as the favorite to win the meet but stiff opposition will be furnished by Lewisburg and Altoona high schools.

The committee in charge of the meet, requests the fraternities to help house these men while here. On account of the large number taking part in the meet it is necessary to know immediately the fraternities that will assist in this way.

D. H. STUDENTS STAGE CLEAN MILK CONTEST

One of the features of the Penn State dairy exposition which will be held at the Stock Pavilion on Saturday May ninth is a clean milk production contest open to all students enrolled in dairy husbandry.

Each contestant will produce his own samples of milk under the conditions he considers most desirable. All samples must be turned over to C. W. Strub 25 prizes for first, second and third prizes have not yet been announced but the awards will be made at the banquet which follows the exposition.

Another feature of the exposition will be a mock sale of cattle to be conducted by a professional auctioneer. In this contest students will estimate the value of several heads of cattle and the three most accurate bidders will receive prizes. Ice cream will be sold by students during the show.
