

Penn State Collegian

Fill This In--We've Gone Swimm'

VOL. XX, No. 65

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1925

PRICE FIVE CENTS

LION CINDER TEAM MEETS PANTHER IN FINAL DUAL CLASH

Performance of Pitt Runners in Schenley Intercollegiate of Promising Calibre

PENN STATE HANDICAPPED IN TWO WEIGHT EVENTS

Nittany Strength Lies in Dashes and Hurdles--Two-mile Run Should Be Fast

Facing the Pitt Panthers in their last meet of the season the Nittany cindermen will strive to keep their record of victories unbroken in the dual meet on New Beaver field at two-thirty o'clock Saturday.

The team will probably be handicapped in the weight events as Ockwider and Ammerman will be unable to compete because of examinations.

With Captain Crip Moore, Lech and Costello leading the Blue and White to the barrier events the Lion team should be able to garner a majority of points in both high and low hurdle events.

With the Nittany cindermen in their last meet of the season the Nittany cindermen will strive to keep their record of victories unbroken in the dual meet on New Beaver field at two-thirty o'clock Saturday.

With the Nittany cindermen in their last meet of the season the Nittany cindermen will strive to keep their record of victories unbroken in the dual meet on New Beaver field at two-thirty o'clock Saturday.

With the Nittany cindermen in their last meet of the season the Nittany cindermen will strive to keep their record of victories unbroken in the dual meet on New Beaver field at two-thirty o'clock Saturday.

SOPHOMORES TRIPPED BY FRESHMEN IN NET SCRAP

Yearling Tennis Team Vanquishes Rivals in Easy Match--1927 Scores in Doubles

Making a clean sweep of the singles and holding the sophomores to even break in the two doubles matches, the 1925 netsters captured the annual class court scrap on New Beaver field Tuesday afternoon.

In the first engagement it if Dan '25 won from Tom Rowland '27 after a hard three-set match, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

In the final singles match, W. L. MacCowan '28 had no difficulty in proving his superiority over E. P. Himmerly '27, 6-1, 6-1.

Clippers and Molasses Reign Supreme As Tribunal Adjourns Until Next Year

Meeting out the supreme sentence to the one unfortunate trespasser who was tried at the meeting of the jury Wednesday evening, the Tribunal disposed of its final case of the year.

Continuing his almost unbroken string of summers, A. W. Samuel '27 was ordered to appear before the board of justice on the charge of smoking in the State Shirt Shop.

Without asking for a college registration in the matter, I am going to request all fraternities, both national and local to refrain from rushing freshmen and from entertaining them in the fraternity houses until Tuesday, September fifteenth at four-thirty p. m.

DEAN REQUESTS FRATERNITY AID

The following communication has been sent out by A. R. Wainock, dean of men:

The Committee on Freshman Week has directed that incoming freshmen be free from solicitation of all kinds during the week of their preliminary instruction, September ninth to fifteenth, 1925.

TWELVE SCHEDULED TO TAKE SILVER BAY TRIP

Nittany Delegates Will Leave For Conference on June Tenth With Bucknellians

As a close to the Penn State Y. M. C. A. activities this year more than twenty-five students will make a trip to Silver Bay, New York, to attend the annual convention of fifteen colleges.

While only twelve delegates have been enrolled, the change in the number of students from twelve to fifteen from fifteen to eight has made it possible for twenty-eight Penn State representatives to accompany the delegation.

The outstanding feature of this year's conference is the assemblage of a number of men of wide repute among them being Raymond Fosdick, one of the secretaries of the League of Nations and well known in circles of international law.

- BLUE KEY LLECTIONS: W. L. Ammeiman, C. R. Bergman, H. A. Cannon, J. V. Ingram, J. B. Jacobs, J. B. Keehan, N. B. Lano, J. B. McClements, W. B. Phillips, W. P. Reed, H. L. Schimpff, G. L. Setman, C. G. Strong, F. W. Weiland

Varsity Netmen Clash with Pitt for Second Time

Lion Courtmen Strive to Avenge Defeat Suffered at Smoky City on May Ninth

Nittany Squad Shows Up Well in Practice

Match Scheduled for Two-thirty Saturday--Panthers Have Strong Aggregation

Going into a match with the handicap of meeting again a team which is credited with a 2-0 record the Blue and White, the Penn State netmen will engage the powerful 1-1 team from the Army.

The Blue and Gold racketeers took over Coach Ham's aggregation on May ninth at Pittsburgh by the score of 5 to 2 after the Nittany team had suffered the loss of Eberstein on the preceding day during the match with Carnegie Tech.

STUDENT BOARD IS CHOSEN BY COUNCIL

Bill Passed To Give Senior Cheer Leader Membership--Will Await Action

Representatives from AG School Announced

Installing officers for next year and electing the new members of Student Board and the Tribunal occupied the time of Student Council at its last meeting of the year in 14 Liberal Arts building Wednesday night.

The members of Student Board in addition to Dean Wainock for the next year are: seniors, D. D. Henry, W. W. Allen and Bruce Butler, juniors, G. L. Setman and S. H. Tschila, sophomore, W. J. Gorman.

COLLEGE ADOPTS PLANS FOR SENIOR CLASS DAY

President W. G. Wicand Will Give First Speech--W. C. Calhoun Is Valedictorian

The Senior Class Day activities which are scheduled to begin at ten o'clock on Monday, June fifteenth will be held in the open-air theater on the front campus.

SCHOOL RECEPTIONS TO FEATURE JUNE PROGRAM

Deans and Faculty Members Will Be Hosts at Gatherings on Commencement Day

An attractive Commencement Day luncheon will be given at the Deans' reception by the deans and faculty members of each school to parents of graduates and other guests on the afternoon of that day.

These receptions will begin at one-thirty o'clock and will end promptly at two-thirty-five, so that those concerned may prepare for the Commencement procession. The object of the luncheon is to make it easy for graduates to find their deans and instructors whom they wish their parents and friends to meet.

- School of Agriculture on the lawn and in the gym near the Dairy building, in care of Dean, in Room 100. School of Liberal Arts in the lobby of the L. A. building. School of Engineering in the faculty hall in the lobby of the Old Main building. School of Chemistry and Physics in the laboratory.

National Champion To Play Gerhardt

Pitted against probably the most perfect golfer in the game, Captain Pipe Gerhardt will meet Walter Hagen on the Centre Hills country club course in an exhibition match next Friday morning at nine-thirty o'clock.

Hagen will be paired with Art Walker, Centre Hills professional, in a low ball foursome against Gerhardt and Stevenson, the two ranking players on the Nittany golf team.

THESPIANS PREPARE FOR JUNE SHOWING

"Wooden Shoes" Will Be Staged Next Saturday Night for College Alumni

Club Members Plan to Hold Dutch Lunch

With a view to making this one of the most successful showings of the year, even surpassing that of the western tour, the Penn State Thespians are holding nightly rehearsals for the Commencement and final production of "Wooden Shoes" in the Auditorium Saturday evening, June thirteenth, at seven-fifteen o'clock.

DR. HOLMES WILL GIVE JUNE VESPER ADDRESS

Speaker Is Former Penn State Dean of Faculty--Author of Numerous Books

Dr. Arthur Holmes, professor of psychology at the University of Pennsylvania, will speak at the vesper address Sunday evening, June thirteenth, at six-thirty in the open-air theater.

DELTA SIGMA PHI AND BETA THETA PI MET IN FINAL CONTEST FOR CUP LAST EVENING

Varying a first ball with a devastating flourish that repeatedly staved off the Phi Dotsmen and accounted for fourteen strikeouts, Robert Fowler of Delta Sigma Phi nine into the final round of the inter-fraternity baseball elimination by a 7 to 3 victory.

INTERFRATERNITY NINES FINISH BASEBALL TILTS

Delta Sigma Phi and Beta Theta Pi Met in Final Contest for Cup Last Evening

Varying a first ball with a devastating flourish that repeatedly staved off the Phi Dotsmen and accounted for fourteen strikeouts, Robert Fowler of Delta Sigma Phi nine into the final round of the inter-fraternity baseball elimination by a 7 to 3 victory.

STUDENTS WARNED AGAINST ROWDYISM

On Wednesday evening about twenty-five students went into the College Power plant and tried to obstruct roughly because he would not blow the whistle.

COLLEGIAN ISSUED ONCE NEXT WEEK

Since there will be but one issue of the COLLEGIAN during examination week, this will be issued Wednesday, June tenth.

OUT-DOOR EXERCISES ON CAMPUS PLANNED FOR COMMENCEMENT

Seating Capacity Will Be Increased by New Plan--Six Hundred Students Will Receive Degrees

For the first time in the history of Penn State the commencement exercises on June fifteenth will be held outdoors with seating capacity of 2100 will be placed in a quadrangle about the Old Main Terrace on the front campus.

OLD MAIN BELL AND LA VIE SALE

There will be cash sales of 1926 La Vie at Co-op Monday night from seven to nine o'clock. Extra copies will be sold at the usual price of five dollars a copy.

LION AND PANTHER TO MEET ON LINKS

Pitt Golfers Face Nittany Team in Return Tilt Tomorrow at Centre Hills

PIPE GERHARDT SMASHES COLLEGE COURSE RECORD

Playing in their last dual match of the year, the Nittany linksmen will encounter the University of Pittsburgh golfers for the second time this season when they clash on the Centre Hills country club course tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

COURSE RECORD BROKEN

Earlier in the week Doc Taylor held the course record at Penn State for one day when he shot a thirty-one on the par being thirty-three.

DELTA SIGMA PHI REMAINS IN PENN STATE

Delta Sigma Phi remained in the running by virtue of two consecutive seasons, notable victories over Phi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Phi Sigma--the scores being 11 to 9 and 7 to 0 respectively.

STUDENTS WARNED AGAINST ROWDYISM

On Wednesday evening about twenty-five students went into the College Power plant and tried to obstruct roughly because he would not blow the whistle.

COLLEGIAN ISSUED ONCE NEXT WEEK

Since there will be but one issue of the COLLEGIAN during examination week, this will be issued Wednesday, June tenth.

OUT-DOOR EXERCISES ON CAMPUS PLANNED FOR COMMENCEMENT

Seating Capacity Will Be Increased by New Plan--Six Hundred Students Will Receive Degrees

For the first time in the history of Penn State the commencement exercises on June fifteenth will be held outdoors with seating capacity of 2100 will be placed in a quadrangle about the Old Main Terrace on the front campus.

OLD MAIN BELL AND LA VIE SALE

There will be cash sales of 1926 La Vie at Co-op Monday night from seven to nine o'clock. Extra copies will be sold at the usual price of five dollars a copy.

LION AND PANTHER TO MEET ON LINKS

Pitt Golfers Face Nittany Team in Return Tilt Tomorrow at Centre Hills

PIPE GERHARDT SMASHES COLLEGE COURSE RECORD

Playing in their last dual match of the year, the Nittany linksmen will encounter the University of Pittsburgh golfers for the second time this season when they clash on the Centre Hills country club course tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

COURSE RECORD BROKEN

Earlier in the week Doc Taylor held the course record at Penn State for one day when he shot a thirty-one on the par being thirty-three.

DELTA SIGMA PHI REMAINS IN PENN STATE

Delta Sigma Phi remained in the running by virtue of two consecutive seasons, notable victories over Phi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Phi Sigma--the scores being 11 to 9 and 7 to 0 respectively.

STUDENTS WARNED AGAINST ROWDYISM

On Wednesday evening about twenty-five students went into the College Power plant and tried to obstruct roughly because he would not blow the whistle.

COLLEGIAN ISSUED ONCE NEXT WEEK

Since there will be but one issue of the COLLEGIAN during examination week, this will be issued Wednesday, June tenth.

DELTA SIGMA PHI AND BETA THETA PI MET IN FINAL CONTEST FOR CUP LAST EVENING

Varying a first ball with a devastating flourish that repeatedly staved off the Phi Dotsmen and accounted for fourteen strikeouts, Robert Fowler of Delta Sigma Phi nine into the final round of the inter-fraternity baseball elimination by a 7 to 3 victory.

INTERFRATERNITY NINES FINISH BASEBALL TILTS

Delta Sigma Phi and Beta Theta Pi Met in Final Contest for Cup Last Evening

Varying a first ball with a devastating flourish that repeatedly staved off the Phi Dotsmen and accounted for fourteen strikeouts, Robert Fowler of Delta Sigma Phi nine into the final round of the inter-fraternity baseball elimination by a 7 to 3 victory.

STUDENTS WARNED AGAINST ROWDYISM

On Wednesday evening about twenty-five students went into the College Power plant and tried to obstruct roughly because he would not blow the whistle.

- LACROSSE LLECTIONS: Captain D. M. Hackett '26, Manager G. H. Cook '26, First Assistants W. S. Creighton '27, H. A. Leiding '27